[illegible] the prevailing storm on Friday evening a large crowd gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Peneiton and family where a very pleasant and sociable time was spent under the auspices of the Women's Institute. Owing to the inclemency of the weather a few of the members and their friends who live at a distance were unable to be present. Several interesting games of progressive euchre were played, there being seven tables. This was the leading feature of the evening and was thoroughly enjoyed. Social chat and victrola music also contributed towards the enjoyment of the evening. The prize winners of the crokinole games were Mrs. Merton Sewell and Mr. Jack Bradey. Mr. Merton Sewell scored the same number of points as Jack, but the latter drew the lucky number and was declared the winner. The partaking of a delicious lunch closed a very enjoyable evening.
