Carruthers - Parker

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Parker, Gosling, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Saturday, August 25th, when their second daughter, Annie Pearl, was united in marriage to Mr. Bruce Wallace Carruthers, only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Carruthers of Markdale.

The ceremony took place at high noon and was performed by Rev. W. G. Wakefield of Berkeley in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties.

To the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus—rendered by Miss Jean Carruthers, sister of the groom, dressed in maize silk crepe-de-chine, the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father and took her place beside the groom under an arch of evergreens, prettily decorated with white streamers and wedding bells, and banked with ferns.

The bride looked charming in a dress of pale pink silk crepe-de-chine, her wedding veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She wore the groom's gift, a handsome gold wrist watch. Miss Elsie Parker, sister of the bride, dressed in pink and white silk crepe, attended as bridesmaid while Mr. George White of Meaford supported the groom. Miss Jean Parker dressed in mauve with white ribbon trimmings and carrying a basket of mauve and white flowers made a charming flower girl. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a green gold bar pin set with pearls, to the best man cuff links, to the officiant a pearl necklace and to the flower girl a silver compact.

During the signing of the register Miss Jean Carruthers rendered appropriate music, after which a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The bride's cake occupied the centre of the table and cut flowers were also used. Rev. Mr. Wakefield proposed a toast to the young people to which the groom fittingly replied.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers amid showers of confetti and good wishes took the afternoon train for Toronto, the bride travelling in a pale green cigarette dress, navy colored coat, white felt hat with veils to match, shoes and hose. They will reside on the 7th line of Dupont lan.

Mrs. Robert Bradley

With the passing of Mrs. Robert Bradley, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Blair, in Durham on Friday, August 31st, 1928, another of the early settlers of this locality is removed. The late Mrs. Bradley had been in failing health for several years and was practically bedfast for the past three years. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Richardson and was born seventy-nine years ago at Cobourg. When four years old the family moved to Euphrasia where the deceased was married to the late Robert Bradley and they continued to reside there until moving to Markdale about nine years ago. Mr. Bradley passed away about five years ago and since that time the deceased has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Blair in Durham.

She is survived by one son and five daughters, namely: Arthur Bradley in Winnipeg; Mrs. Curdie in Connecticut; Mrs. Thos. Blair of Durham; Mrs. (Rev.) Hosford at Watford; Mrs. Whitmore at Waterloo, Sask.; and Mrs. Robinson of Port Arthur. Mr. J. J. Kidd, son of this place is a brother and is the only remaining member of the family. All the children were at the funeral excepting Mrs. Whitmore.

The late Mrs. Bradley was an active and consistent member of the Anglican Church and was held in the highest esteem.

The funeral took place on Tuesday to Markdale Cemetery and was attended by many of the old friends and neighbors. The services at the house in Durham were conducted by Rev. Mr. Hays and in Christ Church here by Rev. A. S. Mitchell. The pallbearers were Messrs. T. H. Richardson, John Graham, Frank Taylor, Thos. Freeman, W. E. Douglas and R. D. Bradley.
