We had a call on Friday last from Mr. W. J. Henderson of Dauphin, Man., who, along with Mrs. Henderson, are visiting with friends in Holland and were calling on some of the old friends in town that day. Mr. Henderson taught some years ago in the Richardson school on the town-line and is now supervisor of the public schools in Dauphin. He was struck particularly with the evidences of prosperity in the rural sections of the country in this locality.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week the large frame barn belonging to Mr. A. L. Walker and located on the farm in the village was completely destroyed by fire with all contents. About thirty loads of hay belonging to Parliament Bros. who have the farm rented, were also destroyed. The fire was first noticed about 2 o'clock and the alarm sounded immediately but before anything could be done the flames had gained such headway that they were beyond control. Mr. Walker had a gang of men erecting a cement wall under the barn and it was hoped that the work would have been completed that day. There is some insurance but not enough to cover the loss of either the owner or the tenants. Several buildings in the locality caught fire from falling sparks but were saved by the brigade who were on the job promptly.
