White Earle, a notorious international strugged. While the police search for Ainsley or rather for "Resect Stick". Timell and I task another ney"-be is preparing to sail for next morning. Acting on a generous at a window, impulse, Ainsley offers the young man twenty $500 bills as a gift.

"There's a gasped. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

"I said that I was a thief. I am," he said. "Tommorrow morning my employer will find ten thousand dolars missing from his cash-box." I tapped the notes in my hand. "Unless-" I suggested.

can repay this loan." "I never lend; I give," I told him. mentalist, but I tell you that I saw a want to do that if you can avoid it." roul cross from hell into heaven. But consists of one room on the ground from the sudden reaction to despair, Patterns sent by return mail. West Breadway. He has no regular office hours. I know nearly as much of his affairs as he does. Also I have a key to his safe. In that safe he frequently lears we much as fifty thousand dekars in cash. This is in order that he may not love any baipain because of de ay in geiting his hands on the actual mency needed to close a deal.

"Co en," I encouraged him. "My name is Frank Tirrell. I'm a of jail."

"He is a great gambler. He frequently tells me of the big peker games in which he plays. He pleo hels heavily on the races. He is about sixty-five. He is thin and shabby. He is a bacoclor. He is also the meanest man that ever lived.

"I was working, three years age for a ship-brokerage firm. Mr. Garbon did some business with us, apparently liked me; and asked me to work for him. He promised me that he would take me into partnership. Whenever I remind him of his promise, he evades the issue. Times are not too good. I have not been able him when he placed wagers on the so white that I feared he would aces with a couple of handbook men! named Harris and Peganni. Yesterday an acquaintance of mine gave me his office, in response to a telephone them with metal fence and traps have the opponents of the "dry" laws. a tip on the races. He has given me message, an hour ago, from me!" ises to me. I have been engaged for bon's office, and we entered the room. two years to Rose Peters."

The girl touched his hand again, and I knew that she was his fiancee.; told me that if I didn't like my job I could quit. He left the office about ten, saying that he would not be back until morning. I suddenly went insane. That's all there is to say about it. I opened his safe, took out ten thousand dollars, and placed it, at five thousand conars, and piacet it, at nive lice are going to ask questions. Don't the time. Scouting is necessary all going?" the horse that my friend had told me forget that somebody impersonated the time, and the attacks may come . The cab-driver replied, "You want-give money to a thief?" Now, if one judges Tirrell by his bald confession, one finds little exten- ing from the police on one subject, did uation. But I saw the girl. I knew how the broken promises of his employer must have galled the youth, story of our brief acquaintance. I And I am not one to say that one might not be said that we planned the murder him the twenty bills.

"Put it back in the safe, and all will be well," I'told him. He was too proud to break down, although his lips quivered. The girl knows it; but would a jury believe put her hands before her eyes. I my- it?" I asked. self felt a lump in my throat. It was worth ten thousand dollars to gain the feeling of godlike benevolence that I asked. possesser at that moment.

"What can I say?" asked Tirrell. "Nothing." I answered. "Only, for the sake of Miss Peters, who seems to way out. e standing by you-"

him that even if he went to jail," she has in nim the detective. I "He won't go to jail," I assured her.

"And I'll never do anything again." that's wrong," vowed Tirrell. - ; I rose to leave, but the young man clutched at my hand. "I don't even know your name," he cried. . "And be sides, I want you to go with me to the office. I want you to see me put the money back in the safe."

He had restrained himself so long that a breakdown was near. I know something about the nerves. I knew that to refuse his request might cause him to give way to the inclination to

"My name doesn't matter. Some day, when you are rich, I shall look you up and ask repayment. Until then my identity is unimportant. And of course I will go with you to your

I stepped out of the alcove; I did not wish the girl to embarrass me with their gratitude. But as we put her into a taxicab to take her home, she threw her arms around my neck Joie Ray.

John Ainsley, a man of education sweat of my brow the money which and treeding, becomes a master crop's I had just given to her lever, the kiss appropriate upon other thiever. Swede would have been worth every permy of Thomasien, a brutal murderer, is it. I saw her to. I wondered if I killed in Ainsley's apartment by the would ever see her again. Then I is it. I saw her to. I wondered if I

Tirrell and I took another taxicab; we went down Broadway to the Post In the Trever dining room Ainsley Office and then left the cab, proceedoverhears a distraught young man tell ing on feet to our destination. In front his pretty giri com; anion that he in-tends to kill himself. Aimley finds to the address whither we were bound, out that the young man is a thief and that his thievery will be discovered ment. He pointed a shaking finger "There's a light in the office," h

"What of it?" I asked. "Mr. Garbon must be there," he

"You may have left the light on yourself," I suggested. He shook his head decidedly. "He's in there. We'll have to tell him-per-"It will be years, if ever, before I hans he's opened the safe. Let's go I seized his arm. Af he's there He looked at me. I am no senti- you'll have to confess. You don't

"But if he's found out that the money's gone-" "You must know exactly the sort. I interrupted him. "He isn't going of person to whom you are making to telephone the police at this hour, the gift," he said. I liked him because We'll wait until he leaves, then slip in he made no pretense; he did not there, put the money back in the safe, crirgin dy swear that it was a sacred and in the morning, when he finds the money there, he'll think he dreamed it all. At any rate, there'll be no talk sort of confidential clerk for Phineas | He pondered this. I made another Garbon. He is a trader and specu- suggestion. "Has he a telephone at lator. The bulk of his operations have his home. Then ring him up; if he patterns as you want. Enclose 20c in we should always endeavor to ascerto do with jute, hemp and kapok. But answers, he isn't in his office. We'll stamps or coin (coin preferred; wrap tain the cause of the pain. Once the he also takes flings in anything that know that you're mistaken in thinking of the light. Try it."

| the also takes flings in anything that know that you're mistaken in thinking it carefully) for each number and cause has been discovered, which can you turned off the light. Try it."

| stead of coming from the dor comes along. "I am his only employe. His office He was trembling now, suffering Service, 73 West Adelaide St., Toronto, your medical adviser, it is quite safe

There upon the floor lay Garbon.

leave him.

Several times I have been with employer. He energed from the beath $35,000,000 Yearly Loss "His housekeeper answered. She told me that Mr. Garbon had gone to he was going to make good his prom- Tirrell unsocked the door of Gar-There, upon the floor, his blood-stain- ly over this year, a surveyis being some whisky. ed head indicating his murderer's fer- made of the egg beds being deposited

I grabbed young Tirrell just as his hand was on the telephone.
"What's the idea?" I demanded.

looks like motive enough, but the po- tain time. Scouting is necessary all driver. "Say, where in blazes are we about yesterday. The horse finished fifth.

"That's all. Do you still want to the body," he protested.

I shook my head. Obviously, I who peared and literally stormed the "tin was avoiding embarrassing questionnot care to invite it on another. "I would have to tell the whole niight not be believed. It might even together. Imagine asking a jury to believe that a stranger gave you ten thousand dollars. "But you did," he protested.

"We knew it; and Miss Peters He sank helplessly into a chair.

I also sat down. The problem seemed unsolvable. Yet there must be a

Now, a great thief-and I may be The girl lowered her hands. "I told pardoned if I consider myself greathas in him the qualities essential to had always sneered at detectives. Occasionally, as my readers know, had outwitted the best of the profession. And now, before the Celeste sailed, I must justify my sneers. (To be continued.) -----

Fishwife .

At home my father's garden had Cabbages and flowers, There's nothing but the salt spray Flying in ours, There's nothing but a bare field And a lean cow, There's nothing but the stink of fish In the haymow But the ebbing hours are full

Of the singing sea, And all my father's flowers are Not more dear to me. -Carol Ryrie Brink,

The Commonweal. I lost just because I ran too slow-

Dr. Hastings, M.O.H., Toronto Pain is one of our most valuable friends, yet few of us have ever con- Timber Imports Annually Are sidered it as such, but rather the con-

Shirring Makes an Attractive Self Trimming

Charmingly simple is this smart frock. The skirt is shirred and joined to the bodice having shirring at each shoulder, and the long sleeves extend into the neck and are gathered at the lower edge to narrow wrist-bands. Contrasting material is used for the bias facing, and a long panel extends the full length of the front. NO. 1596 is for Misses and Small Women and is in sizes 16, 18 and 20 years. Size 18 (36 bust) requires 3½ yards 39-inch, or 256 yards 54-inch material, and 14 yard 39-inch contrasting. Price 20 cents the pattern.

HOW TO ORDER PATTERNS. Write your name and address plainly, giving number and size of such quently indicates serious trouble that acdress your order to Wilson Pattern only be intelligently discovered by said Police Constante Demon at the ston-on-Thames, police court, when ment of the lungs, or pneumonia. The Fredk August Hodges, of Barnes, was same is true as regards practically all summoned for driving a motor car in internal organs. n negligent manner.

Lothario Fined £2 Driving a Car With

Hodge. A girl sat beside Hodge who one of our best friends, and carefully bow resting on the steering wheel. were round the girl.

Mr. S. Brown, the chairman, said that he wished more motorists would attempt to stop erratic driving. Hodges was fined £2.

In Gasoline Is Reported protection.

ocity, lay Garbon. The opened safe now, for this is the egg-laying season, "The police," he answered.

I pointed at the open safe. "That ing just where they will be at any certain driver. "Say, where in blazes are we anywhere. This year several hurry-up ed me ta take you to a place where fence" of the fighters.

> English girls are said to be too shy to achieve fame in the moving

> > ACTRESS WILL PLAY IN AMERICA

Miss Joan Clarkson, called the beautiful English Rose

State, who has been nominated by the Democratic party as their candidate in the forthcoming Presidential Dusting the Mormon crickets with election, recently told an amusing calcium absenite dust and stopping story at a public meeting called by credit for their sacrifice. enabled the different agencies work- It appears that information had in the Manchester Guardian to turn a tip on the races. He has given me message, an nour ago, from me:

many tips before, but I never played in whistled. "And you didn't teleing on the cricket problem in northreached the New York City authorup some strange instances of this cellent control and almost perfect crop selling intoxicants. A plain-clothes Although the "fighting" is practical driver if he knew where one could get

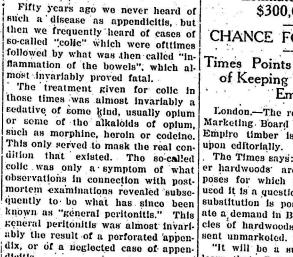

The driver replied "Sure!" "Mr. Garbon laughed at me. He against the wall furnished the motive and next year an early attack will be cab started off, and soon they were made possible by the fact that the on the outskirts of the city, and on Mormon insect in large colonies or the State highway, the meter ticking groups. Great hordes of the crickets it off in ten-cent jumps. It reached travel together. They may move one five, then six, seven, eight, nine dol-

"Yes, but how far are you going to travel to get it?"

"Quebec," answered the driver.

pictures. A shy movie star would gardener to put on that puzzled look income tax or customs charges and may be heard at great distances, while for in from 98 to 100 per cent: of the States, where none is grown.

Pain

One rarely hears of cases of colls hem for many years.

We emphasize this example, as it s one of the most outstanding, as egards the dangers of endeavoring to control a pain of any kind by drugs instead of accepting it as a most valuable danger signal, the none followed by disastrous results.

Prompt response to the first twinge of toothache by consulting your dentist, may be the means of saving a valuable tooth

It is true that pain may simply mean a local irritation, but it so frethen to administer something to relieve the pain while steps are being the great value of British Columbia

Probably 90 per cent. of the ills that Arm Round The Girl flesh is heir to are ushreded in, or ac-London—"He had no control over less pain. Pain in the chest may ha had to roise his hands above his intercostal rheumatism, but on the ha had to roise his names above him intercostal rneumatism, but on the head to reach the steering wheel, other hand it may indicate the onset

Lemon said that he and another the result of not intelliger by interpreting the significance of pain.

had his arms round her, with one el-Hodges denied that both his arms volves any internal organ, we should procure medical advice forthwith.-Telegram.

A Long Drive

Governor "Al" Smith, of New York man approached a cab and asked the £380.

anywhere. This year several nurry-up ea me to that some whisky, didn't his holiday; found £1000 in notes left great rate, there is plenty of room for it is trying situation.

fund at the Treasury, but the reason for the gifts to this fund are fairly obvious, being generally contributed It is about time for the amateur by persons who evade their rightful waves behave as they do, why they ing.

"If your husband's business is drop ping off, you can help him by making wise investment in the spring."

for reasons of urgency, they should proceed by air."

The white man's advantage rests start.-Professor Robert D. McKen-

British Market for Hardwoods

Estimated Worth $300,000,000

CHANCE FOR CANADA Times Points Out Necessity of Keeping Trade Within Empire London.—The report of the Empire Marketing Board on the disposal of Empire timber is much commented upon editorially. The Times says: "How far the lighter hardwoods are suitable for purposes for which softwoods are now mortem examinations revealed subse- used it is a question for experts but if quently to be what has since been substitution is possible it might create a demand in Britain for many specles of hardwoods which are at pre-

"It will be a surprise to many to learn that Britain spends annually $10,000,000 on imports of oak of which These cases of appendicitis are now less than one per cent, is of Empire diagnosed early and, if promptly origin. Three-fourths of our mahogoperated on, recovery may be hoped any imports come from the United "To ensure successful marketing of Empire timber here there must be a now, or of cases of inflammation of regular and sufficient supply of suitthe bowels, nor have we heard of able quality at competitive prices Spasmodic efforts are useless. "Last April it was announced as general rule that only British timber would be specified in Office of Works building contracts. An outstanding feature of the report is the emphasis placed on the need for the complete observance of which is very likely to co-operation of all concerned if Empire timber resources are to be developed on a sound commercial basis." Chance For Canada.

The enormous possibilities for the Canadian timber trade in Britain are conomic Committee, which discloses that timber imports into Britain are worth $300,000,000 but that 94 per cent. of the imported soft woods, instead of coming from the dominions

The Empire(chiefly India, supplies one-third of th hardwood imports. . Douglas fir.

It is pointed out by the newspapers particularly The London Times, that publicity propaganda is vital in order to stimulate Canadian imports. the car, and when he was told to stop simply mean intercostal neuralgia, or dian exporters, who now study only dian exporters, who now study only said Police Constable Lemon at King of pleurisy, accompanied by involve they desire to meet the British requirements.

The Financial Times declares that British timber production is unimportant and that henceforth the Mother Country must look to Canada for sup-

Helping Out

Anonymous Gifts of Over radio; the amateurs found out the £1,000,000 Left With. British Treasury Since 1914 London-Since 1914 more than £1,-000,000 has been given in small sums na systems for their propagation, an to the British Government by persons who remained unknown and who have never received any personal sort of thing. He says that the woman who has twice visited Liverpool Cathedral and left £500 in banknotes has a parallel in London, where a quietly dressed woman has several times called at hospitals and left con-

This year the box outside Charing Crass Hospital has received £200 in notes and about half as much in gold. The box outside St. George's Hospital was filled with notes aggregating

Last summer a £100 note was found in the poor box in Salisbury Cathedral and about the same time critical in operation, and although the average farmhouse. In other words, There is also the conscience money

The colour and exquisite flavour of "SALADA" Green Tea are natural—Only the process of curing is different from Black Tea Both are equally pure-"SALADA" Green Tea is sealed in airtight aluminum—fresh—delicious—satisfying— 38c per 3-lb. at all grocers. Ask for this tea.

GREEN TEA

Shortest Waves New Playground for Amateurs

Enthusiastic Experimenters Discover a New World to Explore and Con-

Room for Many Workers

Rich Rewards for Discoverers of New Circuits, Ideas

There is probably no field in radio to lure the experimenter and to stir the imagination of the amateur than the short waves waves as short as reached.

ten meters. This is equal to about automobiles owned in Canada at preinfinistesimal amounts of transmitting power, to transmit messages to the to be extremely proud, of. It is a great. achievement and one that has been. due to a large extent to the patience indicated in the report of the Imperial and research ability of the radio and Alberta, where farming is experiamateur.

Amateurs Make Radio History.

new circuits, especially suitable for and New Brunswick 24.514.
working with radio waves of such "Canada is building good roads to short lengths, where ordinary circuits keep abreast of increased automobile would be useless. The young men ownership. Reports from every prowho, have done the bulk of this work vince received by the Canadian Good have felt the urge of new worlds to Roads Association, indicate that more out any remmeration except the thrill extruction of a $50,000,000 asphalt road of hearing another amateur in a countible year than in any in history, Contry far away "come back" with an ans-struction of a $50,000,000 ashpall road wer to his intermittent "CQ's.". The from coast to coast across the domin-CQ is the general call that amateurs ion is one of the projects now under employ when they are trying for dis- contemplation ance records. Another amateur hearing a CQ beng sent out in code, gets the call letters of the transmitting station and then stirs up the ether with his own feeble but hopeful radio whispers in an endeavor to tell the CQer how his signals came in and to find out what And poets, when an unjust critic type of transmitting apparatus he is ful co-operation among amateurs is responsible for most of the important developments that we now enjoy in way and the manufacturers improved and developed the ideas into what we now know as radio.

Special Antennas Necessary. The short waves need special antenthe fundamental frequency or at harmonics. Other antenna systems have been developed, such as the feeder and beam types, which may or may not employ directors or reflectors for sending all of the transmitted energy in one specific direction, while not radiating in other directions. The field of the short wave offers much encouragement for the experimenter from the angle of special tube development. Tubes that are perfectsiderable sums without disclosing her ly satisfactory for longer waves may not function properly on short waves. Here is the experimenter's chance for development and discovery of the proper characteristics for the short wave transmitting tube as well as the short wave receiving tubes. New Circuits Utilized Short wave types of receiving circults are as numebous as they are experiment and a chance for any amateur to discover or devise a radically new departure.

to cover such great distances in the cowards of us n.l. daytime, while ordinary broadcasting on the regular wave band is practically limited to local reception during the hours of daylight. Of course, some of the reasons are known, but the long train of scientific facts that are necessary to a perfect understanding of the phenomena are still broken by large gaps that are being filled one at a time through the panstaking efforts of the research workers or experimenters who strive because they love the work and are curious to find the

Teachers and Travel W. L. Grant in the Queen's Quarter-

(Kingston): If I were offered the Ministership tof Education in Ontario) I would make certain stipulations. One of these would be that money should be found to give during my term of office as rapidly as the needs of the service would allow one year's leave of absence on full pay to all inspectors and principals of Nor mal schools. This year they would be compelled to spend in travel in the United States, in Great Britain, or on the Continent, and on their return An Air Ministry order states that they must be promoted, demoted or chaplains of the Royal Air Force may dismissed according to the intellifly as passengers in the course of gence and openmindedness of their duty, and may, if physically fit, "be report. Next, I would recognize that ordered to do so when, for example, certain quite important portions of the world lie outside Ontario, and I would go beyond the province to a considerable extent for the men who would take their places during their leave nerely in the fact that he got the of absence. I would cause to blow upon our system fresh winds from vari-

Million Cars Canada's Total

Ottawa Bureau of Statistics Claims Amount Reached Very Soon

Automobile registration in Canada will pass the 1,000,000 car mark by the end of 1928, according to a bulletin issued by the bureau of statistics at Ot-

There were 945,672 motor vehicles in Canada, on June 1, the bulletin declares. This was an increase of more than 60,000, compared with the beginning of the year. If the rate of inoutside of television that offers more crease in automobile purchases is to lure the experimenter and to stir maintained for the next few months. the million car mark will soon be thirty:two feet. To be able, on almost automobiles wined in Canada at present are registered in Ontario. The province's total is 436,12, or an averfour corners of the earth" is a feat age of 13.7 ars per 100 population Quebec ranks second with 128,459 cars, or 4.9 per hundred. The prairie provinces of Manitoba, Saskatcheway encing a rapid development in the areas served by the Canadian Pacific Railway, have a combined car regis-During the past few months history tration of 241,329; British Columbia has been made in the development of has 77,617 cars; Nova Scotia 30,659, conquer in an inexplored field, with money will be spent on highway con-

Compensation

Deep town below where anary water oyster tirns its, wounds to pre cicus poaris:

stings. ing. This friendly spirit of cheer. Perceive that Song has healing in its wings.

THE EXPOSE Trust a girl with a secret and learn It will never be kept by a dern. The news will go riding. She don't believe in hiding

Very much from the public that her'n. Alberta is making experimental it'Is trying to "throw light" on the

The German gliders who are nov And then there is the work that will Mass., are proving that gliding, when finally prove just why these short properly done, is pretty smooth sail-

· Fear of what people might say runs

the best Peppermint Chewing Sweet for 189UE No. 35-128.

If the day looks kinds If the situation's prezent. An' yer chames Made Till all hope is no, d. lest bristle up get An' keepten lee: Newly Aprived was Native Tayer a and ing. Mister. Trip begin thing of e You may reached a friendship brivers us long as two w ranio man dose p both of them

When a woner thing to very the evapperation bas

Bobby I was wasp danded of wasp stine etting the walsh

> Opport afty acman before to

WHERE'S THE and disorderly. thorouse the f. cufor, "The wife,

If you the oliserpe L. v. o verandali, w

the high pa

"I'waa"

"In out

Dettieft.

Yes for quarhap 🧩

kind to's THE SECOND NACE

And will have " Ing there . . On Your to But, to sell bifu no thing When he cost n token

That your service "

made litte v.

Not a matter of Parell of p

Sell him twice. unbroken Eloping Table from papa!" Bridegroom , och ; he say?"

Bride "Do no

your darkest treation

will be forgived If you will, 've

> A reputation of over thi years is at stake every tim package of Red Rose Oral Pekoe Tea is sold. So larg is this reputation prized a the makers have mather is your grocer to replace a package free of charge of does not satisfy you in ea particular.

I love the and the acces different from to met." "How w. the only werenes at Minard's Ligurent line to the exhardest' El Olas THE BEST

THE ONE YOU HAT

A long reading field the greater comfort in reading. Ing segment. Allows you to reta your natural polse. Removes the nged altitude that usually accor panles bifocale. . Ask Your Eye Specialist.