COUNTY AND DISTRICT

of Golden Glow

Not too much anywhere—just enough, without any appearance of clutter or fussiness, and chosen with a keen sense of harmony, to tone in with the amethyst silk drappings of the choir loft.

The grandiose, by the way, were contributed by Mrs. J. C. Bell, who sent her prize-flowers from the Flower Show to be held in a cool cellar for use on Sunday.

Perhaps general interest centered most of all in the improvements made in the church itself, which now presents a beautifully dignified aspect, appropriate to a building consecrated to divine worship. An almost-chance effect has been given to the front, with a Minister's vestry at one side of the choir-loft, and a choir-room on the other, an arch extending across the alcove, above the pulpit. A restful and harmonious background has been given to everything by a very fine patterned paper on the walls, mottled of many shades at close range, but presenting a very lovely opalescent, amethystine-grey appearance over the interior, with a handsome pale red ceiling above. Too much praise is not to be given to Mr. Staples of Owen Sound, who did this part of the work, with the assistance, for the ceiling, of an enormous and complicated trestle-work erected by Mr. Nicol's carpenters. The Committee say that Mr. Staples' excellent judgment and artistic sense were a wonderful help to them in their task.

Mr. Nicol, who was in charge of the carpentering, is the son of a minister, Rev. Alex. Nicol, who was a friend of the early pastors of the church. Part of Mr. Nicol's work was to angle the side seats to give a better appearance to the auditorium and enable the people occupying them to see the Minister more easily.

A very handsome carpet in quiet tones of taupe and brown, has been laid in aisles and pulpit; and, last but not least, really the lighting fixtures have been put in every part of the church proper. Every light was donated, the very handsome controls: lights by Mr. and Mrs. John Hemstock; Dr. and Mrs. Phillips; Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Breece; Mrs. Carson, in memory of her husband, the late Mr. Wm. Carson; Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Merriam and family; Mr. and Mrs. Frank MacFarlane and Miss Evelyn. The two pretty and appropriate bracket lights each side of the organ were given by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Collins, and Mr. and Mrs. Bazil Ritz; while Mrs. W. Karl of Toronto (nee Miss Lillie Winter), and Mr. W. S. W. Breece ("Billie") each donated $5.00, towards anything connected with the lighting; and Miss Susie Wright of Windsor (sister of Mrs. John Sudden) contributed $10.00 to be used in any way necessary.

The handsome pulpit lamp was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Merriam. Mr. Merriam also most generously donated his entire work of installing the lights, a difficult and dangerous-looking task, considering the height of the ceiling. He was assisted in this work by Mr. S. H. Breece. Two others who contributed both labor and time were Mr. Basil Ritz and Mr. Wm. Milson.

Another innovation that is meeting with unqualified approval, so far as we know, was the procuring of surpluses—black with white collars—for the women and girls in the choir; for the effect of which is to produce a dignified uniformity, instead of the former rather heterogeneous conglomeration of a variety of colors and dresses ranging in length all the way from shoulder to wrist.

Upon the whole, the congregation has every reason to be well satisfied with the work of the Committee to whom it entrusted the task, and who are to be congratulated on putting through so difficult and satisfactory a work during the last three weeks. The members of this Committee were Messrs Tom Collins, John Hemstock; Frank MacFarlane, Messrs. (Rev.) Sidney Martin, F. MacFarlane, S. H. Breece, A. Halliday, B. Ritz.

Work of helping in various ways was contributed by a number of the women of the congregation; but perhaps it is not necessary to mention any of the names on the long list except that of Miss Verna Bowers, who, with the assistance of Mrs. Ritz, covered the big front doors with the new brown rep, stuffed with brass-headed tacks.

The Chatsworth United Church is now happy in the possession not only of a beautiful and convenient building, but also of one from which must emanate a sense of restfulness and quiet loveliness which cannot fail to help, even though subconsciously, in all the services in the Church.

Music lovers will be delighted with H.M. Royal Air Force Band of England, which will be in attendance throughout the whole fourteen days of the 1928 Canadian National Exhibition. It is one of the premier musical organizations of the world.

Two very beautiful services marked the re-opening of the Chatsworth United Church, on Sunday, after the church had been closed for three weeks for re-decoration.

Rev. John Little of Conn (near Mount Forest), who was pastor of the church immediately preceding Rev. P. Matheson, leaving here 26 years ago, preached at both services, taking for his text at the morning service Second Chronicles, 7th chapter, v. 14-15: "If my people which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. Now my eyes shall be open, and mine ears attend unto the prayer that is made in this place."

The text in the evening was St. John 13:1—"Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end."

Rev. Sidney Martin, M.A., present pastor of the church, assisted in the service.

In the morning the choir sang two anthems, "There were Ninety and Nine," and "It is a Good Thing," and Mrs. E. McInnis sang "Open the Gates of the Temple." In the evening the anthem was "Sing Unto the Lord a New Song," Mr. W. G. Wilson taking the introductory solo; and Miss Merne Wilson sang "Fear Ye Not, O Israel."

The church orchestra (Messrs. W. G. Wilson, leader, and R. B. Sudden, violins; Basil Ritz, cornet; Lewis Sinclair, clarinet; with Mrs. Kliff, the church organist, at the piano), led the congregational singing, and also gave two orchestra selections.

Although the music was appropriate, and excellently rendered, the choir, under the very efficient leadership of Mrs. S. H. Breece, showed the result of weeks of patient practice. Twenty-four members occupied the seats, with two extra at the morning service—Mrs. Robt. Kerr and Mr. Robt. McCardle, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, who had very kindly offered to help in the morning; when there was no service in their own church.

A beautiful floral setting for this service of praise and prayer was afforded by the decorations—chiefly stately gladioli, pink, mauve and white, all about the front, with "smoke" branches contributed by Mr. Thos. Byers, and pink and white phlox. On the window-sills were bowls of sweet peas, and in the corners at the back of the church, masses
