The anniversary services in the United Church were held on Sunday last, Rev. Mr. Bartlett of Kilsyth preaching at both services. In the morning he took for his subject "The Need of Religion"; in the evening a text from Jeremiah. In the morning the choir sang the anthem "Salvation Belongeth to the Lord," and a quartette made up of Evelyn Shoullice, Laura Shoullice, Charlie Kirk and Mahell Hewitt sang "Nearer to Thee." In the evening a duet, "That Beautiful Land," was sung by Miss Mary Rice and Mrs. Angus McLeod, and an anthem, "The Waiting Harvest" by the choir. Altogether the services were beautiful and impressive.
The concert of Monday night in connection with the anniversary was a success in every way. Rev. Mr. Martin occupied the chair in his usual happy fashion; and the musical numbers were delightful. Mrs. McCarty and Mrs. Troughon of Holland Centre sang a duet, and Miss McMullen of the same place, a solo. Mrs. Kerr and Mr. McArdle of Chatsworth contributed violin and piano selections, a vocal duet, and a solo by Mrs. Kerr. The local choir and quartette also contributed selections, and readings were prettily given by Jean Cook and Caroline Taylor. Laura Shoullice and Marian Martin played a piano duet, and the Craaddock family a number of instrumental selections.
On Friday evening a charming shower was held at the home of Mr. John Atkinson, in honor of his daughter, Vera, whose wedding is to take place on Wednesday, October 17th. Mr. Albert Rice being the happy man. A number of lovely and useful gifts were carried in by little Phyllis Norton and Colin Sutherland, dressed as bride and groom, while Amelia Norton played the wedding march. The gifts were wrapped by Laura Shoullice and Amelia Norton, while Mamie McPherson read the verses. Two silver table spoons were presented by the W. L., the President, Mrs. Will Rice making the presentation, and Marjorie Martin reading the address. Miss Atkinson and Mr. Rice very graciously thanked those who had given them the "surprise party" in a few well-chosen words; and afterwards the pleasant time was continued, with music, games and refreshments.

The Sauble Falls Light and Power Co., Warjoh district, has been sold to the W. B. Eschay Co. of Minneapolis. This company will develop the power along the Sauble River, and bring electricity to points which it has not reached.
Dr. W. S. Dyer, Provincial Geologist on the James Bay slope, reports coal deposits there; also formations which indicate the presence of oil. He found gypsum at Moose River, and two layers, possibly of use for china making, at Metagam and Missinable rivers.

4000 farmers from all parts of Ontario attended the ploughing match on the Carmichael farm, 8 miles north of London, last week. Among prominent people present were Hon. J. C. Elliott, Minister of Public Works, and J. Lockie Wilson, Sec. of the Plowmen's Association.
Premier King, speaking at the annual banquet of the Canada Club in London, England, October 16th, on "Immigration and Diplomatic Representation Abroad," declared that Canada wants British immigrants; a hope all others, and is ready to take steps to make such immigration easy.

Prof. J. A. Neilson, Port Hope, an enthusiast in nut culture, urges that Canada will benefit financially by planting nut trees on Canadian farms and in towns and cities. Canada imports annually $5,000,000 worth of nuts, most of which could be grown in the Dominion. He mentions especially walnuts, hickory nuts, hazel nuts and chestnuts, which will grow well in localities suited to them.
The W.C.T.U. in Convention in Toronto last week, set out on a campaign for total prohibition as the only sure solution of the liquor problem. Rev. Henry Carter of London, England, who is on tour through Canada, declared in Toronto last week "is about the worst that could be devised. It neither ends the social troubles caused by alcoholism, nor does it put the drink trade out of politics." Mr. Carter was a member of the British Government's Liquor Control Board during the 7 years of its existence, and is now Secretary of the Temperance Council of the Christian Churches of England.

First Prize Essay at Chatsworth Fair, Written by Isobel MacWilliam
"Some Reasons as to why I am glad to be a Citizen of the British Empire"

On the site of an earlier church founded by Edward the Confessor and rebuilt in the thirteenth century stands Westminster Abbey, England's world-famous burial place. In the famous "Poets' Corner" are memorials to the names honoured in English literature. From Caedmon, who sang the story of Genesis and Exodus, to Milton, the epic writer, Chaucer with his printing press, Shakespeare, Bacon, poets, dramatists and prose writers, no land has produced the like. Of the modern era: Wordsworth, Burns, Scott, Shelley, Browning, Dickens and Keats, writers of fiction, history and philosophy which have been a stimulation to the citizens of the Empire.
From early history Great Britain has been " Mistress of the Seas." England, from the time of the Romans, has enjoyed a monopoly of trade, which brought merchants to her ports. With the extension of her sea voyages beginning with the Cabot's discovery of America began her remarkable growth of trade. Her geographical position, her resources of coal and the use of steam machinery, the repeal of the Corn Laws and the adoption of Free Trade, are the causes of her rapid commercial development of which we are proud.

Viscount Peel, Leader of the Delegation of the Parliamentary Association touring Canada, said, "The aim of the British Empire should be to establish a great confederation where there would be a guarantee of economic prosperity for all and that there were boundless future possibilities opening out in every direction." He was impressed by the determination of the Canadians to build up a great country of their own, as a colony of

Telephone Extension Here

For some weeks past the leading telephone companies of Canada have been within reach of telephone of practically all the more important centres of Great Britain and Eastern Europe, but up to this time arrangements for bringing this trans-Atlantic service to telephone users at the smaller Canadian centres have been incomplete.
