Scourge sa tat, motor Victory "then it is - II sw. Phy over ta a complete will are sendals at The Langer for " who thoughtless. eration

The cooperation

buying and distriby experience to n the co-operation he sale, and distri-

Round the Christmas Tree

By Mary Mason Wright

of letting the children help to make en. There is no end to possibilities the decorations for the tree, since of baskets and holders made out of or nome of the most precious memories dinary pasteboard boxes, of my chirmond cluster round the For any sort of a Christmas-tree le liber to trim it as well.

effective against the deep green of corations.

little dingers, using only the firm ber, other characters.

Tasks That Children Love. belts of red crape paper held in place give them a smart look. by a Christmas sticker make dulightful edible decorations. The numerous In regard to the cookies, those which can be easily removed. means of a little nougat, fastening the eyes and mouth.

handle in place after the body of the . Have the tinsmith make you a Sanbacket is finished, and completing ta Claus cutter, and cut a number of them with a spring of holly and a Jolly fat Santa Clauses out of the ginjaunty how of scarlet ribbon.

Children can form wonderful decora- Claus head sticker on waxed paper tive trimmings out of a few sheets of and press into dough for the face. Use tin foil, gift paper and some card- white teing to represent the fur cuffs. hoard. The shapes of five-pointed cost and boot tops, sprinkled over stars, crescents and other designs are with coconut. Little red candies may cut out of the cardboard and then be used for buttons and belt, and covered with the tin foil or gilt paper melted chocolate for making boots, is pasted on. Black or green thread. Gilded English walnuts with one may be fastened to one of the tips of end pried open and a knotted thread the stars and crescents to enspend slipped in securely are nice. Dolls from the branches. Delightful little made of raisins, prunes and marsh bills may be formed by cutting card-mallows will please the children. Use board into circles and then cutting well-washed raisins for the legs and them into halves, each half making a arms, stringing them on toothpicks. hell by forming them into cones and Stick the sharp points into the prune pasting the edges together. They body and attach a round marshmallow may be covered with reducine or sile for a flead by means of a toothpick, ver or sold paper. Place a knot in a Bits of canded cherry or cloves may bit of real yard, string on a cranberty mark the features. La a clapper and pass the end of the Just a word in regardate lights for and the in a loop to suspend by:

By Mary Mason Wright scissors. Strips of the bark may be Nearly all the holiday festivities, used for handles. Frosted or icids nowadays, circle round the Christmas baskets are unusual, yet quite pretty tree, especially if there are children against the deep green of the tree in the family; and even in school, Form baskets of picture wire and church or community agains the tree wind around with narrow strips of usually is the center of attraction for cloth frayed at the edg; then dip them in a very strong solution of alum

I'm onally I am an ardent advocate water and hang up to drip and hard-three spent with my staters and broth- party a good idea is to have most of dry in multiple tree tree transmings, and the decorations of the edible sort; then the tree may be almost entirely It is always will to plen a scheme stripped and the children made happy. of decen tien for the traces that there Refreshments for the party may be may be no crude color combinations served from the tree. Aside from the that would detract from its beauty, pop corn, eardy, cookies and fruits White realler gold and silver, are all can be transformed into delightful de-

Dolls made of lollypops are very Arrange in table around which the popular decorations. .. The faces may children can work, and place on it be made as dainty or gonesque as you crepe paper, cardboard, seissors, pic-please, and then frills of crepe paper ture wire, tin foll, gilt paper, rewing may be tied securely around the sticks parter at and posts. As we all know, for petticouts. Little dresses of orpop corn strain, on thread makes nice gandle or crepe paper are placed over chains to festoon over the branches, these with the sleeves stuffed with and this is work little hands can do. cotton; or they may be dressed to re-Cranbetriet may also be strung by present little Red Riding Hood and

Then there are the stick-candy maidens with marshmallow heads that Basistes the chains, the pop corn has may then be put on with coloring many other possibilities. For instance pastes or melted chocolate. Gay will delight the children. Features per corn, balls decorated with fringed creps paper bounets and capes may

Ginger-Cake Santa Claus. designs that may be fashioned with which are star shaped or ring shaped pol corn and nongat are almost end- should be used. Ice the cookles with beginning with attractive little orange leing, or sprinkle them over buskets to hold small candies or nut with red sugar. The rings may be meats. Stars, crescents, animals and decorated with gayly tinted frostings, boats may all be formed by using and small candles and citron arranged waxed-paper patterns as a foundation, to represent holly wreaths. The oldfashioned gingerbread dolls must also Mold the baskets in neat rows by be provided with currant or raisin ger-cake dough. Paste a large Santa yarn up through the point of the cone the tree. If one has electricity in the nd the in a los-p. to suspend by:

"The shildren will enjoy making lits way of lighting up the free than by to be 1. Count corresponds to hold the tiny colored globes. If candles are fault, not meats and small giffs on used one must be very careful, esthe feet. The backets andy be formed pecially if there are small children of picture with about. Playlights make a very good colored ruces paper or tin foil. light; the globe past may be covered Charles liftle baskets may be with colored crepe paper and the body made of birch bark, been together by part with green paper, and then tied red rillies, run through holes punch securely to the body of the tree or on et by an awtor a sharp point of the inner branches.

very many insidious attacks...

Sunday School Lesson

December 23. Lesson XII- Paul's Golden Text—I have fought a good death. Some discussion has arisen have kept the faith .- 2 Tim. 4: 7.

decrease she can be considered the constant and the constant of the ground already transport o

Sometimes the pastor must reprove those who do wrong, or he must rebuke, or again he must encourage, but also with mind and patience and with a careful use of knowledge. Patience und prudence are great pastoral

V. 3. The great danger to the cause of Christ seemed to be the appearance of false teachers who were spreading abroad all kinds of false doctrines. They were setting forth wrong views of Christ, were advocating wrong courses of action, so that now the church had to guard herself against people are spoken of as having itching ears, eager after novelties and reject-ing the authorized teachers of the word. Every succeeding generation has had examples of such. V. 5. This prevalence of evil teaching is a further argument to induce Timothy to exercise renewed zeal. The times call for strong leaders.

V. 6. A third appeal is made by over the cause which induced the apostle to speak in such unusual terms

ANALYSIS
I THE LAST APPEAL, 1-8.
II THE LAST APPEAL, 1-8.
II THE DIVINE PROTECTOR, 16-18.
INTRODUCTION—Several years have passed since Paul wrete the letter to Philemon which was studied last week. He had escaped from his first impristing an analysis of himself. He feels that the end is near, and that his chances of getting a favorable sentence are gone. His death-warrant is about to be signed. Two reasons are suggested. He may have wished to encourage Timothy and the assurance that there was a crown awaiting all those who would devote themselves to such faithful service. By he may also have felt that with the conditional interpretation of himself. He feels that the end is near, and that his chances of getting a favorable sentence are gone. His death-warrant is about to be signed. Two reasons are suggested. He may have wished to encourage Timothy and the assurance that there was a crown awaiting all those who would devote themselves to such faithful service. By he may also have felt that with the cond is near, and that his chances of getting a favorable sentence are gone. His death-warrant is about to be signed. Two reasons are suggested. He may have wished to encourage Timothy and the assurance that there was a crown awaiting all those who would devote themselves to such faithful service. By he may also have felt that with the condition of the properties of the fell of the properties of the f

Hospital, Hoboken, suffering from a high seas. serious attack of malaria. Additional sums were supplied to the nine others.

"The least worn the soonest mended," as the lady of the revue remarked the other day.

-Charles Hanson Towne. Canada Asked to Join Parley on

Christmas

Should ring in one wild/chime

They could not tell thy joy, O World,

And all the sons of earth

The news of Jesus' birth.

Their peans could not even then

Of the swift joy that hidden lies

Strange that one simple story

And blind us with its glory

Reveal the smallest part

In one thrice-humble heart.

Should rush across the years,

And hush our deepest fears!

F all the bells of Christmas

At this exultant time.

And if the hosts of heaven

Cried jubilantly in one voice

Washington Seeks Conference on the Suppression of Drink Export

Ottawa-The United States has asked Canada for a conference to consider an extension of the border agreement of 1924, for the purpose of more effectually suppressing the liquor traffic between the two coun-

Prime Minister, who is also Minister 2nd Prophet to return to her friends in Canada. tion of clearances of liquor-laden ves-The purser also collected $135 which sels and the refusal of clearances, was given; to Anton Schroeder, an ostensibly to foreign countries, of other destitute Mennonite aboard the motorboats which obviously could liner, who was borne to St. Mary's not weather the conditions of the words.

> Misgivings are what a woman has about her next door neighbor's character.

The Nativity

st Prophet Sir, now is the time come; And the date thereof run Of his Nativity.

The Same Old Smiling Santa Pays Another Visit to the Children

1st Prophet This other night so i dd. Hereby upon a wold, Shepherds watching their folds In the night so far: To them appeared a star, And ever it drew them near Which star they did behold Than the sun so clear In his midday sphere:

2nd Prophet :

Yet do I marvel, In what pile or castle,

That seemly were to see. But at his Father's will,

Heaven he bring us till! had seen him there,

To what place did they repair?: 1st Prophet were;

good cheer, . For joy of that new tiding, And after as I heard them tell. He rewarded them full well

(The two Phophets come in:)

Yet I beseech you heartly. That this strange novelty

Brighter they say a thousand fold

1st Prophet Liquor Issue Na, na, hardily, They made there of no council, For they sang as loud, As ever they could,

2nd Prophet

1st Prophet

The prophecy to fulfil; Betwixt an ox and an ass Jesu this king born he was;

Sir; ah! but when these shepherds

Going they did sing, dwell. And their song is Noel. (There the Prophets go forth.) From the Coventry Play, Fifteenth' Century.

The worst of love in a cottage that the love doesn't last and the coltage does.

That ye would show me how Were brought unto you?

And they these tidings told. What, secretly?

Praising the king of Israel.

These hardsmen did him sec.

Forth they went, and glad they With mirth and solace, they made

He granted them heaven therein to In are they gone with joy and mirth.

Gifts

Queer Christmas

"Didn't they use to tell us, Ann," said Mrs. Peters, "that in China pecple paint their coffins pink and blue and pea green and yellow, and keep 'em in the front parlor to look at till they're wanted? Seems to me I remember something of the sort."

"So do I," assented Ann Tenney, They make one another presents of em, too, "Tim't Basiy a person would forget such an enlivening little fact, once they know it. That missiemtry doet r told no. But why do you ask, T.Mia?".

"Because I've just been out to the Twigree, 11's so far that followdon't get cound much offer a war all and I Mrs. Twiggs, said that there he lat a soul beautin sine offer; they area, but they were glad to chowed me their presents talked at once, each of I hade d that Gran'ther Twine i surport a miss out of it. He's pretty deef new; in Lyelled at him "Have a pleasant christmas, gran ther?"

"'Hey?' says gran'ther, 'Oh, yes, yes! . Fine Christmas; and the felles gave me the best present of all." ""That's nice, says I; taren't you going to show it to me, gran'th ar?" "'Hey?' says he. Bhow it to you? Well, now, Lyddy, Sorry to disobleego a lady, but it ain't possible. Not today; mebbe not till apring. Ye see, Lyddy, it's up to the comstery." Ann gasped, "Addah They couldn't

"It isn't just for menotiber, Ann; at feast it has the saving arres of being Cfamily monument, I understand." "But his name will go on it first,

Awful! How could they?" "I'd have said awful, too, if I hadn't heard gran'ther effuckle. Seems they got it set up two or three weeks beforehand and took him over in a sleigh for his first view Christmas morning. He's as pleased as Punch!" "I wonder," mused Ann, "did they tah it with 'A Merry Christmas'?" Lydia laughed. "It doesn't sound exactly Christmasy, does it? Well, there are plenty of queer folks in the world, and I s'pose it's natural enough some of the queerness should show up Christmas time. The Twigges aren't the only ones. There was Henry Brimble giving Louisa arch supporters. Considering it was waiting on him that broke her arches, it does seem that she was entitled to 'em for plain everyday, without having to wait till Christmas. And Maria Teeby; you remember the year the Teehys gave her the opportunity of having her appendix out at the hospital? And Myra Pressey who sent little Mymie to the dentist to have her front feeth straighteredt, and "Mean dodges, I call bin all," Pate rupted Ann with with

"Oh, well, I don't brow "Maybe not? page Ann with a tolerand are two sides to connect Well, 4 a g

"By Royal Warrant" Holly Borry Means Something

To Be "Appointed" Purveyor with a contraction To The Royal Family Means Much To Marchants So Honore

NINE TAILORS

London.—"Nine tailors ni ke a was symbolic or a stole man," said the old proverb. Apparent- Cross... ly the Prince p ales has faker it Once, in fact the way a set of making to the set.

world who are privileged to display st Prophet the royal arms with the rign, platfors.

Neither in halls, nor yet in bowers, to His Royal Highness the Price of not long to the royal arms would be not long to the royal arms with the right. Born would be not be, Wales." Altogether the royal family of the price by him. Neither in castles, nor yet in tow. has 1,400 tradesmen who, "by a point. Self formed on the castles, and the control of the price by him. ment," display the coveted roys, war-frant over their shop windows. rant over their shop windows. ant over their shop windows. How many thousands in addition would like to do the same has never been revealed. It is known, however, that in the past twenty-seven wears business on the basels and to the that in the past twenty-seven works berries on the havelened to the 6.000 firms have been brought to court of Thomas was a seven to

> The grant of a royal warrent is jealously guarded by London thades. Christmas; men, and woe to any upstart who tries Old bells ring new, and on bright and shillings and pence. The mere Far sheelerds dream on Bethelera's appearance of the royal insignit over hills, a shop is an advertisement which it is again the magic night. brings in hundreds of rounds where especially from American visitors to Christmas: London who like to buy at the same O blessed God who have Thyself, shop as the King and Queen.
>
> Let all kearts rise in gratitude.
>
> In the list of 1,400 firms supplying Grant each may teel that splendid the reval family there are a four sur-prisps. King George has a pulgeyor That glorifies the Christman mood, of angostura bitters in Trinicka, a ... -- George Elliston, purgeyor of orange curico in Austordam, and until last January by had "A woman would sconer wear a new a purveyor of lamprey pies in Flou- hat that doe, n't sait her than an old cestershire. But the lamprey pie- hat that docs. maker died; and his unique distinction died with him. King George has a kilt-maler in Edinburgh, and tertan manufacturers in various Scottish towns so that he can appear in appropriate cheshing during his vacation in Balmoral Castle. He has a golf club maker in a New Brunswick village, a toylder mist, a philatelist and two fireworks makers-although for what purpose nobody knows. He has a turtle soup maker, a fan-maker, a horse-hair maker, a purveyor of feathers, and even a purveyor of sheep-dip for the royal flocks!

Queen Mary, too, has her own list of official "purveyors." Among them are antique dealers, pin makers, hairpin manufacturers, and even a deale in shawls in far-away Dolhi.

stored induces also Calvary by the Former of the th Premeintance of the re- said Tomas, aid the larger of any met, book was symbolic or a set of shieh to heart, for he has nine tailor whit- making a decortion is to the same ing to make his new sucts of teches and drinking it is to when he somes back from his firtean the words of an interest tour.

They are the only tailers in the words of an interest the words of an the March of It was not hard an able ly berries were and for using the royal arms without block.

The oldest belief councils with authority. Many others have to bouler down helly is that it was the tief old Testar use them, but they have hauler down their colors when anyone notical the ment. I

À CHRISTMAS PRAYER

to use it wrongfully! It is not a more stor matter of ceremony, but of bounds Shines with a tend r. lavely and the

. 50—'28