In Memoriam

JOHNSTON—In loving memory of darling mother, Harriet Johnston, who passed away August 4, 1928.

One year has passed since that sad day When the one we loved passed away.

We often pause to think of you, And think of how you died; To think you could not say good-bye Before you closed your eyes, Only for the hope that we'll meet you.

In that bright and happy land; When God shall reveal his purpose, Only then will I understand, As we loved her, so we miss her.

In our memory, she is dear; Lover, remember, thought of always.

Often wishing you were here, Friends may think we've forgotten When they see us smile, But they little know the heartache That's hid beneath that smile.

Friends are friends if they are true, But we lost our best friend When we lost you.

Ever remembered by your son, Arthur, daughter-in-law, Nora, and grandchildren, Colleen and Robert.
