Mr. W. J. Shepherdson of Walters Falls was again successful with his Silve horse in winning first prize and the silver cup at Toronto exhibition. Mr. Shepherdson has won so often with this horse that it is now to be a part of the routine in his yearly program.

In the accident which resulted in the death of John Angus near Berkeley there is no blame whatever attached to the driver of the truck, Mr. Gordon Shaw. Mr. Shaw, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw of the East Backline, is one of the most careful drivers on the road and every person who has come in contact with him on the road speaks highly of him as being careful and courteous.

Owing to pressure of engagements and the advanced season, it was not possible for the six Crusaders to visit Markdale this year as planned, but excellent work was done this week in Christ Church and at Berkeley. Their earnestness and unselfish devotion won for them a very thoughtful hearing, that promises for the larger group, which it is hoped may come next year, a hearty welcome.

Miss Bertha Manarey, missionary far from home from India, expects to leave Markdale on the afternoon of September 19th, to sail on the steamship "Lattitia" from Montreal on Sept. 21st enroute to Central India. Any person wishing to send gifts, such as dolls, teddy bears, etc. to gladden the hearts of the little Indian children, may leave them at the Standard office or send direct to Miss Manarey, R.R. No. 3, Markdale, before September 17th.

Mr. John A. Hall of Vancouver, who was on a business trip to Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto, arrived in Markdale on Wednesday of last week and spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bradey. Mr. Hall and Mrs. Bradey motored to Tara on Saturday to visit with their sister, Miss Lizzie Hall, and will return here on Friday. Mr. Hall holds a prominent position with the firm of Clark & Stewart, Vancouver, printers, stationers, bookbinders, etc. He is also prominent in musical circles.
