Beware the dangerous days of March!

DOCTORS are busy during March. Illness is rampant. Long Winter months lower vitality, blood becomes watery and the body grows susceptible to colds and illness.

March, however, can be made a vigorous, happy month. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a genuine aid to health and stamina. Microscopic tests show a remarkable increase in the blood count after treatment.

This world-renowned remedy, discovered by a Canadian doctor, definitely enriches the blood and ensures more oxygen for the tissues.

Henley in the Middle Eighteen Hundreds

Early morning in Henley. From over the wooded hills in the east there comes a great flood of sunshine that lies warmly on the ruddy side of the old inn, on its evergreens, and on the slopes of sweet-scented mignonette, and sweetbrier and various blossoms that adorn the bank of the river. The river itself, lying apparently motionless between level and green meadows, has its blue surface marred here and there by a white ripply of wind; the poplars that stand on its banks are rustling in the breeze; there are swallows dipping and skimming about the old bridge, and ducks paddling along among the rushes and weeds, and cattle browsing in the deep green; and farther on, some high-lying stretches of rye-grass struck into long and silvery waves by the morning wind.

All the stir and motion of the new day have come upon us; and Henley, clean, white, and red, with its town-hall shining brightly down its chief street and all its high clusters of old fashioned houses backed by a fringe of dark-wooded hills, shows as much life and briskness as are usually seen in a quaint, small, old-fashioned English town. But where the silence and the stillness of the morning dwell is away up the reach of the river. Standing on the bridge, you see the dark blue stream, reflecting a thousand bright colors underneath the town, gradually becoming greyer in hue until it gets out amid the meadows and the woods; and then, with a bold white curve that is glimmering like silver in the north, it sweeps under the line of low, soft green hills that have grown pearly and grey in the tender morning mist. Be" is standing on the bridge, too. The Lieutenant has brought out his sketch-book, and has placed it on a stone parapet before her. But somehow, she seems disinclined to begin work thus early on our journey; and, instead, her eyes are looking blankly and wistfully at the rich green meadows, and the red cows, and the long white reach of the river shining palely beneath the faint green heights in the north.

"Is Henley the prettiest town in the world, I wonder?" she said.

"Yes, if you think so, Mademoiselle," replied von Rosen, gently.—From "The Strange Adventures of a Phaeton," by William Black.

One-third of the accidents in building construction are due to falling objects, says a statistician. The rule applies 100 per cent., however, in the Stock Exchange.

Broke Record

Frank Dupuis established a world record but lost the race. He established his record when on the first day he covered the initial 41 mile lap of the Eastern International Dog Sled Derby, at Quebec, in 3 hours, 22 minutes, 42 seconds. On the two succeeding days, however, Seppala, veteran Alaskan musher, succeeded in overtaking the lead and carried off the honors, but Dupuis' time for the first day has never been excelled.

OWL LAFFS

The dentist was telling about his plackiest patient.

"He came into the surgery and began to tell me he had no faith in gas, ether or cocaine. The tooth's been giving an awful lot of trouble,' he said, "and all you've got to do is to hunk it out—hunk it out.' I congratulated him on his pluck, and asked him to sit down in the chair. 'Oh, no!' he exclaimed. 'It's not for me—it's for my wife. She's in the waiting room.'

AMBITIOUS

At a family reunion, a benevolent uncle, who had made his money in hardware, asked his young nephew: "Well, Johnnie, what do you want to be when you are a man?"

"Oh, I've made up my mind, uncle," the boy replied, promptly; "I'm going to be a retired merchant."

The Accused: "Judge, it ain't no crime to be poor. Besides, I work mighty hard sometimes findin' jobs for my wife."

The Judge: "You're right. It is no crime to be poor, but it is to run an employment agency without a license. Twenty-five and costs."

Judge: Before I pronounce sentence, have you anything to say?"

Ex-Barber: Yes, your honor, I'd like to shave the prosecuting attorney just once more."

A DANGEROUS MONTH FOR THE BABY

Mothers Always Dread the Blustery March Days.

No month of the year is so dangerous to the welfare of little ones as is March—the month of quickly changing weather. One day is fine, the next cold and blustery. One day dry, the next wet and disagreeable. In spite of all precautions the little ones will take colds and these colds often lead to more serious troubles. Mothers, when the first symptoms appear—sneezing, redness of the eyes, running nose—Baby's Own Tablets should be given at once. They will rapidly break up the cold, and prevent the more serious complications.

Mothers who keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the home always feel safe—just like having a doctor in the house. The Tablets are a gentle but thorough laxative that sweeten the stomach and regulate the bowels, thus driving out constipation and indigestion and relieving the baby of the many childhood ailments which are the direct result of a clogged condition of the bowels or a sour stomach.

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Scotch City Has Fine Women's Club

Aberdeen, Scotland—The women of Aberdeen seem to have been particularly successful in their achievements in 1928, particularly the Aberdeen Business Women's Club. This club is unique in Great Britain, outside of London, and deserves the admiration it has aroused in other Scottish cities. Its example may well be followed by Aberdeen's neighbors, as the need is great. Miss Bettina Clark, the warden of the club, welcomed all inquiries, and Miss B. Walker, who was its founder, was enthusiastic over its possibilities.

It was felt, Miss Clark said, that Aberdeen had many young business women who needed a social center and residential club, but the difficulty was how to get it financed. Help has flowed in from all sorts of quarters, but the chief support came from the Y.W.C.A., which generously supplied the initial sum of £2000 at a small rate of interest. Two beautiful old houses in one of the best squares in the city were purchased, and on these there is a bond of another £2000. Over 700 business women have joined, which gives the club £350 in subscriptions alone. The letting of their beautiful dance hall also is a source of income, and altogether the finances of the club are in a most satisfactory position. The residents have charming rooms, and pay for room and full board only £1 a week for a north room, and 22s. a week for a south room—which seems unbelievably cheap in these days. Everything, however, seems to work out profitably in such a large family—the restaurant is charming, the food appetizing but all help the venture to pay its way. The girls, Miss Clark said, were keen on having the club free, and are constantly devising new ways and means to clear the debt—a splendid Aberdonian trait, as the visitors remarked.

"What is this?" Miss Clark was asked pointing to what looked like a model of a Norwegian saeter.

"A present from one of our workmen," she replied. "At the time of our sale in the Music Hall we were touched and pleased to receive from every man who had been employed on the reconstruction a contribution made by himself. This beautifully made model, presented by a joiner, was won by a well-wisher who returned it to the club as a gift. This attitude of the workmen was typical of the interest and goodwill our venture aroused."

In 1928 Aberdeen also appointed her first policewoman, and during the year the Soroptomists appeared on all city's horizon. Aberdeen has also one of the best industrial women's clubs in the country—the St. Katherine's Club. In addition, the Cowdray Club caters for its professional women in the city and in the country the Women's Rural Institutes have had a wonderful year of prosperity. Altogether at the present moment the women of Aberdeen seem to be leading in the club movement in Scotland, and everything points to real growth and development in the Granite City.

At Manchester, the guard, finding Isaac without either ticket or money, grabbed him by the arm and put him off the train with a well-placed kick. At the next station he found Isaac again, and repeated the expulsion, accentuating the force of the gesture. At the third station the conductor was completely astounded to find Isaac yet again. Bending low, Isaac attempted to jump off quickly enough to escape at least part of the violence of the attack. "How far do you think you're going to get like this?" asked the guard. "As far as London," replied Isaac, "if my constitution will stand it."

Are You Ready When your Children Cry for It

Baby has little upsets at times. All your care cannot prevent them. But you can be prepared. Then you can do what any experienced nurse would do—what most physicians would tell you to do—give a few drops of plain Castoria. No sooner done than Baby is soothed; relief is just a matter of moments. Yet you have eased your child without use of a single doubtful drug. Castoria is vegetable. So it's safe to use as often as an infant has any little pain you cannot pat away. And it's always ready for the crueler pangs of colic, or constipation, or diarrhea; effective, too, for older children. Twenty-five million bottles were bought last year.
