Truly Barren

One Lone Sea Gull Only Creature Seen by Fliers in 250 Miles Over Bad Lands of the North

Edmonton, Alta.—The first sight across the barren lands of the Northwest Territories has been made by Clarendon and two companions who flew from Winnipeg to Chesterfield Inlet via Fort Churchill, a distance of approximately 2,000 miles and an additional 700 miles on the Inlet across the barren lands of the Northwest Territories. This trip to the Canadian sub-arctic was made for the purpose of photographing the conditions under which the mining parties set out from the Western Canadian Airways. Some of the territory visited is so far as it is concerned has never before been seen by man.

The protective association of the Northwest Territories is a body of men and women who are interested in the welfare of the territory. They are working for the improvement of the land and the people who live there.
