Wodehouse

The swallows have returned which indicates warmer weather. Here's hoping it to be true.

A severe electric storm passed over this section on Saturday afternoon and evening, accompanied by a down pour of rain flooding the land again and leaving miniature lakes lying around. 'Twill be some days before seeding operations will be continued. The land was in good condition and work was in full swing.

Arbor Day was observed in the school here on Friday. Owing to the grounds being cultivated the work was not as extensive but the cleaning was finished and the teacher, Miss Gillespie, and pupils then picnicked in the old roaming grounds at the lake. Sports were enjoyed by all and the fun concluded with a delicious lunch of buns, boiled wieners and catsup.

Mothers' Day service on Sunday afternoon was well attended at New England. Rev. Stotesbury gave a splendid discourse from the words "There stood by the cross of Jesus his mother," showing that through the joys and sorrows alike, mother comforts and stays to the end. The choir was composed of mothers and the singing and music was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Johnston and family of Vandeleur attended the services Sunday afternoon and visited the latter's sister and family, Mrs. Matt Devitt, Mrs. Rych, Genoa of Vandeleur was also present and visited her mother, Mrs. W. Clarke.

Miss Verna Wiley of Markdale High School spent the week-end with her parents here.

Glad to report Mrs. Geo. Lawson improved in health, being stronger and able to be about.

The W. T. held a successful meeting at Mrs. Nelson Wilson's for April. They quilled a quilt which had been in course of preparation and will be disposed of in the future. They are working on two more quilts to be done likewise. The May meeting will be at the church with the annual election of officers on May 20th. Fleeteron talent gave these plays, "Home Ties," in the church here under the auspices of the W. T. It was enjoyed by all and a tidy sum was realized.

Mrs. Frank Wiley has gone to Toronto on an extended visit.
Miss Viola Wyville is with Mrs. E. Wilcox assisting with domestic duties.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wiley and Elgin and Mr. Herman McConnell of Beaver Valley renewed acquaintances here the past week.
