

THE CHATSWORTH BANNER

VOL. 2, NO. 36.

Presbyterian Church Notes

Minister, Rev. W. A. MacWilliam

St. Andrew's Church

11 a.m., Bible Class and Sabbath School

7 p.m., Public Worship

Everyone cordially invited

Choir rehearsal Thursday night

Ladies' Auxiliary 2nd Thursday of each month

W.M.S. 4th Thursday of each month

United Church Notes

Minister, Rev. S. Martin, M.A.

11 a.m., Sabbath School and Bible Class

11 a.m., Quarterly Communion Service

"This so in remembrance of me."

7 p.m., Divine Service

Friday, 8 p.m., Preacher's Service

Church Session meets at 7.30

Sunday, January 13, Communion Service

The School Board for Chatsworth

It is hoped that there will be a full attendance of church members at his first Communion Service of the New Year.

Monday, 8 p.m., Regular meeting of the Young People's Society. All young people will be given a hearty welcome to this opportunity for instruction and social intercourse.

Sunday School Entertainment

Those people who were fortunate to be present at the postponed

Sunday School Entertainment received a delightful surprise. It was expected that owing to the lack of opportunity for practical program-meets will appear until subscriptions expire.

An interesting event, which was one of interest to many in this vicinity, took place at Shallow Lake on January 8th (yesterday), when the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs.

Joseph Edgar was celebrated, many friends from a distance coming to join in the good cheer of the day.

Among those invited were Mr. and

Mrs. John Hemstock and Mr. and

Mrs. Tom Pringle. Mr. and Mrs.

Edgar, before their marriage, lived

on the Second Concession of Holland,

Mrs. Edgar being formerly Miss Mary

Ann Jackson, and living on the farm

which is now the home of Mr. and

Mrs. David Jackson.

To go or not to go?" (to parody

Hamlet's soliloquy)—that was the question that perplexed the students

home for holidays. "Flu" was everywhere, and they did not know whether they would be required to stay in their places on the 3rd of January, or whether they might take a chance of staying over until late in the week. Mr. Page Bradley went early to Toronto, although he knew

he could not have to begin teaching

until the 10th. Mr. Robt. Hopkins

and Miss Margaret Kelly left on Friday.

Miss Pauline Maher left for

Toronto Normal School, and Miss

Ollie Collins for Galt Collegiate In-

situte on Saturday afternoon. Mr.

Pete Dayley also left early.

Bob Lew, in "The Mail and Empire," mentions our "little burgh" as follows: "Why isn't a proper road

built from Port Elgin and South-

Elgin to a point between Owen

Sound and Chatsworth on combined

Highways Nos. 6 and 10?

"It would be rather amazing to many people to know that there is a big saying in village to the motorists

going from Toronto to Southampton

or Port Elgin, who takes Highway

No. 10 and 11's wear between

Chatsworth and Owen Sound on 11's

so through a dirt drill, Ottie

McKenitt and Marjorie Woods relief, and four boys—Jack Bell,

Mr. Jordison, Fred Collins and Ot-

ie McKeithen gave a comic quarter, Rev. Mr. Martin. In his usual

loving fashion addressed the merry gatherings, and Mr. Tom Collins also said a few words. Mr. Collins is holding a reputation as a successful

Sunday School Superintendent, and the least interesting part of the programme was his presentation of diplomas won by the children during the year, which were too many to be here enumerated.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Valerie Collins of Dundalk is spending a while in the village, assisting Mr. Neg. Merriam with his books.

Mrs. R. W. Simmie, of Warion, and little daughter, Glenn, returned to Warion last week after visiting relatives here.

Mr. George Barnes returned to Toronto Medical School on Wednesday last, after a fortuitous visit with his friend, W. S. W. Breece.

W. S. M. Breece left on Monday for the University of Toronto, after spending holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Breece.

Mr. and Mrs. Broadfoot (one, Bertha Love) are down from the West spending a time with Mrs. Broadfoot's relations in Holland and elsewhere.

Mr. Matthews was active bright to the end, although 78 years of age at the time of his death.

His survivors, besides his wife and two sons, Mr. Joseph Matthews, and two sisters, Mrs. Lillian and Mrs. P. White, on the home in Holland; a second birth

Mr. James Matthews, in Hawthorn, Wisconsin; sisters, Mrs. Wm. Keay in Sullivan township, and Mrs. Coleman in Chatsworth.

The Banner extends sympathy to the bereaved.

For private reasons The Banner will be discontinued after this week.

Recent subscribers will have their money refunded from The Standard Office, Chatsworth, within the next few weeks, unless they choose to finish the year out with The Markdale Standard, in which Chatsworth news items will appear until subscriptions expire.

An interesting event, which was one of interest to many in this vicinity, took place at Shallow Lake on January 8th (yesterday), when the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Edgar was celebrated, many friends from a distance coming to join in the good cheer of the day.

Among those invited were Mr. and

Mrs. John Hemstock and Mr. and

Mrs. Tom Pringle. Mr. and Mrs.

Edgar, before their marriage, lived

on the Second Concession of Holland,

Mrs. Edgar being formerly Miss Mary

Ann Jackson, and living on the farm

which is now the home of Mr. and

Mrs. David Jackson.

To go or not to go?" (to parody

Hamlet's soliloquy)—that was the

question that perplexed the students

home for holidays. "Flu" was everywhere, and they did not know

whether they would be required to

stay in their places on the 3rd of

January, or whether they might take

a chance of staying over until late

in the week. Mr. Page Bradley went

early to Toronto, although he knew

he could not have to begin teaching

until the 10th. Mr. Robt. Hopkins

and Miss Margaret Kelly left on Friday.

Miss Pauline Maher left for

Toronto Normal School, and Miss

Ollie Collins for Galt Collegiate In-

situte on Saturday afternoon. Mr.

Pete Dayley also left early.

Bob Lew, in "The Mail and Empire," mentions our "little burgh" as

follows: "Why isn't a proper road

built from Port Elgin and South-

Elgin to a point between Owen

Sound and Chatsworth on combined

Highways Nos. 6 and 10?

"It would be rather amazing to

many people to know that there is a

big saying in village to the motorists

going from Toronto to Southampton

or Port Elgin, who takes Highway

No. 10 and 11's wear between

Chatsworth and Owen Sound on 11's

so through a dirt drill, Ottie

McKenitt and Marjorie Woods re-

lief, and four boys—Jack Bell,

Mr. Jordison, Fred Collins and Ot-

ie McKeithen gave a comic quar-

ter, Rev. Mr. Martin. In his usual

loving fashion addressed the merry

gatherings, and Mr. Tom Collins also

said a few words. Mr. Collins is

holding a reputation as a successful

Sunday School Superintendent, and

the least interesting part of the