

Life in Arctic Regions Full of Incidents and Adventure

Canadian Geologist's Diary Tells of the Joys of the Messages Received From "Home" by Radio—Christmas Day Celebrated.

There is not so much to be done in the Arctic as in the tropics, but the life is full of incidents and adventure. The Canadian geologist's diary tells of the joys of the messages received from "home" by radio—Christmas Day celebrated.

On Nov. 12, the sun was shining brightly and the temperature was 20 degrees below zero. The geologist was out on a sledging party, and the dogs were pulling the sleds with a will. The geologist was out on a sledging party, and the dogs were pulling the sleds with a will.

Crowded With Incident

These men do not refer to their expeditions as "trips," but as "expeditions." They are not only crowded with incident and adventure, but also with the joy of the messages received from "home" by radio.

The Diary of L. J. Weeks of the Geological Survey

The diary of L. J. Weeks of the Geological Survey is a fascinating record of life in the Arctic. It tells of the joys of the messages received from "home" by radio, and of the adventures of the sledging party.

The House That Fell Not

The house that fell not was a small wooden building that had been built by the geologist. It was a simple structure, but it was a home for the geologist and his sledging party.

What's a Jag?

What's a jag? It is a slang term for a jagged piece of ice. The geologist found many jagged pieces of ice in the Arctic, and they were a constant hazard to the sledging party.

Drunk Means Drunk

Drunk means drunk. The geologist found that the sledging party was often drunk, and this was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

Few Tests For Liquor Pests

Few tests for liquor pests. The geologist found that there were few tests for liquor pests in the Arctic. This was a serious problem, as liquor pests could ruin the sledging party's supplies.

Leith Police Dismissed

Leith police dismissed. The geologist found that the Leith police were dismissed, and this was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

Decision Heightens Problem

Decision heightens problem. The geologist found that the decision to go to the Arctic was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

The Sledging Party

The sledging party. The geologist found that the sledging party was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

At This Point

At this point. The geologist found that at this point was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

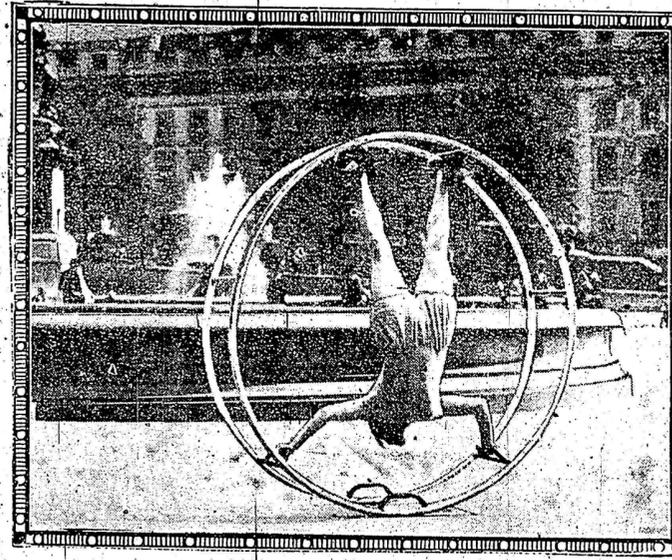

The Sledging Party

The sledging party. The geologist found that the sledging party was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

S'MATTER POP—By Payne

S'MATTER POP—By Payne. A cartoon by Payne showing a man and a woman talking. The man says, "I haven't heard you fighting with Sammy Brown lately." The woman replies, "No, we don't fight." The man says, "That's good! How come?" The woman replies, "Because we ain't good friends." The man says, "We don't speak so no fight is." The woman replies, "Yes sir." The man says, "Give me time to think that over, H.M.M." The woman replies, "Yes sir."

Roll Your Hoop To Health

PERHAPS TO BE POPULAR WITH REDUCERS
Girl in gymnastic Ayro wheel spins round Trafalgar Square, London. This new athletic device, which has become a fad in Europe, has been tested and passed by the British army.

Rocket Explosions Propel Motor-Car at Great Speed

Solution Is Sought of Flying in the Highest Altitude of the Atmosphere

Berlin.—The "Opel Rocket Car," propelled forward by the explosion of rockets placed in the rear of the machine, was demonstrated for the first time on the Avus Speedway, attaining a speed variously estimated at 100 miles an hour. Fritz von Opel was at the wheel.

Physicians Devise Formula

Finally, in despair, several London physicians devised the formula which is causing the present legal controversy. The prisoner, they held, should have a full examination from a committee consisting of both doctors and laymen. This examination should be held in a public place, and the prisoner should be allowed to hear and to be heard by his friends.

On This Formula Most of the Doctors

On this formula most of the doctors and half of the magistrates of London have been able to unite. It establishes, definitely, separate tribunals for the aviator, the motorist, the bicyclist, the elevator operator, the steam shovel engineer, the over-the-shoulder rickshaw puller, the oyster shucker and the already referred to trap-drummer, after-dinner speaker and pedestrian.—N. Y. Herald Tribune.

Finds Indian Language Without Nouns or Verbs

Bombay.—A language that has no nouns or verbs is among the 180 languages which Sir George Grierson has mastered in a linguistic survey of India which has just been completed.

U.S. Takes $5,100 Tax On $57,000 Ice Lottery

Anchorage, Alaska.—Without having purchased a single ticket in the Tanana River ice pool the United States was one of the winners to the amount of $5,100—the income tax from the three persons who guessed the accurate break occurred. The amount of the pool this year was $57,000.

Knights of the Racquet

United States team selected for lawn tennis supremacy Davis Cup finals: Lott, Junior Coen, Tilden, Hennessey.

Experts Study Dead Village Sites of Alaska

Expedition Seeks Evidence Tracing Indians to Descendants of Asia

Washington.—Further extensive archaeological exploration in Alaska should be undertaken without delay, believes Dr. Ales Hrdlicka, archaeologist of the Smithsonian Institution, who has discovered evidences in that region that the American Indian is a descendant of an Asiatic race.

England's New Silver Pieces

The Royal Mint of England has issued four new silver coins, the designs for which were approved by the King's proclamation, last November. The coins have the new design are the half-crown, florin, shilling and sixpence.

Mexican Saloon Retains Sign Posted for Lindbergh

Mexico City.—Lindbergh's name continues to adorn at least one, perhaps more of the Mexican City saloons that were torn down their former signs and replaced their places in honor of the famous flyer when he was here last December.

Retiring Administrator Declares Non-Native Elements Have Stirred Up Sedition

Auckland, N.Z.—Sir George Richardson, the retiring Administrator of the mandated territory of Samoa, has returned to New Zealand, whence he will go to Geneva, to appear before the Mandates Commission of the League of Nations. Discussing the situation in Samoa Sir George declared that much of the trouble on the island was from a small, non-pressing section of the community in Apia, some of whom live in the past, and yearn for the good old days when the natives were, comparatively speaking, a non-progressive and uncared-for people.

Samoa Unrest Said Not to Be Natives' Work

The retiring administrator declares non-native elements have stirred up sedition. Sir George Richardson, the retiring Administrator of the mandated territory of Samoa, has returned to New Zealand, whence he will go to Geneva, to appear before the Mandates Commission of the League of Nations.

Worshipful Abandon Poisoning

Meaningless and Mismannered

The occurrence of this kind of poisoning in this country are not so common as they were some years ago. The Journal of the Medical Association, Chicago, Ill., reports that the poisoning of the worshipful is a meaningless and unmannered act.

Don't Make Out of Babies Have

Don't make out of babies have. A cartoon by Payne showing a man and a woman talking. The man says, "I haven't heard you fighting with Sammy Brown lately." The woman replies, "No, we don't fight." The man says, "That's good! How come?" The woman replies, "Because we ain't good friends." The man says, "We don't speak so no fight is." The woman replies, "Yes sir." The man says, "Give me time to think that over, H.M.M." The woman replies, "Yes sir."

What's a Jag?

What's a jag? It is a slang term for a jagged piece of ice. The geologist found many jagged pieces of ice in the Arctic, and they were a constant hazard to the sledging party.

Drunk Means Drunk

Drunk means drunk. The geologist found that the sledging party was often drunk, and this was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

Few Tests For Liquor Pests

Few tests for liquor pests. The geologist found that there were few tests for liquor pests in the Arctic. This was a serious problem, as liquor pests could ruin the sledging party's supplies.

Leith Police Dismissed

Leith police dismissed. The geologist found that the Leith police were dismissed, and this was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

Decision Heightens Problem

Decision heightens problem. The geologist found that the decision to go to the Arctic was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

The Sledging Party

The sledging party. The geologist found that the sledging party was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

At This Point

At this point. The geologist found that at this point was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

The Sledging Party

The sledging party. The geologist found that the sledging party was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

S'MATTER POP—By Payne

S'MATTER POP—By Payne. A cartoon by Payne showing a man and a woman talking. The man says, "I haven't heard you fighting with Sammy Brown lately." The woman replies, "No, we don't fight." The man says, "That's good! How come?" The woman replies, "Because we ain't good friends." The man says, "We don't speak so no fight is." The woman replies, "Yes sir." The man says, "Give me time to think that over, H.M.M." The woman replies, "Yes sir."

Experts Study Dead Village Sites of Alaska

Expedition Seeks Evidence Tracing Indians to Descendants of Asia

Washington.—Further extensive archaeological exploration in Alaska should be undertaken without delay, believes Dr. Ales Hrdlicka, archaeologist of the Smithsonian Institution, who has discovered evidences in that region that the American Indian is a descendant of an Asiatic race.

England's New Silver Pieces

The Royal Mint of England has issued four new silver coins, the designs for which were approved by the King's proclamation, last November. The coins have the new design are the half-crown, florin, shilling and sixpence.

Mexican Saloon Retains Sign Posted for Lindbergh

Mexico City.—Lindbergh's name continues to adorn at least one, perhaps more of the Mexican City saloons that were torn down their former signs and replaced their places in honor of the famous flyer when he was here last December.

Don't Make Out of Babies Have

Meaningless and Mismannered

The occurrence of this kind of poisoning in this country are not so common as they were some years ago. The Journal of the Medical Association, Chicago, Ill., reports that the poisoning of the worshipful is a meaningless and unmannered act.

What's a Jag?

What's a jag? It is a slang term for a jagged piece of ice. The geologist found many jagged pieces of ice in the Arctic, and they were a constant hazard to the sledging party.

Drunk Means Drunk

Drunk means drunk. The geologist found that the sledging party was often drunk, and this was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

Few Tests For Liquor Pests

Few tests for liquor pests. The geologist found that there were few tests for liquor pests in the Arctic. This was a serious problem, as liquor pests could ruin the sledging party's supplies.

Leith Police Dismissed

Leith police dismissed. The geologist found that the Leith police were dismissed, and this was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

Decision Heightens Problem

Decision heightens problem. The geologist found that the decision to go to the Arctic was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

The Sledging Party

The sledging party. The geologist found that the sledging party was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

At This Point

At this point. The geologist found that at this point was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

The Sledging Party

The sledging party. The geologist found that the sledging party was a serious problem. The geologist had to be careful to keep the sledging party sober.

S'MATTER POP—By Payne

S'MATTER POP—By Payne. A cartoon by Payne showing a man and a woman talking. The man says, "I haven't heard you fighting with Sammy Brown lately." The woman replies, "No, we don't fight." The man says, "That's good! How come?" The woman replies, "Because we ain't good friends." The man says, "We don't speak so no fight is." The woman replies, "Yes sir." The man says, "Give me time to think that over, H.M.M." The woman replies, "Yes sir."

Experts Study Dead Village Sites of Alaska

Expedition Seeks Evidence Tracing Indians to Descendants of Asia

Washington.—Further extensive archaeological exploration in Alaska should be undertaken without delay, believes Dr. Ales Hrdlicka, archaeologist of the Smithsonian Institution, who has discovered evidences in that region that the American Indian is a descendant of an Asiatic race.

England's New Silver Pieces

The Royal Mint of England has issued four new silver coins, the designs for which were approved by the King's proclamation, last November. The coins have the new design are the half-crown, florin, shilling and sixpence.

Mexican Saloon Retains Sign Posted for Lindbergh

Mexico City.—Lindbergh's name continues to adorn at least one, perhaps more of the Mexican City saloons that were torn down their former signs and replaced their places in honor of the famous flyer when he was here last December.

Retiring Administrator Declares Non-Native Elements Have Stirred Up Sedition

Auckland, N.Z.—Sir George Richardson, the retiring Administrator of the mandated territory of Samoa, has returned to New Zealand, whence he will go to Geneva, to appear before the Mandates Commission of the League of Nations.

Don't Make Out of Babies Have

Meaningless and Mismannered

M. A.

With nearly 100 years of experience, the most famous of all the world's famous...
 For a washing machine, just what you need, is the most famous of all the world's famous...
 One spoonful of this famous...