The Late Mrs. Henry Williams

A gloom was cast over this locality by the death of Mrs. Henry Williams, who entered into Eternal Rest on Friday, June 21st, 1929. The deceased had suffered a paralytic stroke about two years ago and never regained her usual good health again. She was seized by pneumonia a few days previous to her death and throughout her struggle with the fatal disease she maintained consciousness. Her maiden name was Miss Mary Campbell. She was born in Scotland 77 years ago and when but a mere child came with her parents to Canada and settled on the Valley Road in Artemesa township. Fifty years ago on March 5th last she married Mr. Henry Williams, who survives with four children, John of Paris, Ont.; Duncan at home; Tena (Mrs. Francis Genoe), Eugenia, and Ada (Mrs. John Brandt), Forward, Sask.

The late Mrs. Williams was of a kind disposition and a kind neighbor and friend. She was a staunch member of the Presbyterian church for many years and also a faithful attender at the church since union. Her pastor, Rev. Jos. Harrower, officiated at the house and grave. Interment took place to the family plot in Flesherton cemetery on Monday and a large number of sorrowing friends and neighbors were present to pay their last tribute of respect for the deceased.

The many beautiful floral offerings included a wreath from the family; spray from Eugenia friends and neighbors; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Will Chambers; spray, Mr. "Bert" Fisher and daughters; spray, Mrs. Jas. Jackson and Mrs. Fred Jackson; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Rose, and Mrs. Donaldson and Mrs. Richard Carruthers; spray, the Carruthers family; spray from Mrs. Will Smale. The flower bearers were Messrs. Ruth Russell Jones, Taylor, Bowles and Melrose Campbell and Reta Genoe. The pall bearers were Messrs. John and Jos. Williams, Wilbee Graham, Alex. Carruthers, Ed. McMullen and Will Gorman.

Friends from a distance present at the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Donaldson and son, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hall and son, Mr. and Mrs. Hill Hannah and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. Childs, Mrs. B. Hannah, Mr. and Mrs. W. Campbell and son, Mr. Will Widdifield and Mrs. Isaac Pooley, all of Toronto, and Mr. John Williams and wife of Paris, Ont.

"Those who are left to mourn for her—
Their dear one called away;
Live with hopes to meet her
On that bright and glorious day;
When all will rise to those bright mansions,
Where sorrow and pain are no more
Where our dear Saviour waits to greet us
On that bright and blissful shore."

We extend our sympathy to the sorrowing friends.

Congratulations to Mr. Russell Linton and Miss Clarabel Fenwick, who were married last week. We hear that the young couple will reside at Minico.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Graham and daughters of Walkerton visited relatives here over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Prince have returned home to Toronto after visiting a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Francis Genoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Genoe of Toronto are visiting at the former's parents' home here at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. John Williams and grandson, Murray, attended the funeral of the former's father-in-law, the late Mr. Thos. Howard.

We extend our sympathy to the friends of the late Master Burton Smith of 12th Line, who was accidentally killed. We also extend our sympathy to the Caswell family of Flesherton in the loss of their daughter, Mildred, and to the sorrowing relatives of the late Mrs. W. G. Pickell.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Martin and Miss Willa and Master Millburn of Owen Sound and Mr. Lorenzo Martin of Detroit visited at Mr. C. Martin's and Mr. R. Bailey's on Sunday.

Sorry to report Miss Irene Martin still ill. We hope she will soon recover.

Mr. Wes. Cooey of Toronto visited over the week-end here.

Pleased to report Mrs. R. A. Park able to be up again after her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Quesnel and family of Owen Sound spent the 1st with Mr. Jos. Sherwood and attended the U.F.O. Picnic at Flesherton.

Many from this locality attended the U.F.O. Picnic. There were many visitors to the village here on July 1.

A few vehicles have crossed the new bridge. There is yet considerable filling in to do in order to make the roadway wide. At present there is just a narrow passage across.

We are pleased to report that Miss Sylvia Acheson has been re-engaged for another term in our school.

We understand that Miss Ida Hincks has resigned her school at 8th Line.

Traverston

The recent showers have greatly added to the prospects of hay and spring grain crops.

Grandma Davis, aged 79, has been quite seriously ill during the past week a matter in the fields. Unfortunately she was trying to hold on a mare and colt on Sunday evening, tripped over some unseen piece of wood and fell, breaking the main bone in her right arm. Dr. D. E. Jamieson reduced the fracture.

The Trustees Board of No. 5 school met on Monday evening and decided to have the school repainted both inside and out.

Mr. Leo Burke is home from Detroit enjoying some well-earned holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Beaton, Mrs. Arch. Beaton and Mr. Henry Beaton motored to Toronto on Sunday and spent the First there.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrison and sons of Toronto and Mr. Geo. Smith of Riverview were guests at Mrs. M. Smith's over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Fairweather and Master Gordon of Toronto are holidaying a fortnight at Mr. W. J. Cook's. Mr. E. A. Cook and two sons, Murray and Howard, and sister, Evelena (Mrs. Brown) of Detroit arrived at the same old home. The boys will spend the summer holidays, E. A. returns on Tuesday, while Mrs. Brown will remain for a few weeks.

Mr. Wm. Cook of Elmwood and Mr. John Bierworth, missionary on furlough from Nigeria, West Africa, were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cook the first two days of the week. Mr. Bierworth gave a most interesting talk to Zion Leaguers on Sunday evening of the work carried on among the native tribes and of their customs, habits, etc. Mr. and Mrs. Ern. Martin of Owen Sound were guests on Sunday at the same cosy home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weir Jr., and family of near Durham spent the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Albert McNally in the hamlet.

The suddenness of the "passing out" of Mrs. Jerry McAsey on Thursday morning of last week, in the prime of young matronhood, caused the most heartrending grief in a happy home and touched the whole neighborhood with sadness and the deepest sympathy. "Camella" Mrs. Sweeney and the late Denis Sweeney and was in her 36th year. Fifteen years ago she was happily wedded to Mr. McAsey and the union was blessed with a family of eight hearty children, five sons and three daughters, the older one, "Tommy," being 14 last January. She retired to rest in her usual health, but the early morn left a home and husband motherless, brothers and sisters and an aged mother in deepest distress. She was a devoted wife and mother, her whole aim the welfare of her home and family, and she spared not of her strength, nor energy. She leaves to mourn, besides the family, her aged mother, two brothers, Will of the neighborhood and Elmer of Detroit, and two sisters, Misses Inez and Nellie of Detroit, the former being home for holidays at the time of her sister's death. The funeral took place to St. John's on Saturday morning and was a very large one, Rev. Father McHugh conducting an impressive Requiem Mass, also giving a most comforting sermon and message. He has endeared himself to all by his thoughtfulness and tender sympathy. The hearts of the whole community go out in sympathy to all in this sore affliction. Among those who attended from a distance were her brother and sisters from Detroit, Mr. Matt Bolger and daughter from Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. M. Hogan and Mrs. Martin of Owen Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Haws and son, Elwood, and daughter, Ila of Meaford spent the first of the week at the Davis home.

Mr. P. J. O'Connor, teacher near Jackfish, is home for the summer vacation.

Miss McGarry, who has successfully taught at S.S. No. 5 for the past six years, has resigned and left for her home in Perth. During her term here Miss McGarry had an entrance class each year and never had a pupil fail. She was exceedingly popular in this section and her removal is regretted.

Miss Evelyn O'Connor and Mrs. A. Week of Toronto spent the week-end at the former's home here.

Master John S. Black of Fort William is holidaying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Black.

Holland Centre

A very successful stone-bee was held at the athletic grounds on Thursday of last week, when some forty men and eleven teams did about twice as much work as was expected. Unstinted praise was given to those who managed the bee and to all who helped, as well as those who gave the lunch for the men in the town hall.

The Harkaway W.M.S. met at the parsonage on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Carrie Crowther of Toronto visited with her parents at the old home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cooper motored from Toronto for the holiday.

The people of Holland Centre are putting forth every effort to make the celebration on July 12th a grand success. Several meetings and committee meetings have been held and plans and preparations are well on the way. A bee is being held on Monday, July 8th, to put the church shed in order for the grand concert to be given in the evening. The United Church is withdrawing the annual garden party and co-operating with the L.O.L. in arrangements for the day.

On Sunday, July 7th, the members of the L.O.L. will attend divine worship in the United Church in a body.

Married—By Rev. R. J. McCarten at the parsonage, Holland Centre, on Friday, June 21st, Eliza, daughter of Mr. Wesley Wyville and the late Mrs. Wyville of Harkaway, to Geo. Fredrick Fisk of Owen Sound.

Married—By Rev. R. J. McCarten at the parsonage, Holland Centre, on Thursday, June 27th, Annie Kathleen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carmeron of Berkeley to Thomas Fitzsimmons of Berkeley.

Walters Falls

Our school and Ebenezer held a very pleasant picnic on the Fair grounds on Saturday, June 29, which was quite well attended by both children and adults. The weather was ideal. A friendly game of softball between Goring and the Falls resulted in favor of the home team by 16 to 2. After the ball a series of foot races were run which included everyone in some class, the prizes being chocolate bars and bananas. The next item was the lunch, which is always welcome. Just before passing Miss Morgan was presented with a fountain pen by the scholars, to which she feelingly replied, Miss Morgan having resigned from this school. Ice cream was plentifully served, after which all dispersed to their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lemon and four children and Mr. D. Walter motored to London over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Seabrook and children visited in Guelph on Sunday.
