Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hopkins and family of Wilkie, Sask., are visiting friends in this vicinity at present.

This community was deeply grieved to learn of the sad death on Saturday last of Evelyn Wright, beloved wife of Mr. Alonzo Smith, at the early age of twenty years. Deceased was ill but a short time, taking convulsions after the birth of her little baby girl. Although Mrs. Smith had been but a short time among us, she had endeared herself to all with whom she came in contact by her sunny disposition and kindness. Besides the sorrowing husband, she is survived by her parents, one sister and two brothers, who have the heartfelt sympathy of all in their sad affliction.

On Monday evening last the many friends and well wishers of Dr. MacDougall of Temple Hill church met at the manse and presented him with a purse. The address was read by Miss Pearl Clarkston and the presentation made by Mr. E. Ptolemy. Following is the address:

Temple Hill, July 1, 1929

Dear Dr. MacDougall,—

Gathering with you to-night it is the desire of your Temple Hill friends to express our regret at your removal from our church where you, as pastor, have been a very zealous worker.

Your work has been an inspiration for us, your cheerful disposition, in spite perhaps very often of adversities has encouraged us many times.

We will indeed always retain the highest appreciation of your services. Nothing in connection with the church work was ever too much trouble or inconvenience for you. You were always at the command with the many needs of the church and we know your highest ambitions are being fulfilled when you are carrying on God's work.

Your remarkable qualities have commended you to all who have had the privilege of your acquaintance.

We cannot sufficiently thank you for what you have done for the church and community while among us. We ask that God's loving hands may strew rich blessings along your path to brighten your every day, and that wherever you are that good health, peace and happiness may attend you. We have come to say farewell, Dr. MacDougall, and also desire in the most cordial terms to express our brightest wishes for your future, and to give expression to our regrets at the severance of the ties which have bound us together these years.

We ask your acceptance of this purse with the feeling of good will which has prompted the giving.

Signed on behalf of your Temple Hill friends:

Joseph Patton,
Ernest Ptolemy.

It required eight stitches to draw the wound together in back of Mrs. McArthur's head and the others were badly bruised and shaken up.

"The besiest ever." That's the general expression heard about Zion's picnic on Monday afternoon. Seeing it was your scribe's and his better half's wedding anniversary, the weather-man was specially kind and swept the clouds away very softly. It was quiet and lovely under the leafy maples. A big crowd was present from far and near. It is always re-union time for the old schoolmates and many were present, among whom were members of the McClocklin, Nelson, Cook, Hastie families and others. The program was finely varied and bright. Music sweet and stirring by the Staples family, Mr. Geo. Ritchie, son, Howard, and Mr. Jim Peart, and the two gifted laddies, Masters Archie McCauley and Clifford Binns of Harkaway. Recitations were well given by Misses Lily Black, M. E. Lyons, Clara Jack, Mary McNab, Daisy and Eva Street, Elvie and Essel Hastie, Mary Anderson, Velma McNally, and Master Gordon McNally. Mrs. John O. Greenwood sang a solo that will linger long. There were a couple of community songs. Mr. Alf. Staples, a former boy of old No. 5, who was present with his lovable wife, son and daughter, made a brief speech and told a good yarn. 'Tis 24 years since he left for California and he has made good, yet is quite unassuming. Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Smith of Pasadena expressed their pleasure at being present and promised to return every three years. The National Anthem was heartily sung, a big candy treat for over 80 boys and girls, followed by as keenly a contested program of sports as Zion has every had, and ludicrous too, at times. It took Mr. Mark Wilson of Flesherton and Mr. Hugh McArthur of Zion to show the boys how fast fat men can run. The ground fairly shook, but 'twas a nose and nose race. Edge Hill walloped Waudby in the softball game, but a couple of the latter team's best players were absent. The tent did a big trade, cleaning off all supplies. Everybody went home happy, renewed in youth and with some fine pictures added to memory.

By error we stated Miss Mary Hastie was holidaying around the burg some week or two ago. She is up from the Queen city now and enjoyed the big picnic immensely.

Mr. Will Morrison of Egremont was up this last week and purchased a dozen head of stockers and feeders at fair prices.
