PRESENTATION TO BLANTYRE SCHOOL TEACHER

On Tuesday afternoon the parents and children of Blantyre School Section gathered at the School House with a lovely Silver Tea Service and Silver Bread Tray.

Little Ethel Boyd presented the teacher with the gifts, while Ruby Paterson read the following address.

Meaford, Ont., June 25, 1929. To Miss Annie Julian: Dear Teacher—Gathering with you this afternoon, prior to your departure from our midst, casts a shadow of regret upon us as we have learned of your intended removal from our School Section.

You have taken a keen interest in our school for three years and proved yourself to be capable and skilful in the discharge of all duties as a teacher. You were always ready to help when needed in all instances and your willingness has been greatly appreciated.

Your ability to advance not only the interests of the school but the community at large has been recognized by your dedication.

As our school work will still be carried on we will indeed miss your presence, but will always remember the many pleasant hours spent with you. Though we feel keenly our loss, what will be our loss if we others gain.

We extend our best wishes for your continued health, strength and prosperity and that you may be spared to take an active part in the things that are helpful. We hope you may long remember your old friends of S. S. No. 12, Blantyre and the dear little children who have gathered here this afternoon to ask you to accept this Tea Service and Bread Tray, with a feeling of regret by the removal of our dear teacher from our School Section.

Signed on behalf of the section—Cecil Boyd Sheldon Boyd Henry Murray

Miss Julian, in a few well chosen words, thanked her pupils and friends for their lovely gifts.

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the close of which a dainty lunch was served by the ladies of the section.
