Wodehouse

We had an old time blizzard on Thursday with a terrific wind from every night since, which must be endangering the fruit crop and stunting the growth of crops in general. The good old summer time has come to be a short period.

Our teacher, Miss Gillespie, spent the week-end in Toronto. Mrs. Andrew Shaw of Calgary, Alberta, has been in the vicinity, renewing old acquaintances. It is some nineteen years since the Shaw family left these parts, selling their farm, now occupied by Richard Fawcett, and settling in Calgary. Their family of eight children, seven girls and one boy, are now all grown up and settled in homes of their own excepting the youngest girl. Mrs. Shaw's old friends and neighbors are glad to hear of them and blessed to see her again. Time makes many changes but has dealt kindly with them as a family, all spared to them and prospering. She was in company with her brother, Mr. Isaac Brown, and wife of Griersville.

Born—On Friday, May 17th, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cherry, a son, Mr. Nelson Wilcox, lost one of his horses during the past week. The animal fell dead in the field while plowing.
