By hard riding over a roundabout course, Kildare trailed the moving herd into town. Bodine and the bandy-legged man were not among these presences. The steers were led by the next morning, and the six riders who had followed them in immediately returned to the Webster farm. Blazé and Bodine had been riding the road to the westward, toward the house where the Webster family lived. It had been a long ride, and the two men were both tired. #### Unique Financial Position of Company Discussed by President Macaulay in Annual Address

Montreal, Feb. 14.—The phenomenal growth and success of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada lends widespread interest each year to the annual address of the President, Mr. T. B. Macaulay. This expansion, but it was more noteworthy in character, by Mr. Macaulay regarding the financial strength of the Company. He stated that so carefully had the directors anticipated every possible contingency in the money market that even a panic which would reduce the assets of the company to one hundred millions of dollars would still leave untouched and unimpaired the surplus and reserves of the Company.

pan, whose assets are already $500,000,000, should be controlled by a capital of $2,000,000. (2) Because we wish to ensure that this great Company shall never fall into undesirable hands. We cannot alter the status of our existing shares, but we can impose restrictions on the transfer of the new shares which will be an effective safeguard.

It has been said that such an increase would divert from the policyholders profits properly belonging to them. This is the exact opposite of the truth. The Insurance Act allows stockholders to receive ten per cent. of the profits distributed from the participating branch. Our stockholders last year received their share to five per cent. All our contracts for thirty years past have been made on the agreement that the participating policyholders shall receive ninety-five per cent. of the profits, and that not one of our members could force in any court of law.

It will now say a few words about the bill which has been introduced in the House of Commons. There has been a great deal of discussion about it, and I think you would like a brief statement of the facts.

The bill provides that the Company shall have the right to purchase any and all shares of the Company which may be offered for sale on the London stock exchange. This is a very important provision, and it is one which we have long desired. It will enable us to maintain our position as a bulwark of $100,000,000.

Tailors Foresee Frequent Changes in Men's Fashions

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 14.—The National Association of Merchant Tailors, in the closing session of its annual convention here, Chicago was chosen as next year's convention city.

Raymond G. Tweed, of New York, chairman of the fashion board, said that the day may not be far off when there will be a frequent change in fashions for men's wear. The American man, he added, is awaiting the fact that this is a time of style and he is abandoning his indifference to clothes. In the general use to enjoy the good things of life it is seeking the luxury of fine clothes, beautifully tailored and carefully selected, which differentiate him from every other man on the street.
