Facts For CREAM PRODUCERS

During the season of 1927 we manufactured a record number of pounds of butter. This year to date our production is still considerably greater than in any year. The reason for this increase is that we pay the highest market prices; we give the best of quality, honest test, weight and grade. If you are one of our satisfied patrons, bring us a trial can and we will be glad to call and we are sure to be of service to you.

Orangemen at Church

The members of L.O.L. No. 1045, with a number of members of the order from neighboring lodges paraded to Amesley Church on Sunday morning last where the pastor, Rev. A. Newton St. John, gave an interesting and instructive address. The choir rendered special music, a trio by Mrs. C. E. Armstrong, Miss Blanche Walker and Mr. H. J. Armstrong being much appreciated. On returning to the lodge room the usual votes of thanks were passed. The lodge here and those in this locality which are in the County, Lodge of East Grey will celebrate in Flesher-ton, while North and West Grey lodges will go to Owen Sound.

Shea - Slack

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday evening, June ninth, at High Park United Church, Toronto, when Nora Ma Alleen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Slack, became the bride of Clarence Alvin, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shea, Rev. Chas. V. McLean, R.A., officiated.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was charming in a white georgette gown exquisitely simple in its lines. Her veil of silk net was arranged in cap style with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lily of the valley. Miss Mae, sister of the bride, was the only attendant, wearing a period gown of maize georgette with lace frills and large picture hat to match. She carried a bouquet of yellow Ophelia roses and baby breath. Mr. Richard Slack of Mac-Tier attended the groom.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's mother looked charming in a gown of navy crepe, romaine trimmed with and with champagne flowers and fish choker. The bridegroom's mother's gown was a beige georgette with hat to match. The bride travelled in honey beige gown with hat, shoes and bag to match. The bridal couple left for New York and on their return will reside on Kenneth Ave.

With The Scouts

The Boy Scouts, with their parents and friends, are specially invited to attend the Service in Christ Church on Sunday evening next, July 15th. Mr. F. C. Irwin, Commissioner for Ontario and Chief of the Ebor Park Camp, has promised to be present and to give the address. Mr. Irwin has not been able to visit Markdale before this and we are fortunate to have him for Sunday evening. He has also promised to visit the troops at our regular meeting on Tuesday next. So press up your hats and be on hand with full equipment as we want him to feel that we have a real troop. Be sure to tell your people about the Sunday evening service, so that they may meet our "Big Chief" and know what kind of a fellow is directing Scouting in this Province. We have heard from Ebor Park and Bill and Milt are doing some good work. Bill hopes to bring "Sandy" Pollard from Ebor Park to visit for a few days.

Accidental Death

Mr. Thos. J. Madill, a respected farmer and cattle buyer of the Camilla section, formerly of Melancthon, met his death suddenly, on the Provincial Highway "not far from his home, about 9:30 last Friday morning, when struck by the overturning motor truck of Mr. Ernest Hill of Hurling's Mills, from which he had just jumped. Mr. Hill had called at the Madill home earlier in the morning with four cattle in his truck and had sold the cattle to Mr. Madill. They went to Orangeville to have the cattle packed and on the way back, when ascending the steep grade just south of Ten Sideroad on the Highway, Mr. Hill shifted into low gear. As he changed gears the cattle lurched to the back of the truck, throwing the front end up so that the truck was out of control. Mr. Madill jumped from the cab into the ditch and was attempting to climb out of the ditch on the other side when the truck, which had swerved into the ditch, overturned and the cab pinned the unfortunate man, killing him instantly. Coroner Rooney of Orangeville held an inquest Friday evening, which was adjourned until Wednesday of this week.—Sheburne Free Press and Economist.

Barrhead Women's Institute

The Barrhead Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Harry Foster, July 5th. There were thirty-four ladies present, who answered the roll call by the name of a pioneer. A discussion followed on the Canning of Fruit and Vegetables. Mrs. W. J. Hamilton led the discussion and all the ladies took part. Many splendid ideas were learned from the discussion. Mrs. A. Brown delighted the ladies with a solo. A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Foster, assisted by Mrs. Sewell and Mrs. Alex. The meeting was closed by singing God Save the King. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ben White on August the 2nd.

Mrs. Janet Middleton

Mrs. Janet Middleton passed peacefully away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Fleming, West Road, Halleybury, on Friday, June 22nd, after an illness of some time from diabetes, but it was not thought serious till the day before, as she was up and around till that day.

The deceased came from Holland, Grey County, 30 years ago, and settled in Muskoka. Then 15 years later to Halleybury, where she has been ever since.

The late Mrs. Middleton was born in the year 1856. She was the widow of the late Thos. Middleton, who predeceased her about three years ago. She leaves to mourn her loss her four children, Mrs. George Laffrenere of Kenabeek, Mrs. J. M. Fleming of Halleybury, Arthur Middleton of Halleybury and Ernest of Detroit, Mich. Three brothers also survive, Joseph and William John McKay of Huntsville and James of Leduc, Alta.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. D. A. MacKeracher of Halleybury United Church, on Sunday afternoon, June 24th, and interment was made in the Halleybury cemetery.—The Halleyburian.

Auto Accident

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scalfie of Grand Valley were the victims of an unfortunate motor accident while returning from the Park picnic at Caledon Lake early on Monday evening. When coming to the Ferguson road they collided with a large McLaughlin car driven by a Markdale man. The impact ditched the car driven by Mr. Scalfie and seriously injured Mr. and Mrs. Scalfie, who were taken to the Orangeville hospital for treatment. Mrs. Scalfie received a nasty scalp wound, and Mr. Scalfie severe body bruises. After treatment at the hospital they were brought to their home here late Monday evening. The McLaughlin car escaped much damage, but the auto driven by Mr. Scalfie was badly wrecked.—Grand Valley Star and Vidette.
