

Santa Claus Keeps Favor

When the snow comes and the cold never grows less, the children of the North are reminded of the olden days when Santa Claus was a real person.

He is a jolly fellow, with a white beard and a red suit, who comes down the chimney to bring the children their presents.

It is a tradition that has been handed down for centuries, and it is one that is still very much in vogue today. The children of the North are reminded of the olden days when Santa Claus was a real person.
