MARKDALE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, JUNE 27th, 1929

$2.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

Wodehouse

Mrs. Bert Fawcett of Meaford, Sask., was a visitor recently with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fawcett. Mr. and Mrs. George Woodford visited with Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wiley and family one day week.

The Sunday School picnic held on Tuesday of last week was favored with fine weather, and was quite successful. The play given by Union talent was enjoyed by the crowd present and caused some laughter. All those engaged in the play acted their parts well. The orchestra rendered several selections between acts of the play. The proceeds of the picnic over $45.00, and the officials of the school wish to thank all who attended this annual event.

The S.S. Convention held on Thursday of last week was quite successful and interesting. Those from New England appointed who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wiley Jr., Mrs. Wm. Thompson Sr., Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Carruthers, Miss Orrie Kirkpatrick, Miss Nancy McAtee, Mrs. Bruce Carruthers, Mr. Gordon Wiley, Misses Edna and Vina Wiley, Mrs. Nelson Wiley and Mrs. Jag. Kirkpatrick.

T. I. and Mrs. Fawcett accompanied Mr. and Mrs. George E. Cornfield to Thornbury on Monday of last week and called at the hospital to see Mr. Wm. Knott who had the pleasure to get his leg broken. Also on Mr. G. W. Hutchison of Meaford who is confined to bed with heart trouble. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gibney and young ones visited Mr. and Mrs. David Symes of Meaford on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. John Egan and two daughters, Margaret and Muriel, of Durham were visitors at the home of T. I. and Mrs. Fawcett on Sunday. Also Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Cornfield and daughter, Victoria, and Miss Wm. Underhill. Mr. Miss Wm. Wiley has been engaged to be married in the school here, to commence after the summer vacation.

Mr. Gordon Wiley and family moved last week to the farm of the late John Hinkley. We wish them success and happiness in their new home, though sorry to lose them as neighbors here. Grave digging and general road repairing is the order of the day. Mr. Aaron E. Thompson led teams and men on the job of Thursday and Friday of last week and Mr. S. Wiley Sr. was on the same work on Saturday last and Monday of this week.

Mrs. John Best and two sons, Harold and Harvey, of Owen Sound were visitors on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wiley. Miss Ella Wiley accompanied them to Owen Sound for a short visit with friends there. Miss Vera Fawcett spent part of Sunday last with her friend, Miss Orrie Kirkpatrick. Miss Viola Wylie attended the wedding of her sister at Holland Centre on Thursday last. Mr. George Hicks Sr. and Mr. Geo. Hicks Jr. of Collingwood were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilcox on Sunday last.

Vandeur

Misses D. and G. Coburn of Toronto are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Freeman and family.

Miss Stella Wylie was in Buffalo recently for the graduation of the nurses at one of the hospitals there, her daughter, Miss Hazel Wylie, being one of them.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson of Brampton visited with Mr. Alf. Dunlop recently.

Mrs. Gilbert has returned home after spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Amos Smith, in Meaford.

Nurse Fawcett of Kimberley spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Will Hutchison.

Mr. Thos. Gilbert of Warton is visiting his brother, Mr. S. Gilbert, and sister, Mrs. Waring Sr.

Mrs. Andrews of Toronto is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Frank Davis.

Examinations Sunday School are having a picnic in Cliff Hutchison's meadow on Friday afternoon of this week.

A community picnic under the auspices of the teachers and pupils of the Sunday school and day school was held in the Community Park on Sunday afternoon of last week. A splendid program of sports was provided, including baseball, football, softball, basketball and foot races of all sorts, etc., etc., after which an excellent supper was a treat. The picnic was well attended and much enjoyed by all present.

The June meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Buchanan on Thursday of last week and was largely attended. An interesting program was provided, the principal item of which was a fine address by Miss Agnes MacPhail, M.P., on the evils and dangers of the rum traffic across the border. An acoustic rhyming contest was also held which was very interesting. Mrs. W. Swanton was declared the winner. Mrs. Genevieve and Myrtle Freeman third. Miss MacPhail, Mrs. J. I. Graham and Mrs. Jos. Buchanan were the judges. A dainty luncheon was then served by the members. Quite a number of the ladies intend going to the District Meeting at Walters Falls on Thursday afternoon.

A pleasant time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis on Wednesday evening of last week, when the members of the Vandeur Dramatic Club gathered and treated themselves to a splendid supper. They also wound up the business after a successful season, during which they presented the play, "Promoting Romeo," on six different occasions.

Eugenia

The recent shower of rain was welcomed by the farmers.

Mrs. William Hislop visited with friends in Toronto for a fortnight. We are sorry to report Miss Irene Martin quite ill at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Gorley. Dr. Bibby is in attendance. Dr. Murray was called from Owen Sound on Sunday and a consultation was held, but the symptoms puzzled both doctors. We hope Irene is soon well again.

Mr. Edgar Linton has disposed of his old car and driving horse and purchased a fine new Ford car. Mr. Bert Magee has also exchanged his car for a later model.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Campbell and son, Billie, of Toronto were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hippen and Mrs. Gile of Stratford were callers here the first of the week.

Examinations time is here and the teacher, Miss Sylvia Acheson, has used untiring efforts in preparing the entrance class for their final test. There are four entrance candidates from this school, Lucy Macdonald, Phyllis Graham, Beila Gibson and Mamie Kerton. We wish them success.

We are pleased to hear that Mr. Sam Macdonald has been re-engaged as teacher for another year at Victoria Corners.

Mrs. Turner spent Sunday with her son, Mr. Oliver Turner, and family, 10th Line.

Reeve A. Cameron was in Owen Sound all last week attending County Council.

Miss Mary Hopper and brother, Fred, have gone to Brantford to be present at a reunion of old schoolmates. They will also visit relatives in Toronto.

While wrestling in fun at school on Friday Master Herbie Fawcett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Fawcett, had the misfortune to break his right arm. Dr. Milne was called and took the lad to Durham Hospital where the arm was X-rayed and set. We wish Herbie a speedy recovery. It was un lucky for him, as he had only one examination written. We hope he recovers rapidly.

We are sorry to report Mr. Thos. Gilliland's health impaired at present, but hope he will soon be well again.

Mrs. Clarence Thompson and twin children, Delbert and Delma, of Cayley, Alta., are visiting relatives here. Quite a number of sightseers and tourists visit our pretty little village these days.

Mr. and Mrs. East Carruthers and little son of Saul Ste Marie are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Carruthers.

Miss Katie Jamieson of Toronto is visiting relatives here. Congratulations to Mr. Russell Cameron, who was successful in his second year course at Toronto University. Instead of being sent up north by the Biological Survey as Russell expected, he was sent down below Montreal.

Mr. Russell Park and his uncle, Mr. Geo. Park, visited friends at Markdale on Sunday.

The two fifth class pupils, Kathleen Pedlar and Gladys Williams, are trying exams on four subjects at Flesherton. Success girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Jamieson and Mrs. Archie MacDonald of Sask. are visiting relatives in this locality.

We are sorry that another old resident of this vicinity, Mrs. Henry Williams, has passed to her last reward at the age of 77 years. We extend our sympathy to the sorrowing relatives. Full obituary next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans of Owen Sound visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. Foerster.

Mr. Stanley Acheson of Dundalk visited his sister, Mrs. John Colgan, husband and family.

Kimberley

Mr. and Mrs. Archie McLean of Warren, Ohio, motored with Mr. D. L. Weber and are spending a few months with friends in Kimberley. All their old friends are pleased to see them looking so well.

Mr. D. L. Weber has divided his men, putting one gang on the Euphrasia bridges, the others finishing the Bridgale job.

Mr. Courtney is making a business trip to Toronto for a few days. Messrs. A. E. Ellis and S. S. Burditt are making some repairs to the floor of the Community Hall.

An enthusiastic meeting for a Pork Packing Co. was held last week in the Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Stotesbury, Mr. C. Hutchinson and Mrs. D. A. Graham attended the S. S. Convention held at Mount Zion, Euphrasia.

The Pilot lumber truck has been busy last week hauling lumber for Mr. J. A. Stuart.

Messrs. Will and Russell Hammond and Miss Eleanor are camping for a week or so.

Miss Fannie Abercrombie is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Thos. Abercrombie.

Men and teams have put about 125 loads of gravel on the road south of Kimberley.

A great deal of interest was taken in the case of Morgan vs Weber in court held in Owen Sound a week ago. The case in question was a car accident at Brantford on July 5 of last year, when a car owned by Mr. Morgan of Toronto ran into Mr. Weber's truck loaded with 22 children of a S. S. class on their way home from an outing at Niagara Falls. The jury decided in favor of Mr. Weber, freeing him from all blame. Credit is due Mr. Graydon of Brantford in the way he handled the case for Mr. Weber.

Rocklyn

A good rain is badly needed in this vicinity.

Mrs. Chaffield of Toronto has spent the past couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Curry.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wilkinson of Clarkson spent a few days last week with friends in this vicinity. In the near future Mr. Wilkinson is moving to Temple Hill as pastor of the latter, Victoria, and Knox St Vincent churches. He will be warmly welcomed by his old friends who have been keeping in touch with him since his made his home in Rocklyn some twenty years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Menarey spent a few days last week in Toronto and attended the funeral of the former's nephew, who was recently killed in an accident.

Mr. Harold Kerr and Mr. J. A. Cook motored to Owen Sound one day last week to hear the address of the Hon. E. B. Bennett.

Mrs. McCullough and Mrs. C. Taylor spent a few days last week at Meaford.

Mr. Isidiah Gardner is having a well drilled artesian well. Thos. Gilray doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. W. McCullough and Misses Vera and Iva, and Mr. Will Yeatley spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. John Yeatley.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Ritchie of Pleasant Valley and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Roche and Miss Ruby Roche of Markdale visited with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawson and daughter, Jean, of Rosedale were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Wiley.

Mrs. John McChan visited over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Croft of Guelph.

Mrs. James McFadden received the sad news of the death of her nephew, Mr. Jack Gault, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gault of Owen Sound. The young man had been working in Windsor and came home for a holiday on Friday. He took suddenly ill and passed away Saturday night. He was a fine type of young man and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. The funeral took place to Bayview cemetery at Warton on Monday and was under the auspices of Wolsley Orange Lodge. There was a large attendance and many beautiful floral tributes were placed on the casket. Mrs. McFadden attended the funeral.
