ALL RACES IN FRIENDLY ARENA

The art must always be produced by the subject of all machines, which is the human hand. No machine yet contrived or hereafter contrivable, will ever equal the fine machinery of the human fingers.

Canada of tomorrow will solve some racial problems which are the universal deputy of today. And she will do it in great part by subtly saving and honoring our metals, moulding our clay, carving our woods, plaiting our straws, to the tune of every peasant song that has echoed down the corridors of racial history through the rural homes of Europe.
