"If you try to arrest me here, I'll

"Your opinions are undesired and you suppose I can accept such

"Wait a bit," I suggested. "Before

I nodded. "And discovery-

"Is certain by tomorrow morning,"

I glanced around the restaurant.

His eyes widened; a whistle of

"Is death easier?" I inquired.

(To be continued.)

said.

"I'm a friend," I told him

THIE LAST EIPHSOIDE= She had been crying. As a matter the doorway to death. And co, acting of fact she was weeping now. Brave- as always in my life, upon impulse, I ly, she was endeavoring to hide her dropped into the seat beside him. emotion. Indeed, enaction is not the These alcoves in the Trevor were word, for that word connotes a cer-furnished with broad benches whose tain agitation that was lacking in her cushions would accommodate two per· mns on each side of the table. Sheer happeners was written girl and the man sat, as though for upon her face that despair of youth the extreme of privacy that the recess so infinitely more tracic than the de- afforded, against the wall, opposite spair of age. And she was pathetic- each other. There was plenty of room ally young. In years, perhaps, she for me beside the youth, but not much cence of childhood. Neither time nor expectulation. experience can ever age such folk.

But even these can suffer. Perhaps, curtly. indeed, they suffer more than the cal- The anger died out of his face, to necessarily that of the particular flowloused of stul. I, a cynical violator be eplaced by a grimness hardly ers on which the different insects A good un too, I thinkof the laws of man, wanted to go over credible in one so young. and pat her hand, and wipe away her!.

ears.

I smiled as I pictured myrelf doing | kill you first," he said quictly.

I smiled at him. Do I look like a this. Her young escort would doubt- detective?" I asked. less recent such an action, for I have up you're not, why do you intrude not reached the age when I may ven-upon us? he deman ture such benevelence. I am young not as young as the youth who ac- "I never saw you before in my life," aroma is spicy. Butterfly scents have companied her, but still of an age he asserted. when women sometimes glance my. The girl's face lost the expression donic. I was not the person to offer brought to it. She reached across the chivalrous sympathy to weeping maid-table and touched his hand. ons, with or without escort. "Let him explain, Frank,"

At this very moment the police of pleaded. "It can do no harm." New York were starching for me. As: I flowed to her. I turned to the boy. I have reconstict in a previous chap-i "She's worth dying for," I told him. ter, as Swedy Thereasyen, a brutal "Equally, worth living for." mand and slad been killed in my appropriately by the White Eagle, that importment," he said. great Freedyn St. when, I would rank to "Put my intentions are of the kindas the Control criminal genius of his liest," I retorted. "Young man, don't ting add r distruit rempel me lo ad- be a fool. Men in fear of arrest, and not that I have all fer test him on num- threatening suicide, are cilly to think of conventions, Lock at me. Do I could of the fir Charact Thenaisson's thing without a reason?" They, and with tall a of the extra- !. "Let me hear your reason," he re to find P. St. School, the tenant of "I have been watching you two peo-the arms by it. The bell the news-ple," I said, "Pausing by your table I dy is found to be equipped with In it did y can han Stiellary, heart you," and I bold at the girl by is found to be equipped with That Sousa never we chan They and it to be had need a see that the patches of hairs or scales scattered the allow thought a pity. They said the as har restrict a section of the daily of the upper section or distributed view to a lety in risking it of is daily. Am I such a coward that along the veits of the wings, from There is a Neverth of the police I must refuse to obey the ordinary which the flower-like odors are emitnaturally deserted to interview Mr. Gieta es of humanity and save a life? Stickney. And if Mr. Stickney were. The young man specied, "Strang on the abdomensor upon the hindmost captured by the rollice, it would transpire, perilly, that he was a gentle man of facture, who had become a professional depailer of the too numcrous profitors which the war had

New I, John Ain'ey, had no wish to disclose my identity, my means of livelihood. In fact, that means of livelihood, I hoped, had been abanconed. I had mude my stake. I intended to sal for Australia, In a couple of years I would return, I would go to that native fown of mine where the iAnthyn were known and respected, at I would take up again that I had had before the wa and the eithsh of my fortunes." Five days had claysed since the discovery of Thon assen's body. And? during those five days I had seeluded myself in the rams which I had taken in a modes! hoter.

But I was always a restless person. Tomorrow, at five in the merning, the Celeste sailed from her dock for Sydney. My backage was already in my a gif? simple matter for me, having paid my ers give their lives for strangers, but hotel bill, to step into a taxi, drive not their money." downtown and across Brooklyn Bridge, "How much?" I asked, to the steamer. "Ten thousand dollars," he replied.

But I would not see New York "I suppose you have that much in ngain for at least two years. It would your pocket? take me that long to establish myself. "I have," I told him calmly. As a way from San Francisco to Los Ange. In Australia so that if, in the years matter of fact, I had at least three les, according to leaders in business to come, some one should ask if John times that amount in eash upon my Ainsley really had made a fortune in person. Also I had, in letters of crethe island continent, it would be pos- dit and in securities that would be as trading or speculation. I felt homesickness before I had like three hundred thousand dollars left my country's soil. I wanted to more. drink in, for the last time, the vital "And I suppose that inasmuch as ing people. And so, despite the fact drowning man, you will gladly hand that policemen were armed with a de- me over the ten thousand dollars." Ainsley diner at the Trevor.

It was a time when I should have taken-no risks whatsoever. And cer- I leap into the river to save the tainly it would be madness of me to drowning man, I assure myself that two 30foot avenues, one on either side add to the risk already run by in- he is really in danger, not merely of a tenfoot parking area, and extend- dumpeart driver who was observed truding upon the young couple who hysterical from fright." nat at a table in the alcove diagonally across the Trevor dining room.

Who was I, bearing my burdens, to think that I cou'd lift the weight from ed. 'It can do no harm. He is not anothers shoulders? And yet she's detective. booked like a girl whom I had known a dozen years ago, a girl with whom I had gone to school.

She was a pretty girl. Her hair ing me squarely. was golden, her complexion pink and white, her mouth sweet and gentle, and her nose was straight and small he declared. enough to add a touch of roguishness to her countenance-although, indeed, The hour was late. Most of the paher present mood held no gayety. trons had left. I produced a pocket-four. He was good-looking, and on five-hundred-dollar bills. an occasion when he was less harassed than now, his face would have amazement came through his clenched seemed ingenuous. This was no lover's teeth. quarrel; this was no grief of the "Do you suppose I can accept such from Ban Francisco through Tracy, ordinary sort which they were shar- a gift?" he whispered, as though the along the western side of the San ing. Only some desperate turn in the sight of the mono yhad hurt his vical Joaquin Valley, thence through Maritide of their affairs could reduce these cords. naturally buoyant young people to their present condition of despair.

"You're about twenty-five," I guess-Well, under all the circumstances, ed. "Let us assume that I did not will not only out down travelling time it was no business of mine. I paid always have a pocketbook filled with between the two chief California cities my cheque and started from the room. It was necessary for me to pass their table. And I heard the girl say: "Frank, you won't kill yourself?"

able. And I heard the girl say: done for me what I am offering you, 'Frank, you won't kill yourself?" that well, there might have been a Now, nine hundred and ninety-nine girl, as there is a girl with you." I times out of a thousand, the person heard my voice grow gruff and harsh to whom such a question is addressed "Take it and live, or refuse and die. has not the slightest intention toward Do I have to beg you to accept what self-destruction. But there is always I do not need?" the thousandth case.

This boy had pride; it was legible Even though some may not have such large bank accounts as they In his lips, in the gleam in his eyes, the thin line of his nose. Such a person might readily be proudly unable wish, everyone can draw interest by You will save all.—Dr. Finn Malm to see any way out of a difficulty but his work

Flying Flowers

Butterflies Smell As Sweet As Flowers, Says Investigator

That butterflies are fragrant is the When we marched out the teams took statement of Austin H. Clark, whose researches into the subject have re- And hiked for taller grass. cently been published by th Smithionion institution. This fact appears Them cornet men could play all day the more remarkable, says Mr. Clark, And never crack a lip, since some of the most fragrant sorts And allus when we went to play are among the commonest species. He offers in explanation the attitude old Tommy Judson, long and thin, of man in looking on butterflies as He played the solo pic; works of art, causing him to neglect Crowmatic scales wuz ple to him, their functions. Those who do take His minors too was slick. the trouble to snift at the insect, he adds, often get no more than a fit of And Bobby Dodge, he slipped the slide sneezing caused by the irritating ac- As dizzy as a lbon; tion of the loosened scales. Children As time went by suspicion grew have a much keener sense of smell That Bob played out of tune. than adults and a more exact one. So Wat 'lowed he'd investigate Therefore, when Mr. Clark com. And see how it could be had reached maturity, but hers was welcome.

The type of face that mirrors the inno
I raised a hand to stop his angry with him. He attributes his success menced experimenting with butter. When we were playing in 3 flats flies he took his two sons into the field That Bob should play in G. largely to their assistance. "I want to talk to you," I said

It is the fragrance of the garden Would drive a man to drink, that butterflies emit, though not feed. Various specimens have been To never fool with nuthin found to smell like sweet grass, jas- I don't know nuthin' 'bout; mine, syringa, mignonette, ort zgo So the safest way to deal with 'em blossoms, sweetbriar, balsam or ver. Is jest to scratch 'em out." bena. A Cuban relative of the blue swallowtail, which has been found in Old "Minor vs Major" march Rlorida, is said to smell strongly of it surely was a pup; fragrant orchids. Sometimes the And "Southwell's Pride" and "Nelly also been compared to clover, burnt. We simply et 'em up, sugar, chocolate, molasses, vanilla and And "Home Sweet Home" I uster play way. Partly, tea, my smile was sar- of horror that the youth's words had a certain popular brand of honey bis- in a way they'd all admire; And them as didn't know 'twas me cuit.

Testing butterflies for odors is gen. They thought 'twas Arthur Pryor, erally a pleasant task, but not always so. A butterfly which smells disagreeably is generally a female, and the fritillaries are the prime offenders. If these insects are gently squeezed on the abdomen, patches of soft orange And one of them is Pryot." olored tissue will appear between the The people thought us fellers both last two segments on the upper side. Would set the world afire; followed by a pair of hornlike protab- "But one of 'em's quit playin' nowerances which give off the smell. The other one is Pryor. These odors are said to be protective in function, repelling the species che-To real years were file I with new seem the sort to do an unconventional mies. Butterfay tragrance, on the Let exciybody listen, other hand, a male attribute generally, I say our band did march and play, serves as an attraction in the process of wooing, the male endeavoring to We've marched right through a crowdenvelope the female with his perfame;

Upon examination the male butter. In town or rushing city, That Sousa ne'er we chanced to meet ted. Occasionally the hairs are found legs, and the mildweed butterfly has them on the body in addition to the the travelling public is the matter of scent scales in the little sack on the "tips" which has been receiving hind wings.

These hairs usually occur as an ex- and again has the effort been made to tensible brush on the inner end of a abolish tipping; but the custom flour- go on." tube which extends into the body, ishes as strongly as it ever did, and the tuft of hairs being ensheathed by it bids fair to continue as long as peothe tuft of hairs being ensheathed by it bids fair to continue as long as peo-the tube walls, until it is everted and ple are the recipients of personal ser-gine and especially that of other chilcomes the tip, with the tuft of hair radiating in all directions.

Fragrance in butterflies, though rivaling that of flowers, is by no is:means as certain a quantity. Even Room steward, $5; stewardess, $5; before whom they would like to apafter one has become acquainted with waiter, $5; deck steward, $2.50; bath pear well. I found that a blunder lished by Stamford University Press. their odors so that he knows what to steward, $2.50. These are the usual expect from his catch, he is often distips in "first-cabin" travel. It also appointed to find that his specimen is states that during the last ew years without smell.

summer travel, of college tours, teachers' trips, etc., going "third; No Speed Limit cabin" and that on these the regular rate of tips is about half of that in 400-Mile Road the "first-cabin."

California Cities Promote the rule in tippling is as the Globe Two-Way Turnpike for describes. In any case tipping is one Motorists

Far reaching results are certain to rassment to people of moderate follow the construction of the pro- means. The steamship line, bold posed 400 mile, no speed limit high- enough to abolish the custom way from San Francisco to Los Angewould be doing a public service. Its rates might require to be increased in order to make good to stewards by High importance is attached to the advanced wages some measure of the proposal by many, in view of the beneloss they would be bound to sustain; sible to point to a background of readily negotiable in Australia as efficial effect the completion of such but the comfort of the passengers they were in New York, something a project would have on property bor- would be increased a hundred fold dering on the highway. and more.

Unlimited travel speed, an adherent of the plan-said, would make it not to possess the sang froid of the fraair of Manhattan, to see the hurry- you would risk your life to save a only feasible but desirable on the part veller on an ocean liner who, when of business men to build their homes. his steward held out his hand as a fifty miles distant, and thus commute reminder of the customary gratuity. scription of Robert Stickney, John His lack of belief was understand- with as little loss of time as it now grasped it and shook it warmly, but requires to travel shorter distances. left nothing behind. The proposed road would be a double-barreled affair, consisting of

> The boy's eyes were contemptuous, Intervening towns would be no less but the girl anticipated his refusal. than seventy-five miles apart with in-"Explain to him, Frank," she pleadtersecting roads eliminated, it was revealed after a study and report by Fred Grumm, engineer of plans and replied, "and the bloomin" horse "I bowed to her. "Thank you," surveys for the California Highway won't rear up." Association. There would be one "I'm a thief," he said harshly; facstraight stretch of road, 250 miles in

Would Cost $40,000,000 Despite the fact that the projected roads' cost has been estimated at $40,000,000 -approximately $100,000 per mile-the public grasp of the tre-Her companion was about twenty- book From it I withdrew twenty been so spontaneous and nearly unanimendous benefits to be realized has mous, declared supporters, that all are highly in favor of the measure, Proceeding in a southern direction the suggested route would extend copa, Kern County, through Venturacounty, and finally to Los Angeles. The new highway, it was announced, money. Let us suppose that if a by permitting greater speed, but also stranger had been my friend, had by decreasing the mileage. had by decreasing the mileage.

Tommy's Wish

Uncle-Well, Tommy, I've just go engaged to Miss Homeleigh. Aren't you going to wish me something nice? Tommy tater glane at the flancee)
Rather! I wish you bester luck Rather next time.—Humorist

Go at the price of my life

Are You Teaching Tricks And in a few months' time we wuz

The Home-Town Band

Twas in the fall of Eighty-nine

Our uniforms wuz blue and white,

Our horns wuz polished brass;

We started up our band;

The finest in the land.

Had sumthin' on the hip.

flats.

'Blv'

gaid:

· tune,

A bam Old Timer's "on the air,"

And that our horns did glisten,

----

How Much To Tip

Not by any means a national quessome attention. Not once but again

there has developed an extensive

We have done a little ocean tra-

I fancy more than one would like

The Dumb on the Dump

The prize dumbbell is the new

"I want to dump this 'ere load," he horse waving his arms.

nked a passerby.

"What are you doing that

-Orchestral Journal, Boston,

ed street

By Stella E. Fulton

"I saw an educated pig at the circus to-day," said Emily Arkwright. "And as I rode home I thought of the hours and days that the trainer had spent in teaching him those tricks, and I asked myself, "What, after all; does it all amount to? He's only pig in the end, after all, not really a more useful animal than the big Poland Chinas out on the farm. If his trainer were to let him be for a few months he would forget everything that he now seems to know.'

"Then I came home and gave Bob by his supper, training him in table manners all the ilme as I did so, as usual without much success with the manners. And I said. 'Here I am doing just what that animal trainer I teach tricks, and I'm a poor trainer at that It's so discourag ing!""

Says Bob: "Them pasky sharps and to try to teach a child good manners. the current issue of "Physical Culture But, after all, my dear, with regard Magazine." to the pig, the reason that his case is so hopeless, is that he is a pig and is and thus work with the trainer.

The town folks knowed, and often performer because Mother demands it ready to serve the water should have "There's just two men can play that out sense or reason.

that good manners were just the other way. finest consideration for other people. rhyme: Politeness is to do and say,

The kindest thing in the kindest way." ecople will not go far wrong in maters of politeness.

"I tried to give the reasons for and showing that many other bad the skin sheme also be eaten. Even hanners spring from greediness, and fruit sauces are far better if baked. so on. It interested them and help. The common dish, apple squee, if preed them to remember, and it also took pared by baking instead of boiling, the sting from what would have been will have a better vitamias that are arbitrary commands and obtained so important in all our feeds." tion but one of high importance to for me their co-operation.

"Children covet -- but' I am afraid I'm getting tiresome. "No, indeed," said Mrs. Arkwright. "I'm very much interested. Please

"Well, I was going to say, children covet the good opinion of others more The Toronto Globe publishes a tariff dren. Their extreme dislike of being parks of the United States are late at school is an example of this, divided into two species, "Dudes" and of tips which it describes as "the late at school is an example of this, things to do," on shipboard. Here it to of having after at school is an example of this, ty of having often at meals, guests thors of "Oh, Ranger!", the first com-before whom they would like to apmade before them would correct a amount of talking from me. able to correct many habits which one of distinction," have previously been so annoying."

She: You say Jack's serving recently standing in front of his days for arson? Short rentence for ers and bell-boys are "Pack Rats" or such an offense, isn't it? He: Oh, he was only burning up

> Give a politician enough rope and you'll have a pull.

England Leads Way

WOMEN TRY THEIR HAND AT DIRT-TRACK RACING The first dirt-track motorcycle race for women only took place at Wimbledon, England. Four of the entrants are seen ready for the start.

Dark-skinned natives-glowing sunlight des! mountain tops great ships ploughing through tropic seas—these things all come to mind when . a cup of "SALADA" is steaming before you. Such Havour—such fragrance. Try "SALADA".

Cooking Not a Useful Art

Cooking may be an art, but it is no longer one of the useful arts, ac-"I know exactly how you feel," said cording to Bernarr Macfadden. The her friend, Mrs. Wain. "If there is less cooking you can get along with anything that is discouraging, it is the better you will be, he advises in Mr. Macfadden admits that cooking adds to the flavor and improves dinot capable, of reasoning. All the gostibility of many foods as far as trainer can do is to get the pig into conventional human consumption is the habit of doing a certain thing in concerned, but he points out that response to a signal of some kind, cooking is a great destroyer of vita-The pig cannot think. He cannot mins. Particularly is this true in the "will" to follow a course of conduct case of foods that are holled, he says.

Important food elements escape in "But the child's case is more hope the water, and when this water is ful because he can be led to see for poured off the food is often left devihimself what a very lovely thing true talized with much of its nourishment courtesy is and to wish to practice it. and flavor lost. Potatoes and all vege-Then each little observance of good tables that are cooked should be manners will spring naturally from steamed or boiled in a small quantity that wish and not be a mere trick of water, and as soon as they are and as far as he is concerned with been evaporated, boiled away. What little water remains should be mixed "I always tried to show my children with the food itself or used in some Foods that are simmered or cooked suppose that idea has never been slowly are in nearly all cases more better expressed than, in the old nourishing and contain a better quality of flavor than these coeked very fast. The slow cooking, of meats brings out the flavor and they are person who truly considers other more tender and more appetizing. "Baked foods should nearly always be preferred to these that are boiled, Baked potatoes are tasty and more certain manners, explaining how some nourishing than when prepared in habits were disgusting and so spoiled other ways, though as a rule the potaother people's enjoyment of a meal tees should be thoroughly washed and

What's a Dude?

Ranger Terms "Pack Rats" 'Savages", "Gearjammers", "Bubble Queens", Etc.

All visitors to the national "Sagebrushers," according to the au- Patterns sent by return mail "Dudes," says this authority, "are stage, while sagebrushers roll their bad habit more quickly than a vast those who travel by train and motor "I tried, too, not to make a burden cars over the mountains: The term of good manners, not to be a stickler 'Dudo' originated years ago in the for them. One ought to learn to Yellowstone and on the Eaton Ranch overlook non-essentials in a child's in Wyoming. To the old-time horseconduct. It is better in training him wranglers on the ranches and to the on any point to put the emphasis on old stage-coach crivers the infallible what really matters, for a child so test of a Dude was to look behind his velling in our time and w; question if soon grows indifferent to continued cars. Dudes were a bit finicky about nagging and correction. But if the the niceties of life, even when they ideal of courtesy is presented to him were roughing it. But from a term of the tyrannies of travel, and is pro-ductive of no small amount of embar sire it or his cwn, he will soon be in a quarter of a century to become

"Sagebrushers" derive their nicknamo from the early days when their forerunners arrived at Yellowstone, Yosemite and other national parks in covered wagons. Days on end they drove their horses or mules across the plains, en route to the parks,! camping each night in the sagebrush, Everybody else in the parks goes by nickname also. Rangers are either Old-Timors or Ninety-Day-Wonders, according to whether they are employed for the entire year or just for the summer months. The bired help are called "Savages". They fall into several groups. The dishwashers are called "Pearl Divers". The waltrersea are called "Heavers". Tent girls and chambermaids are known as "Pillow Punchers". Chanffeurs are "Ggarjammers" or Just plain "Jammers", Launten dry girls are "Bubble Queens". Portmerely "Rats". Taking a stroll with a young woman in the evening is known as "rotten-logging".

Two Useful Hints

A Boap Economy. Keep all scraps of tollet roap and when enough have accumulated, break them up, pour hot water over them and let them simmer on the stove until soft. Add a little borax and olive oil if desired-although these may be omlited-then pour the mixture into the kind of rounded pisteboard containers that are used to hold fee cream and similar things. 'Fill each container only to a height of one-half or three-quarters of an fach. When rather thin round cake, attractive boking and nice for handling. Beating Egge. When raw eggs are to be dropped into a bowl, first rinse out the bowl with cold water; the eggs will not stick to it. Similarly, the spoon or fork used for beating eggs should bechilled.

hard, the roup is in the form of a *. . Fellow Victims

Burglar (waking householder durng the spring-cleaning epidemic)-Excuse me, mister, but d'yer 'appen to know where the missus 'as put the silver among all this 'ere muddle?"-Hurmorist.

Batisfied Once in a while you see a man who doesn't want any more money. He is holding a lily.—Buffalo News.

Chic Frock for th Miss

This dainty frech i ard having the skirt and ! belt, a round n.ck and long collar. In View ! or material are added and it rimmed with ribbon or v 614 is in sizes 8, 10, 12 at. Sire 10 requires 21k vard 15% yards 54-inch material quires 2 yards wide and 1. row ribbon; 15 yards distinch has yard 36 inch material (cut ero frills 11% inches wide when fit. . . . . Price 20 cents the pattern. HOW TO ORDER PATTERN Write your name and address to glying number and size atterns as you want. Encl tanips or coin (coin preferred: winte carefully) for each mumber achress your order to Wilson Par Service, 73 West Adelaide St., Terests

Smoke or Pay

Smokers on Rumanian Traus Must "Light Up" or Face Fine

-In Rumania, derpat from Bucharest report, the mil. authorities are fining travelers wi ride in smoking cars but do not such There is a cortain subline and a lentless logic worthy of a Lewis Car roll about this procedure. The are : nce to smoke in a car where sand is forbidden, contrariwise it equally so not to smoke in one wher it is permitted. In this country, where provision for smokers on railroads is on a bigger hearted scale than in the United States, smokers are encouraged to hope for a similar interpretation of the rules grainst-which the number .. offenders especially among old women and children, is lamentably large. It is said, however, that the Russ nian authorities are inspired rather by regard for the interests of

has been estimated that visite: o Canada from the United States and countries spent about $275 ou a the Dominion last year. The the number of tourists female to apalta promises to break all preven

enue than by those of an king too

A treat in the Peppermint sugar-coated jacket and another in the Peppermint flavored gum inside-

When at You have in turers | U Planists, de very intere Conada ac When to the He

> A targe / Phonogra Record: . Sheet i

Less Fuscial

Yak

New Poli :

DRIVERS CO

Scotland

"Autocar" H ment on t

Police, Cast motorists a alneed in man. rays "Autorigi been felt by land Yard exert the 15 motor vehicl what may 1 offences, and cases the pol time and to This p. tory, it, ha consideral N tan police this way for mot also Per In the i Scotlar alt the Initial To : amer the Will certifica. or a w nn of declaid where .. kept of 11 110 chled a chloree chie lette when an it in mp game and t execution spirft of establi: her police, no annovance but poince tunity of duties that bo of fa motorist quently . General's the View toured in Alberta, c cultural Wheat at district is Internatio: 1926 31.6 In 1927.

WHEN IN Eat an SCHOLES Cafetaria and 8

When you Children

harm d remedy,, to have the de is a veget emergen be relies mother. opened.

effective