August 12, Lesson VIII—Paul Carries the Gospel into Europe.—Acts 16: 9-15. Golden Text.—Come over, and see Macedonia, and help us.—Acts 16: 9.

ANALYSIS.
1. THE VISION AT THROAS, 9:11.
II. A CHALLENGE BY THE REVEREND, 12-15.

Introduction: The council at Jerusalem had decided that Paul was to go to Macedonia. The council at Throas was to make further provision for his missionary work. In this lesson we shall see a different aspect of the same subject. Acts 16: 9-15. The immediate cause was the urging of Paul to take Mark who had been the first partner in the missionary work at Throas. Paul had a letter which he showed to the brethren at Throas. The letter was written by Mark and it was in this letter that Paul told the brethren that he was going to Macedonia.
