In The Kitchen

Cream Puffs

Melt half cup butter in one cup water boiling hard. When again boiling turn in one cup sifted bread flour quickly, and stir rapidly until a smooth paste is formed. Take off and let cool. Beat in three unbeaten eggs, one at a time, beating and rubbing each in well before the next is added. Place in lumps from a spoon on a greased baking sheet, and bake in a rather hot oven about 25 minutes. When cold split on one side and fill with whipped cream slightly sweetened and flavored.

Oatmeal Macroons

Two eggs beaten light, half cup sugar, quarter cup corn syrup, one tablespoon melted shortening, half cup dates or raisins cut in bits, two and a half cups rolled oats, half teaspoon salt. Beat sugar, syrup and shortening into the eggs. Mix fruit with oatmeal and salt and combine mixtures. Drop in little heaps in a greased baking sheet and bake in a moderate oven.

Drop Cookies With Sour Cream

Beat half cup butter to a cream. Gradually beat in one cup sugar, then one beaten egg, and half cup sour cream mixed with quarter teaspoon fine soda. Add two and a half cups flour sifted with three and a half level teaspoons baking powder. Mix very thoroughly. The mixture will be stiff. Drop from a spoon on greased tins, sprinkle with sugar and bake in a moderate oven. Fruit may be added if liked.

Helpful Hints

[illegible] tape or paper pat on the soles of shoes which are wearing through will lengthen their lives considerably. If plaster is used it should be heated until a little soft, then applied.

Making Sheets

When making sheets cut them half a yard longer than the quilts, putting a wider hem at the top than at the bottom. The extra length is turned down over the quilts, keeping them from rubbing against your face, and preventing the breath from soiling the bed coverings.

Stringing Beads

Beads strung on dental floss which may be bought at any drug store, will hold without breaking longer than if strung on ordinary cord.

In Memoriam

QUINTON—In ever loving memory of Mamie G. Clark, beloved wife of R. J. Quinton, who departed this life January 3rd, 1928.

One year has passed since that sad day,
God called the one we loved away;
Fondest hearts we never will
Forget her, no we never will.
As years roll on we love her still.
She is at best where God could lend
A helping hand, true to the end.
In patience she bore;
To suffer no more.
Ever remembered by her Husband and Family.

Williamsford

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. McGrath and son Maurice spent Christmas with friends in Glenelg and visited friends in Durham last week.

We regret to hear of the death of Mr. P. J. Malone of Port McNicol. He is to be buried at the R. C. Church at Dornoch to-day.

Many friends will miss the late Thomas Armstrong, who died on Christmas morning. The funeral service was held in the Presbyterian Church here of which he was a faithful member. Owing to the illness of the minister Mr. Showell very kindly took the service giving a very earnest address from the text "Prepare to meet thy God". Mrs. Showell sang a touching solo "Does Jesus Care".

There was no service in the Presbyterian or Lutheran Churches here on Sunday, owing to the illness of Mr. MacWilliam and the absence of Mr. Bleaudorn. Mr. Showell of the Bible School in Toronto, brother of the minister here, preached very acceptably in the Evangelical Church from the text "Justification".

Vandeleur church was filled to capacity on Wednesday evening of last week, the occasion being the Christmas tree entertainment under the auspices of the teacher and pupils of the day school and the pupils of the Sunday School. A splendid supper was served in the basement, after which an excellent program was rendered in the auditorium which consisted of readings, recitations and dialogues by the little folk all of which were real good. Well-rendered solos were also given by Mrs. Geo. Buchanan and Dorothy Halbert. An interesting number on the program was a play entitled "Mrs. Snuddins Book Agent" which was well given by Mrs. Jim Cargo, Miss Verna Boland and Messrs. Howard McGee, Howard Graham and Kendal Teeter. After the program Santa Claus, in the personage of Mr. Howard McGee, appeared and unloaded the tree, much to the delight of the little folk. The pastor, Rev. St. John, presided.

Mrs. Carol of St. Thomas is spending a few days with the Buchanan and Bredle families.

Quite a number from here attended the Artemesia nomination meeting at Flesherton on Monday afternoon. A meeting will be held in the school house on Friday evening of this week which will be addressed by the various candidates.
