Local and Personal
(The editor will be obliged to those who will telephone items they would like to see published, by phone 543, preferably between 2 and 6 o'clock of afternoon. Thank you.)
Mrs. (Rev.) W. A. MacWilliam spent a few days in Toronto last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Anderson, of Owen Sound, were recent guests of the Ritz family, Durham Road.
Miss Hester Bradley, who is in training at the Toronto General Hospital, is home for a fortnight's holiday.
Mr. and Mrs. Peter McCollum went down to Woodbridge on Thursday to be present at the funeral of Mr. McCollum's aunt. They motor-driven back the same night.
Those who happened to see the eastern sky about sunset on the last day of November, had the pleasure of seeing a very perfect rainbow, an unbroken arch above the eastern hills, a very unusual sight so late in the season.
Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, of Owen Sound, spent the week-end with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bryan, Toronto Road. Mr. Stanley Bryan, of Desboro, who has been suffering from typhoid fever, is able to be up again.
The little stream running from the back of the Honking property, past Miss Hanley's, and so on to the river, is brimming with water, which also has spread over the flat, promising good skating if frost comes soon enough. Chatsworth people say they never saw the water as high at this time of year.
The work doesn't often visit the block between Matthews' and Wilson's corners in Holland but it flourished down on Nov. 20th, leaving a baby kid at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garrett. Her name is Mary Helen Albena, and she is doing finely. Congratulations are in order. It is the rule in the Arnold Women's Institute, which extends all the way down the second concession to Sydenham, as well as in other directions to give every new baby whose mother is a member, a cup. Miss Mary Helen Albena will receive the fourth cup so given this year.
Chatsworth is to be treated to a series of entertainments this month. The United Church Choir sets the ball rolling with an excellent program of music, and a really delightful play, "Ladies of Cranford". See advertisement this week. The Public School follows, when the children will put on two short plays, "Evangelism" and "Fruits of Time". Then comes the Continuation School Commenagement (see current advertising) which, our teachers, Mr. Lewis Sinclair and Miss Doherty, are assured, will keep up the record of former years, the play at this entertainment being "Sally Lunn". After Christmas, in good time for the holiday visitors, will come the Choral Club Musical (see current advertising), which, under expert leadership, should be well worth hearing. Chatsworth usually manages to keep something on the go; if the inhabitants thereof aren't actually putting something on, they are busy getting ready for it.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The Robertson Sargeant Wedding
The interesting event heralded by the account of the "show" at the Robertson home, on the Sydney hie, came off on Wednesday, Nov. 28, at high noon, in the First Side United Church. Owen Sound, when Miss Dorothy Robertson, daughter of Mr. George Sargeant, daughter of Mr. Harry Elmer Robertson, was united in marriage with Mr. Owen Sargeant, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Robertson. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. Thomas Laidlaw, pastor of the church. The bride was attended by Miss Hilda Robertson, sister of the groom, while the best man was Mr. George Sargeant, brother of the bride. The bride looked very charming in a gown of coral silk, flat crepe, with a matching hat of navy blue, both trimmed with grey fur. The bride's maid was a young girl named Gertrude. After the ceremony about thirty guests were assembled at the home of the bride's parents, where a dainty wedding luncheon was served, the assistants being Misses Christine Ireland, H. McNabb and Violet Dunn. Among the many beautiful gifts was no exception the groom's gift to the bride—a chest of 1847 Rogers silver. The groom's gift to the bride's maid was a purse, and to the bridesmaid a hat. The bride presented her friends, who assisted at the reception, with pretty mementoes.

OBITUARY

Mr. Thomas Curtis
To the family of this obituary is now added that of Mr. Thomas Curtis, of Arto, who passed away at his home last week, a victim of the epidemic of influenza that has come with the season.
Mr. Curtis was the brother of Messrs. John Arthur and William Curtis of Chatsworth, and of Mr. James Curtis of Toronto. All well known in the vicinity. A sister, Mrs. Stewart, lives in Dakota.
The late Mr. Curtis was born at Arto, Ontario, on Jan. 8th, 1849, but came to Chatsworth with his parents when a small boy, and later went to Williamsport. For some time, after going to manhood, he worked for the late Mr. S. H. Bresse, of Chatsworth, and in a mill where they lived together ever since. Here nine children were born to them. Mr. Curtis and seven of the children, Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. Price, Mrs. McLennan, of Owen Sound, Albert and Clifford at home.
Mr. Curtis, like his brothers, was a quiet home-loving man, highly respected in the community. The Banner extends to the survivors the sympathy of this vicinity.

Motherwell, Federal Minister of Agriculture, expressed the opinion that when we have to buy outside Canada we should buy within the Empire. Interprovincial trade, he thought, should be encouraged. The interests of agriculture and other business, he pointed out are interwoven. During the second session of the question of how local Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce can assist in the developing and co-ordinating of rural, with city interests was discussed. The need of bringing the city business men to take a sympathetic and understanding view of the agricultural outlook was stressed. It is the necessity in any survey of the situation, of considering the diff-

An Interesting Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the U.F.O. was held last Thursday night in the town hall at Chatsworth a week earlier than usual in account of the Convention in Toronto, the regular night being the first Thursday in every month. A series of moving pictures proved an attraction, then two interesting addresses were given by Mr. Robt. Nicholson on "Co-operative Marketing", and the other by Mr. Russell Galbraith on "Should Young People on the Farm Have a Share in the Finances of the Farm?" A rather unique practice is being tried at the meetings to assist in keeping up a good attendance. The names of all the members are written on slips and put in a hat, with one that counts for a dollar. All present draw, and if the person is present whose name counts for a dollar he gets it; if absent the dollar goes to the club. The club was "in" the dollar at the next meeting.
The next meeting will be held the first Thursday in January, when the report of the Convention at Toronto will be given. A speaker will talk on "Hydro", and there will be an open discussion on that subject. Also there will be a debate of the subject whether all things considered, it is better for young people to stay on the farm.
The discussions are a very interesting feature of these meetings, and very animated discussions followed the two addresses at the last meeting.
