Mrs. R. H. Breadner Died

There passed away at her home near Rockton on Saturday afternoon, June 2, Emma Loughheed, beloved wife of Robt. H. Breadner, in her fifty-fourth year.

Deceased had been quite ill for a few months prior to her death, although her friends hoped soon to see her restored to her usual health and strength, but all that loving care and nursing could do was of no avail.

Deceased was a kind and affectionate wife and mother, beloved by all who knew her, and will be sadly missed. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Mrs. Wiley of Markdale, and three grand-children; also five sisters and one brother, namely: Mrs. J. Gardner, Toronto; Mrs. S. McConnell, Richmond Hill; Mrs. R. Gilmore, Elmvale, Mrs. W. Gilmour, near Kitchener, and Mrs. R. Reid and Isiah of Rockton.

Sunday School Anniversary

On Sunday last Amnesley Sunday School Anniversary was held and the services were very much enjoyed by all present. In the morning service the special speaker was Dr. Frank Moore of Clarksburg, and his address was appealing. The work of the Sunday School was stressed and it was strongly urged that the church should stand squarely behind the work of Religious Education and Bible Study. Several of the members of the school assisted in the service. Judith St. John recited the names of the Books of the Bible; Jane Noble recited the 23rd Psalm, and Reta Douglas the 13th of 1st Corinthians. A group of Primary girls sang sweetly, and a group of Junior boys recited the Ten Commandments. Three of the larger classes occupied the choir seats and the rest of the school occupied the centre section of the church. A very pleasing feature of the service was the reading of an address by Mrs. David Foster to Mrs. Thomas Cooke in recognition of the completion of sixty years of continuous service as Sunday School teacher in churches wherever she attended. A beautiful basket of roses was presented to Mrs. Cooke by Phyllis Bowler, one of the smaller members of the Primary Class. Following is the address:

Our dear Friend and Fellow-worker: Your many friends in Amnesley Church desire to express to you their most sincere congratulations upon having completed sixty years as a Sunday School teacher in the various churches where you have attended; a record, we think, quite unique in the history of Christian work in our country.

In all those years you have influenced many lives, bringing to them the gracious truths of the word of God and by your consistent Christian life been an inspiration to many.

In the years you have spent teaching in the Sunday School of this church you have made a host of friends and you are held in highest esteem as a faithful teacher of the word of God and as one who has tried to live according to the precepts of that word.

We hope and pray that you may yet be spared many years to continue the work you love so well, and that God's choicest blessing may follow you, and your esteemed companion in life, "until the morning dawn and the shadows flee away."

At the evening service the members of the school were again present though not so many as at the morning service. The address of Mr. R. W. E. McPadden on the subject "Jewels" was appropriate and was much appreciated. The evening Scripture Lesson was read by the Secretary of the school, Mr. Aubrey Foster. Mr. R. W. Patton of Flesherton, who will be ordained into the ministry of the United Church at the coming Conference, closed the service. The Superintendent, Mr. W. J. McPadden, presided at both morning and evening services.

W. C. T. U.

The W.C.T.U. held their June meeting at the home of Mrs. Thos. Cooke on Tuesday afternoon, June 5th, the president, Mrs. Cooke, presiding. The meeting opened with the hymn, "Faith of our Fathers," followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. The Scripture Lesson, read responsively, was chosen from the 13th chapter of 1st Corinthians. Minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

The Clip Sheet Program was then taken up which was very interesting and helpful. The Treasurer's Report was read showing money raised to be $32.59.

The election of officers then took place and resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Thos. Cooke. Vice-President, Mrs. A. N. St. John. Rec.-Sec. Mrs. H. Noble. Cor.-Sec. Mrs. E. Belmes. Treas. Mrs. A. E. Colgan. Evangelistic, Mrs. Rusk. Flower and Fruit, Mrs. T. Cooke. Mothers' Meetings, Mrs. A. L. Walker. Anti-Narcotics, Mrs. Cooke. Train Work, Mrs. Cooke. Press Work, Mrs. Wiley. The meeting closed with Prayer and the benediction.
