CREAM

With spring approaching and another cream season at hand we again ask you for your patronage and in return we promise entire satisfaction.

During our time of operating the Markdale Creamery, on the beginning as well as to-day, our aim was to give the farmers of the community a Creamery Service that cannot be duplicated.

Our system of receiving and gathering is so arranged that it is possible for every farmer to sell much or little, summer or winter, with the least time lost after the cream leaving your place until it is received for grading, thereby receiving best results as to grade, weight and price.

Our method of paying is the most satisfactory as we pay cash. All these privileges and advantages await any farmer who is not yet our patron. Give us a trial and you too will be convinced of the correctness of our claim.

If it is not handy for you to bring your cream to the creamery our truck will call as soon as the roads will permit.

For entire satisfaction sell your cream to

Ordination and Induction

Before a large congregation and with impressive services Rev. B. L. Walden, B.A., a recent graduate of Knox College, was ordained and inducted into the pastorate of Glencoe Presbyterian church last Thursday afternoon.

Rev. J. M. Laird, B.D., moderator of the London Presbytery, presided and after divine service, conducted by Rev. F. Hutchinson, of Argyle Presbyterian church, called on Dr. John McNair, clerk of the London Presbytery, who narrated the steps leading up to the call.

Following the ordination services, Rev. J. Harris, of Chalmers church, London, addressed the minister, and Dr. McNair addressed the congregation. At the close the minister was introduced to his congregation by Mrs. S. Irwin and Alex. McAlpine. Supper was later served by the ladies of the church, with the elders' wives presiding at the tables, at which about 300 were served.

Mr. Walden takes the place of Rev. John Galloway, who was called to a pastorate at Mimico in January. He is a former resident of Markdale, Ont., and promises to be an outstanding figure in the ministry.

Mrs. Thos. E. Ormsby

(Meaford Express) Probably the saddest death to be recorded in this section for some time was that of Velma Emary, beloved wife of Thomas E. Ormsby, which sad event occurred on Saturday morning following the birth of a baby girl (still-born). Deceased, who was 24 years of age, was the only daughter of the late Henry and Phoebe Emary, and was married some four years ago to her now bereaved husband and resided on the Emary homestead, Gravel Road, St. Vincent. She was a member of the Meaford Baptist Church and a young woman of many endearing qualities and high ideals and her untimely death is mourned by a host of friends.

The funeral was held on Monday afternoon from her late residence to Lakeview Cemetery, and was one of the largest held in this section during our time here. Fully 150 cars were in attendance at the home and hundreds of sympathizing friends paid final tribute to one they loved and highly esteemed.

Services were conducted by Rev. G. K. Tyler, pastor of the Meaford Baptist Church, and J. E. Peters of the St. Vincent United Church, and high made, feeling reference to the sterling qualities of the departed. The pallbearers were all cousins of the deceased: Messrs. Frank Emary, Geo. Jolley, Norman, Alex. and Lorne Ormsby and Stanley Lane.

Friends and relatives from a distance were: Mrs. Sarah Pickard, Mrs. Fred Cooper, Toronto; Miss Audrey Pickard, Oshawa; Mrs. Geo. Adams, Port McNicoll; Mr. Charles Davies, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davies and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lane, Owen Sound; Messrs. George and Bert Merrifield, Mr. and Mrs. John Merrifield, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Merrifield and Mr. John Ormsby of Beaverdale; Mr. and Mrs. Allan Eagles and Mrs. Robert Fothergill, Markdale; Mr. Will Kink, Miss Ella Kinch and Miss Pearl Crampton, Warton.

Barrhead W. I.

The Institute met on May 6th at the home of Mrs. Bowles. There were thirteen members and two visitors present. The meeting opened in the usual manner. The minutes of the last meeting were then read by Mrs. More. It being the annual meeting the Annual Report was read. There were eleven regular meetings held through the year, a social evening and a St. Patrick's entertainment. During the year there had been 167 members present and 27 visitors. There was a membership of 28 on the roll. Next came the appointment of the following officers for 1929: President, Miss Fulton; Vice-President, Mrs. R. W. Wilson; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. Hatten; District Director, Mrs. Luther Torrey; District Representative, Mrs. Davidson; Directors, Mrs. David Symes, Mrs. Hill. The books showed a good balance to begin the new year. A special speaker, Miss Smith, sent by the Department, is to speak at the meeting on May 17 at the home of Mrs. R. W. Wilson at 8 p.m. All are welcome.

Vandeleur

"Promoting Romeo," a humorous play, was put on by local talent in the Vandeleur church on Friday evening, May 3rd, under the auspices of the Women's Institute. In spite of the severe snow storm a large crowd was in attendance and much enjoyed themselves. Twelve characters were represented in the play and all the actors performed well.

Those taking part were: Messrs. Howard Graham, Roy Freeman, Jack Taylor, Howard McGee and John Sawyer and Mrs. Will Swanton, Mrs. Frank Davis and Misses Myrtle Freeman, Verna Boland, Ethel Thompson and Amelia Davis. Mrs. F. R. Boland was unable to be present on account of illness and her part was well taken by Mr. Frank Davis on very short notice. Mr. W. Coburn supplied music and H. McGee sang a couple of songs between acts. Because of the fact that a large number were unable to be present on account of the weather, the play is being repeated in the church on Wednesday evening of this week, May 15th, under the auspices of the Women's Institute and the Ebenezer Ladies' Aid. They have also been invited to put it on in Harkeaway on May 23rd and in Rocklyn in the near future.

The many friends of Mrs. Geo. Pritchard are sorry to hear of her severe illness at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robt. Richardson of Fiesherston.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Garner and daughter, Irene, of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Amos Smith and son, Clark, of Meaford spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gilbert.

Miss Jean Wright and Mr. Canning of Toronto visited recently with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wright.

The pastor, Rev. Newton St. John, preached an appropriate Mothers' Day sermon in Ebenezer church on Sunday afternoon, and in Vandeleur church the Sunday previous. There was also a baptismal service in connection with the latter.

Rev. Peter Bryce of Toronto will occupy the pulpit in Vandeleur church next Sunday afternoon.

Messrs. Lundy Jones and Frank Davis motored to Toronto one day recently.

Mr. Howard Graham is driving a new Chevrolet six.

Berkeley

Misses Mabel and Jean Walters and friends of Toronto motored up and spent the week-end with the former's parents.

Mr. Charlie Ransome of Chesley visited on Sunday with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fitzsimmons and family of Blackroad, Musk., visited the former's parents over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Flint and Lillian and Misses Sarah and Dorothy Walters of Owen Sound spent Sunday with the latter's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Fitzsimmons motored from Blackroad, Musk., on Sunday to see the former's mother who is ill.

Mr. Jas. McTaggart is visiting with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Henry and sons motored on Saturday to Granton and spent the week-end with Mrs. Henry's parents.

(Held over from last week.)

Mrs. A. C. Muir and friend of Caylon visited on Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Kirk.

Messrs. Steve, Will and Jno. Flynn of Mount Forest visited over Sunday with their mother.

Mr. Jno. Price returned on Saturday from a motor trip to Toronto and Peterborough.

Mr. Jack Ransome and family moved on Monday to Durham.

Mr. Fred Delighton of Hanover visited over Sunday at his home.

The Ladies' Guild met on Thursday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. A. Gillespie where a social afternoon was spent.

Miss Able Lackey of Toronto returned on Friday after visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Gillespie, and Holford and Owen Sound relatives.

Mr. Carl Bradley of Toronto was a recent visitor with his parents.

Mr. Robt. Lawkey of Faversham was a caller with Mr. E. T. Walters the first of the week.

Blantyre

The wet weather has delayed the farmers for a few days.

Miss Mira Manning spent a few days last week with her sister, Thelma, in Meaford.

Our Inspector, Mr. S. A. Morrison, B.A., made his call at Blantyre school on Thursday.

Our community extends their best wishes for a happy wedded life to Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Williams (nee Evelyn Jenkins).

Miss Annie Julian spent a day recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Bradey, Markdale.
