Science and Health

The old cry used to be: The greater happiness of the greatest number; today the cry has changed to the greatest health of the greatest number; take care of the health and the happiness will take care of itself. writes Professor D. Harris in the Clarion. ... For science is not antagonistic to the highest artistic taste or to the highest conceptions of the noblest of arts. 'Science and art' are synonymous, is quite out of date. ... Science teaches us reverence and humility—reverence for the presence of the mystery. For through its knowledge of the nature of things, there is plenty of mystery in its midst. ... Science is a perfectly adapted for their purposes. ... Science fosters a love of beauty. ... The position of the official authority in the present conflict has been one of absolute neutrality.

HOW BABY SPECIALISTS TREAT CONSTIPATION

Constipation in babies and children is the cause of colic, bloating, skin disorders, etc. It weakens them, just as it does grown folks; makes them cross, feverish and fretful. But don't use grown folks' medicine with them. Baby specialists advise. Ninety per cent. of them recommend just one other medicine for babies and children. They say 'Fletcher's Castoria.' Millions of mothers have proved its merit during thirty years of use. ... Fletcher's Castoria always bears the Fletcher signature. Avoid imitations.
