Tragic and sudden was the death of Mr. John Gray of Durham on Saturday afternoon, on the highway about two miles north of Durham. The family just moved into town last fall from their farm on the 4th Con. On Friday he was out visiting among the old neighbours and was returning home. He had his dinner at his daughter's, Mrs. Jas. Vessie, and afterwards started for town. He was meeting one car and failed to hear one coming behind him, being somewhat deaf. He suddenly turned out from the path of the oncoming car from the south, but right in front of the one from the north. The driver did his utmost to avoid the accident, ditching his car; but the lamp and fender struck him a heavy blow. He was rushed to the hospital, but the spirit had fled. The funeral takes place on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Gray has been a wonderfully active man all his life, who is most obliging, kindly neighbour. He is survived by his partner, three sons, George and William in town, and Harry of Bunnessan, and one daughter, Janet (Mrs. James Vessie). Much sympathy is expressed and deeply felt for the family.

The purpose was to call and see an exceptionally fine herd of eighty-eight three-year-old steers, principally of the Hereford breed. These averaged about sixteen hundred pounds each.

Mr. Rountree, who is the buyer for the Harris Abattoir Co., was owner of these splendid animals and had just sold them to the American Market for the handsome figure of 13 1/2 cents per pound, live weight, netting him the sum of nearly $20,000.
