During the formative years of childhood and adolescence a future's plan provides for storing up bodily resistance. This is needed in adult life to pull through periods of sickness, worry and fatigue. Thinking parents are not blinded by claims of selfish interests, who urge that stimulants replace the known nutritive value of good food.

Brown and Soul Picnic

(Markdale Express)
On the occasion of the eightieth birthday of Mr. Wm. Brown, of St. Vincent, on Tuesday, July 23rd, a family reunion picnic was held at Kipwapa Beach. A happy coincidence was the fact that July 23rd was also the birthday of Mrs. Morley Brown's mother, Ellen Soul, of Duncan, and Mrs. Soul's family and friends joined in a double family picnic. Among the many friends of the latter to be present were four daughters and one son, Mrs. R. D. Carruthers, Mrs. Elizabeth Carruthers, Mrs. Morley Brown, Mrs. Frances, and Mr. Thos. Soul, also one brother, Mr. John Slaw, of Thornbury.

Mrs. Rhoda McIntosh, of St. Mary's, Ont., and Mrs. Wm. McConnell, of Lewiston, Ontario, and Mrs. B. Gilbert, of Saskatchewan, also of the party. The occasion was a surprise party for Mr. W. W. Stewart, a member of the Markdale Citizens Band, also a male quartet composed of Messrs. Head, Culbertson, Koffer, and Beckert, with Mayor McCague, Dr. Geo. S. Smith, and Dr. J. D. Hamill. It was soon found that these were no alien, tribe bent on warfare, but kindred spirits ready to give of their talents to greet those who had been travelling for many years on life's varied pathway.

Blackburn - Boland

A pretty but quiet wedding took place at the home of Rev. W. G. Wainwright, of the Methodist Church, on July 13, 1929, when Charlotte M. Blackburn and Mr. Wm. Boland were united in marriage. The bride was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blackburn, of Markdale. The groom was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blackburn, of Markdale.

Miss Macphail Writes from Canton, Ill.

Today I visited the town of Hannibal, Missouri. Its chief attraction is the fact that there once lived Mark Twain, the great humorist. His famous carriage was still in the town. He grew up in the Hannibal home. It is today open to the public. Many pictures of him are in the town. His famous carriage was still in the town. He grew up in the Hannibal home. Buchanan, who gets letters from all over the United States and Canada addressed "Alaska, Buchanan, Detroit," tells the boy who writes to him direct from anywhere that he can earn his third by saving pencils, kitchen knives, coal, steel ash, baskets, etc. Boys who qualify go westward, through Canadian Rockies, seeing Banff and Lake Louise, then north to Alaska on the "Princess Louise." They see the wonders of Alaska and return by the "Princess" to Vancouver and homeward through the United States, thus viewing the Grand scenery in Canada, Alaska and the States. Buchanan goes with them on every trip and gives them his personal care.

When asked what he did if they got sick, he declared that they did not get sick.
