WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

CANADIAN

Premier King, speaking before a full meeting of the Assembly of the League of Nations at Geneva on September 7th, eulogized the recently signed anti-war pact, and it is said, thrilled his audience as he told of the 100 years' peace between Canada and United States, whose borders are absolutely undisturbed.

Squadron Leader A. E. Godfrey, pilot, and Flight Sergeant Graham, R.C.A.F., mechanic, took off from Ottawa on September 5th on a flight to Vancouver, in a seaplane; with the intention of trying to make the 2000 miles with but one stop, near La Pas, Manitoba, but were forced by weather conditions to land at Edmonton.

Georges Michel, winner in the Wrigley 15 mile swimming marathon (with $25,000 prize) and Brust Vierkotter, who came second, are most indignant at the Exhibition authorities' decision to give each of the 14 leading contestants $2,500 on the ground that no one really "won" the race, since no one could have ended it only that he could swim an official boat, that he had won, and might come out. Neither would enter in the consolation race staged for the following Saturday.

Professional swimmers, Michel was in the water nearly 12 hours, covering 12 1/2 miles; Vierkotter, in a little over 7 1/2 hours covered about 12 miles. The third, Louis Mathias, Long Island, N.Y., in 7 hrs., 5 min., covered 8 1/2 miles. The Canadian Wrigley Company has given an extra award of $2000 each to Michel, Vierkotter and George Young, and $1000 to Byron Summers.

Germany is "appalled" by M. Brand's speech on Sept. 10th at the League of Nations, which foreshadows no early evacuation of the Rhineland by French troops. He declared that Germany is not, clear-minded, and revealed a fear-complex of Russia, which, he foreshadowed, is likely to become eventually an ally of Germany.

In the investigation into the assassination of Gen. Obregon, held in Mexico City on September 5th, the app. Mother Copley, was cleared from suspicion thrown on her by Eulogio Gonzalez and Maria Elena Manzano, who confessed to their own plot to poison President Calles, and Gen. Obregon, who was shot, later, by a fanatical ardent.

Dr. William Bragg, Nobel Prize winner, in his first address as President of the British Association for the Advancement of Science, in London, Eng., on Sept. 5th, flatteringly affirmed, before his distinguished audience of 3000 scientists, his belief that man has a soul, that will persist when the body is dissolved. HERE AND THERE

Quebec-Quebec is taking advantage of the Federal legislation of last year known as the Canadian Loan Act, which provides for loans to provinces whereby the Federal Government provides 90% of the money, the province 5%, and the borrower himself the remaining 5%.

This year's largest influx of settlers destined for the west recently arrived on two of the liners of the Canadian Pacific fleet. There were 182 on the Montclair and 300 on the Melita, the majority being of British birth, thereby establishing a record for any individual ship docking at the Maritime Province ports this year.

A recent revision of the Customs regulations now enables tourists to bring their sporting equipment or cameras into Canada without having a deposit on account of their dutiable value with the Canadian Customs officers at the border. At the present time the change in the regulations will effect parties on the Pacific Coast, where golf and spring sports are in full swing.

Vancouver—Over 100 miles of trackage serving the ports of the Vancouver district will shortly have been laid by the Canadian Pacific Railway according to a statement issued by the general superintendent of the district. The trackage is designed to take care of a steady and normal growth in traffic during the general expansion to handle expanded in westward grain movement which this year has reached the record of 53,000,000 bushels.

John Walter, co-proprietor of the London Times with Major the Hon. J. J. Astor, arrived in Montreal Tuesday where he addressed a gathering under the auspices of the National Council of Education. On a long trip from Ontario to Brussels, Belgium, forty muskrats lately left Canada aboard the C. P. S. S. "Marathon" bound for Antwerp. The final destination of these animals is a farm near Brussels where they will form the nucleus of a muskrat farm. While handled by the Canadian Pacific Express Company during the entire voyage, the animals were fed two ounces of oats and four ounces of carrots daily, with water once every two days.

Snaktoom—"I believe I have found a wheat which, when further developed, will be greatly resistant," said Dr. Searl Wheeler, daily several times winner of the International wheat award. He went on to explain that although he was quite sure that this new type which he developed from the local strain would protect crops in the province from rust damage, he did not think that the wheat would be absolutely free from rust under all conditions. However, he considered from the results of his experiments that even under the worst conditions, such as those of 1927, this wheat would never materially be damaged.

Nelson's Unlucky Love Adventure.

Writing in the London "Evening News," Max Pemberton, well-known English writer, says: "I read in an American journal a discussion as to which is the most beautiful city in the world; and I am not surprised that a writer names Quebec, and names it with emphasis."

We cannot wonder at the literary enthusiasm Quebec has provoked.

"The majestic appearance of Cape Diamond," says one writer, "the fortifications, the cupolas, and minarets, the grim purple mountains, the noble basin like a sheet of purest silver, in which might hide with safety the armies of the world, the graceful meanderings of the River St. Lawrence, the fertile valley dotted with picturesque habitations, the distant falls of Montmorency, the grim purple mountains, the barriers to the North, form a picture which it is no exaggeration to say is unsurpassed in any part of the world."

It is easy to applaud such chauvinism when one has set foot in Quebec and been received with that courtly hospitality for which its people are famous.

Naturally, romance is never far away from such a picture. There is a story told of the Lord Nelson merchant, who with the assistance of one Miles Prentice, who served under Wolfe and subsequently served Beer. This fellow opened an inn to which the soldiers and sailors resorted, and among them in the year 1782 came the Captain Nelson, then commanding H.M.S. Albemarle, of 26 guns.

"Miles Prentice," says a writer, "was a captain on board his vessel. This seems somewhat drastic in our time, when captains are rarely made or used by any other people than the sea. But in those days a captain was a man of the State."

It was this fellow who had a niece, Miss Simpson, daughter of Sandy Simpson, whose charms so captivated the embryo Admiral that when his vessel had sailed from port he clandestinely returned for the purpose of wedding the maid of the inn, which purpose was defeated by Mr. Alexander Davidson, then a Quebec merchant, who with the assistance of his boat's crew, forcibly carried him to his boat, and carried him to his home in London, where he was married to Miss Simpson. This fellow
