

The Markdale Standard

VOL. 48, NO. 50.

MARKDALE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, AUGUST 9, 1928

SE. 06 MAR. 19. 1928

PRINCESS THEATRE MARKDALE

Friday and Saturday August 10th and 11th

"No Place to Go" with Mary Astor and Lloyd Hughes A Good Comedy

ADMISSION: - 25 cents and 35 cents

For the convenience

Cherry Grove

Our vicinity witnessed some very heavy rain during the past week. We hope for some dry weather to enable the farmers to finish haying and harvest their wheat.

Eugenia

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor (nee Shears) formerly of this place, of Stratford and two daughters were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hodgson.

Traverston

Everybody is praying for the weather to finish haying and to strengthen grain crops as the straw is rank and sappy.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor (nee Shears) formerly of this place, of Stratford and two daughters were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hodgson.

Our vicinity witnessed some very heavy rain during the past week. We hope for some dry weather to enable the farmers to finish haying and harvest their wheat.

Everybody is praying for the weather to finish haying and to strengthen grain crops as the straw is rank and sappy.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor (nee Shears) formerly of this place, of Stratford and two daughters were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hodgson.

Special Suit Sale

Men's and Boys' Suits. Men's Models. Suits. Prices as low as $20. $25. $30 value.

SPARKLING SPECIALS

in Men's Wear. Specials. Prices as low as $20. $25. $30 value.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor (nee Shears) formerly of this place, of Stratford and two daughters were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hodgson.

Our vicinity witnessed some very heavy rain during the past week. We hope for some dry weather to enable the farmers to finish haying and harvest their wheat.

Everybody is praying for the weather to finish haying and to strengthen grain crops as the straw is rank and sappy.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor (nee Shears) formerly of this place, of Stratford and two daughters were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hodgson.

H. G. NESBITT Markdale

SHELBURNE MONUMENTAL WORKS

Indigestion DR. A.W. CHASE'S KIDNEY AND LIVER PILLS

Rosedale

Gospel Workers Church

Vandeleur

East Berkeley

Wedgehouse

FOWL WANTED

Not Precious Not Quality Makes Value and Judicious

J. E. ENGLAND MARKDALE PHONE 34

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gough of Rochester are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor (nee Shears) formerly of this place, of Stratford and two daughters were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hodgson.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor (nee Shears) formerly of this place, of Stratford and two daughters were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hodgson.

Our vicinity witnessed some very heavy rain during the past week. We hope for some dry weather to enable the farmers to finish haying and harvest their wheat.

Everybody is praying for the weather to finish haying and to strengthen grain crops as the straw is rank and sappy.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor (nee Shears) formerly of this place, of Stratford and two daughters were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hodgson.