Courses in History

The attention of the public is directed to the following changes that have been made in the courses and examinations in History in Public and Separate Schools. These changes came into effect in September, 1928.
FORM IV
Junior Grade:
The leading events in British History.
The elements of the civil government of Ontario.
The duties of citizenship.
Supplementary Reading of British History story-books within the capacity of the pupils.
Senior Grade:
The leading events of Canadian History.
The elements of the civil government of Canada.
The duties of citizenship.
Supplementary Reading of Canadian History story-books within the capacity of the pupils.
The text book in British History for the Junior Grade is the Ontario Public School History of England. The text book in Canadian History for the Senior Grade is the new text book known as A First Book of Canadian History. This text will be available early in September. It is published by the Macmillan Co. of Canada at a retail price of 20 cents each.
The question paper in History for the High School Entrance examination in 1929 and thereafter will be based on the course prescribed for the Senior Grade of Form-IV. The paper will also test candidates as to their knowledge of the facts contained in the pamphlet "The Fathers of Confederation." Copies of this pamphlet may be obtained on application from the Deputy Minister of Education.
FOURTH
Commencing with Sept., 1925, the course in History for the Lower School of the High and Continuation Schools will be a course on British History. Accordingly, the course in History for Fifth Form classes of the Public and Separate schools will be the same as that prescribed for the Lower School of the High and Continuation schools. Teachers should therefore obtain copies of the High School Courses of Study as revised in 1925.
Toronto, September 19, 1928.

SAFE versus HIGH INTEREST
Many a man has lost his hard-earned savings because of the fatal lure of high interest. A safe general rule to remember is—the higher the interest, the greater the risk.
PUT YOUR SAVINGS INTO A SAVINGS ACCOUNT in the BANK OF MONTREAL
There they will earn a reasonable interest and be safe.

Arnott Women's Institute

(Mrs. E. McInnis, Reporter)
The September meeting of the Arnott Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Joan Fraser. After the usual exercises the Scripture lesson from Matthew 5 was read. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. About 20 members, visitors and children were present. The roll call answered "An Old Superstition." Considerable business was discussed and plans made to have a booth, if possible, on the afternoon of Chatsworth Fair Day in the Agricultural Hall. Mrs. Jas. Cosser gave a splendid solo. The "Grandmother's Program" was under the capable charge of Mrs. A. G. Chisholm. A most interesting paper, "The Joy of Harvest" was read by Mrs. H. Harriam. An "Observation Contest" for the grandmothers was won by Mrs. H. Harriam, who received a pretty prize. The hostess treated the grandmothers to a lovely box of chocolates. The meeting closed with singing. Miss O. Murray and Mrs. G. E. McInnis were the assistants.
