CREAM

LET FACTS SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES

Since November, 1926, of our operating The Markdale Creamery & Produce Co., we have almost tripled the production, and our make is still increasing over last year to date. That alone is proof enough that we are giving better satisfaction than the average creamery.

In order to insure you of a better grade and better service, the cream which is picked up by our trucks is graded and tested on the same day received.

If you are not one of our patrons now, give us a trial and you will be convinced. We pay highest market prices and our service is the best.

MARKDALE D. A. JACKSON

Mrs. W. G. Pickell Dead

Elizabeth Ann Wright, widow of the late W. G. Pickell of this place, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Urquhart, in Regina, Sask., on Wednesday, June 26th, in her 86th year. Her death was caused by a paralytic stroke approximately a week before, until which time she had enjoyed fairly good health.

The late Mrs. Pickell was for many years a highly respected resident of Markdale and was an active worker in the former Methodist church.
She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Wright, pioneer residents at Fleesherton. Mr. Pickell passed away fifteen years ago, since which time the deceased made her home with members of the family, of late with Mrs. Urquhart in Regina.

The late Mrs. Pickell is survived by two sons and two daughters, namely: W. G. Pickell, editor and publisher of the Paris Star; Goldwin of Brandon; Mrs. Urquhart in Regina, and Mrs. F. H. Stephens in Northern Manitoba.

The funeral took place at Fleesherton on Monday. Service was held in the United Church and was conducted by Rev. A. Newton St. John of this place. The remains were laid to rest in the family plot in Fleesherton cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. C. E. Armstrong, J. B.
Thibaudou and J. A. Eskine of Markdale, and Thos. Clayton, W. W.
Trimble and J. L. McMullen of Fleesherton. Many from Markdale attended the funeral.

Alfred Dunlop

Alfred Dunlop, a well-known resident of the Vanderburg district, who has been in failing health for some time, passed away on Monday, July 1st. The funeral was held on Wednesday at Meaford Road Cemetery.
Mrs. Dunlop passed away about a year ago and their only child, a daughter, about four years ago.

Fisk - Wyville

The marriage at Holland Centre was the scene of a pretty wedding on Friday, June 21st, when Miss Elizbeth Wyville, eldest daughter of Mr. Walter Wyville and the late Mrs.
Wyville of Euphrasia became the bride of Mr. George Frederick Fisk, only son of Mrs. Watty Warren and the late George Frederick Fisk of Owen Sound. Rev. R. J. McCarten performed the ceremony. The bride looked charming in a frilled dress of blue silk flat crepe and wore a smart blue tailored coat. Her gloves were of a pretty beige with stockings to match. Miss Olive Foster of Mark-dale attended as bridesmaid and looked pretty in a dress of royal blue silk tulle. Mr. Norman Wyville acted as best man.

After the ceremony the bride and groom, with the attendants and Rev. and Mrs. McCarten, motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawken where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served, a beautiful three-storey bride's cake centered the table while other decorations were roses and ferns. Mrs. Hawken was assisted by Miss Viola Wyville and Miss Maple Woyce.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisk will reside in Owen Sound. Many friends wish the young couple a happy and prosperous wedded life.

U. F. O. Picnic

There was a tremendous crowd in attendance at the annual U.F.O. picnic held in Lever's grove near

In the afternoon a splendid program was given by Toronto talent.
Addresses were given by Miss Macphail, M.P., and F. R. Oliver, M.P., Mr. R. D. Carruthers of Euphrasia presided.

and Clarksburg and Dundalk participated and in football Strathaven and Dromore competed. In baseball Arthonia defeated Proton by 9 to 4.
Haver hand supplied the music for the afternoon.

which will take place this (Thursday) evening.
