Death of Peter D'Arcy

Most sudden was the "Call" that came to Mr. Peter D'Arcy at his home on Sunday evening. He was operated upon last winter for inward goitre, but had recovered from the operation and had attended service in Markdale that morning and said he was feeling fine. Just as he was about to retire he complained of a feeling of weakness and soon passed away from heart failure.

Deceased was born on the old D'Arcy homestead on the 9th Con., 62 years ago, and grew up into a fine type of manhood. Thirty-two years ago last June he was happily wedded to Miss Ellen Moran. To them were born six children of whom four survive, all at home: Leo, Frank, Joseph and Leonard, who, with his sorrowing life partner, will sorely miss a kind father and true husband.

Mr. D'Arcy moved some years ago from the farm on the 9th Con. to one near Barrhead Mills and being most industrious and careful had succeeded well in life. He has always been a most obliging neighbour and a devout member of the Roman Catholic church. The funeral takes place on Wednesday morning, Rev. Father McGoey officiating. Besides the members of the family, there are three brothers and three sisters who are left to mourn: Edward and Myles on the old homestead; Frank of Kinsley; Mrs. Mal. Black (Mary A.) of Chesley and Mrs. Dan Ryan (Kate), adjoining the home.
