Evangelistic Services

Special Evangelistic Services are now on in the Gospel Workers' Church in town.

Rev. W. L. Vandall of Akron, Ohio, and Rev. V. Sberal of Indianapolis, Indiana, are the special singers and musician for the meetings. Mr. Vandall is one of the sweetest Gospel Singers of America, while Mr. Sberal is a wonderful pianist and the singing and music delight the congregations.

Sunday Services at 10:30 a.m., 2:30 and 7:30 p.m.
Weeknights at 7:15 o'clock (except Saturdays).
Song Service preceding each service.

DON'T MISS A MEETING. ALL ARE WELCOME.

(Special to The Standard.)
Barley and buckwheat mixed is getting to be a favourite crop in this vicinity, yielding heavy returns and is easily harvested.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Ivan Edwards of Shelburne and W. H. Edwards of Eganville were weekend visitors at the Edwards home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Cook of Deerpark rightly deserve the gratitude of their neighbours. Though away from the neighbourhood, they are Zion's most generous supporters. God bless and prosper them!

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Peart and sons, Emerson and Rob; J. J. and son, Oren H. Bacon and Fred Cook, left early Sunday morning for a big annual reunion of members of the Peart family to be held at Caledonia. They returned on Sunday evening. Judge Emerson Coatsworth of Toronto is one of its most honored members.

Mrs. Ray McCrae and Miss Lily Moore of Palmerston and Mrs. Jas. Johnson of Durham were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edwards on Sunday.

Mr. Ross Head of Hamilton, nephew of the late Jas. C. Ross of the mill, is a visitor at Mr. Colin McArthur's.

Rev. Alexander Torrie of Toronto is conducting successful evangelistic services in North Glenelg Baptist church.

Mr. Wm. Baker is a sufferer these days from a broken rib and slight complication of one lung.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Terry and son Jack of Lambton were guests at the brother George's the first of the week.

After the "great success" as a teacher in No. 5, Miss R. L. Darnear has resigned and will be on the lookout for a heavier school. The Trustee Board, meantime, part with her.

A very happy wedding took place in the parlour of Queen St. United church, Durham, at 1:30 Wednesday, June 6, 1928, when the Rev. H. S. Fildes united in wedlock Miss Catherine, second youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cook, and Waudby, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baker. Miss Gladys Baker and Mr. Clinton Cook were the witnesses and the first to shower them with confetti as they left the parsonage portico. After the ceremony the gay company drove to the parental home of the bride where a reception was held, later followed by a sumptuous supper, when over twenty guests, immediate relatives, made merry and feasted royally, the table being beautifully decorated and graced with a fine three-storey bridal cake. Among the guests present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Cook of Deerpark; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Fairweather and son, Gordon, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McFadden and family of Orange Valley; Miss E. J. Allan of Chesley; and Miss Kathleen Firth, Durham. The bride looked most bonnie in her bridal dress of sand crepe de chene. She has been one of Zion's choir; has been active in League, Church and Sunday School work, and is gifted in needlework and homemaking. The groom is a progressive young farmer, having a fine farm of 130 acres on the 10th con., and the young couple begin the new life under bright auspices. On Friday evening a large reception was held when over a-hundred invited guests gathered and had a most happy time and were warm in their expressions of goodwill. The bride has received a splendid array of useful and costly presents and sums of money. They will begin homemaking this week, and carry with them the good wishes of a wide circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Morrison and son, Harold, of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith of Erin were up to see Miss Hannah Smith at Hayward's Falls on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Young and family of Wilder's Lake spent the first of the week at the Baker home.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie MacLean of Bentinck attended service at the North Glenelg Baptist church on Sunday and visited among friends.

Harkaway

Harkaway Garden Party on Tuesday evening, June 19th, on the church grounds.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Acheson (nee Miss Louise Moore) of Menford, on the arrival of a young son.

On Tuesday evening last the late Joseph Richardson passed away at the home of his brother, T. H. Richardson, after a three days' illness of flu. The funeral took place to Harkaway church on Thursday afternoon, Rev. Wakefield in charge. Burial took place in the Harkaway cemetery. We extend our sympathy to the relatives and friends.

The W.M.S. met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. J. Lyons, the president in charge. The meeting opened with singing and prayer. Scripture Lesson was read alternately from the 102nd Psalm.

Eight members answered the roll with the word blessing, and four visitors were present. Mrs. Binns read the minutes of the May meeting.

Business discussion on the bale and the cage to be in by the next meeting for the Fred Victor home in Toronto. Mrs. L. McLaughlin then gave the report of the convention held in Durham in May. Mrs. Wakefield led in prayer. The word for next meeting is "Grace." The meeting closed with singing and prayer.
