Three years ago they moved to Chatsworth where Mr. Loucks and son opened a garage. She was a devoted Christian, and previous to her death was a member of the Protestant church.

The funeral took place at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from her late home to Chatsworth United Church, where service was conducted. The remains were then taken to Flesherton and interred in the family plot in the cemetery there.

A Big New Town Sedan by Ford

The new DeLuxe Town Sedan by Ford is on display at the showrooms of Robt. Down, and an entirely different conception of motor car values is unfolded to the public. The only objection ever raised to the new Ford car was some people wanted more room in the rear. This beautiful DeLuxe Sedan is bigger, longer and wider, and carries an air of distinction, a richness of appointments, never embodied in any low priced automobile. Like the introduction of the New Ford, it sets an entirely new standard of values. It is DeLuxe in every way. You must make it a point to see this newest Ford at once. One wonders how such a change could be made—wonders how any manufacturer could present such a luxurious automobile at such a price.

The body is 5 1/2 inches longer and 4 inches wider. The lines are long and straight and this suggestion is emphasized by the smart French roof quarters and the belted moulding which runs sharply back from the radiator and encircles the entire body. The doors are exceptionally wide and exceptional headroom is obtained by dropping the floor. A nickel strip divides the cowl and nickel cowl lamps complete this most beautiful of standard Fords. The new car is of the six window type.

The driver's seat is wide and deep and completely cushioned and is adjustable by means of a small inconspicuous handle. The rear seat is particularly roomy. The upholstery is Lincoln cloth and presents a luxurious appearance as the interior is trimmed throughout in harmonizing materials of rich texture. Scroll bronze door handles and remote controls, grey window frames with garnish mouldings in matching finish are in perfect keeping with the car ensemble. Silk curtains, a flexible robe rail, overhead indirect lighting and special pockets with side and centre arm rests, raises this car a far above all ordinary cars in its field.

THINK—You can obtain many only available heretofore, in the world's most expensive automobile, such as: Hydraulic Lincoln, Lincoln, Lincoln transmission, full three-quarter differential, plus Ford's standardized engine and box, plus finest luxury at prices only Ford's mass production genius can create. Everybody welcome—see the new Ford.

PEACE OF MIND HIS SUMMER IS PROTECTED

FOR two successive summers Charles M. Bremner of Toronto worried about his family in their Muskoka cottage. Mainly, he worried about fire. Suppose sparks or flying embers from some nearby fire lodged on the roof. Suppose, while he worked in the city, his summer cottage became a prey to flames!

The very idea made him shudder—not the thought of losing his cottage, but the danger to his family. Finally Mr. Bremner did a very sensible thing. He reduced the fire hazard in his summer cottage by roofing it with Brantford Asphalt Slates. He thus not only recovered his peace of mind, but immeasurably beautified his summer home as well.

Hundreds of owners of summer homes are this year following Mr. Bremner's example. They are roofing their cottages with Brantford Asphalt Slates because Brantford Asphalt Slates combine distinct beauty and permanence with the ability to resist fire and weather protection. They are fire and weather proof. They are flameproof, brands from a nearby fire die out harmlessly on the slate-coated surface. They are the constant guardians of your home all year around—the months you are in and the months you are away.

Write for booklet "Secure With Fire Protection"—an authoritative treatise on the type, style, color and colour for your roof.
