

THE ISLE OF RETRIBUTION

EDISON MARSHALL

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Ned Cornet and his wife, Lenore, are survivors of a shipwreck. They land on an island inhabited by Doomsdorf and his Indian wife, Knutzen, and other survivors, who are all dead.

He had shown hardly decent courtesy; the same girl whom in childish fury he had cursed the bitter, eventful night just gone. Above the roar of the falling tree he heard her quick, half-strangled gasp of horror.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

He walked with her to her fallen axe, then inspected the deep cut she had already made in her tree.

CHAPTER XVII (Cont'd.)

He walked with her to her fallen axe, then inspected the deep cut she had already made in her tree.

CHAPTER XVIII

He walked with her to her fallen axe, then inspected the deep cut she had already made in her tree.

CHAPTER XIX

He walked with her to her fallen axe, then inspected the deep cut she had already made in her tree.

CHAPTER XX

He walked with her to her fallen axe, then inspected the deep cut she had already made in her tree.

CHAPTER XXI

He walked with her to her fallen axe, then inspected the deep cut she had already made in her tree.
