During the formative years of childhood and adolescence nature's plan provides for storing up bodily resistance. This is needed in adult life to pull us through periods of sickness, worry and fatigue. Thinking parents are not blinded by claims of selfish interests, who urge that stimulants replace the known nutritive value of good food.

Going Home for Dinner

What Will Your Home-going Be Like Ten or Fifteen Years from Now?

The subject of this sketch is a young man who has neglected his education. The subject of this sketch is a young woman who has neglected her education. Both are shown in a rural setting, looking towards the camera with a somber expression.

A man will go no further than his head will let it. A young man or a young woman will go no further than his or her head will allow. People do not succeed by chance or by luck but by getting a practical education and using their knowledge.

The very best place to go to get up-to-date Business Education is the Northern Business College, Owen Sound, where thousands of young people have been educated for successful business careers.

Mrs. John Carter Suddenly Called

(The Dundalk Herald)

This community mourns the sudden death of Mrs. John Carter, which occurred Friday forenoon while she was alone in her home on the 3rd Melancthon, a short distance east of Dundalk. Mrs. Carter was found lying dead on the floor by one of her sons. Her husband was in the village on business. The sad event was a great shock to him and his family. Mrs. Carter had been troubled a little with neuritis a short time, but it was not considered serious, and she was about her household duties as usual. Heart failure was the immediate cause of death.

The deceased, who was held in highest esteem in the community, leaves to mourn her loss, her husband and eight of a family, namely: Mrs. Geo. Hagan, of Alzenod, Sask.; Mrs. Richard Muthall, of Toronto; Mrs. William French, Melancthon; Mrs. Robt. Down, Markdale; Miss Bessie Carter, in Toronto; George E. and John T. Carter, in Melancthon; Reuben S. Carter, in Toronto. One sister and two brothers are also left to mourn, as follows: Mrs. Robt. Sleep, Carsonville, Mich.; William and Richard Small, of Shelburne.

Mrs. Carter, whose maiden name was Nora Small, was born in Mono township 65 years ago and was married there to Mr. Carter in 1886. They resided in Mono till 1894, when they moved to Melancthon.

The funeral, on Sunday afternoon, was largely attended. Rev. M. F. Oldham, rector of St. Paul's Church, Melancthon, of which the deceased was a member, conducted the services. Interment was made in Shelburne Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: T. Thompson, T. Carter, R.J. Small, Ed. Small, Robt. Harper, and J. Small.

Among the friends present from a distance: Geo. Small, Mr. and Mrs. R.J. Small and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Small and family, Mr. and Mrs. S. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. V. Ostrander, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Small, Ivan Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Carter, Orangeville, Mr. Irvin Carter, Grand Valley.

Beautiful floral tributes have evidence of love and sympathy, and included: Wreaths and flowers from husband and family; wreaths, William and Richard Small; Deer Park Garage; Snydes; Mr. and Mrs. R.J. Small, Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald; Telephone staff of King Edward Hotel, Toronto; Ivan Wood and family, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Down, and family of Flesherton; Eastern Star Lodge, Flesherton; L. C. Armstrong - Summerhill

(The Dundalk Herald)

A pretty wedding was solemnized in Toronto on Saturday, August 31, 1920, when Alice Elsie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Summerhill, became the bride of Mr. William Irwin Armstrong, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Armstrong, Markdale. Rev. G. W. Barker of Grace United Church, assisted by Prof. W. A. Irwin, M.A., B.D., Ph.D., of Toronto University, performed the ceremony.

The winsome bride was dressed in pale mauve georgette with white and carried a shower-bouquet of roses and lily-of-the-valley. She was attended by Miss Florence Armstrong of Markdale, sister of the groom. Mr. Harold Summerhill, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The young couple left by motor for Niagara and Buffalo and later visited the groom's parents at Markdale. They will reside in Toronto.

Walker - McKenzie

(The Dundalk Herald)

On Saturday afternoon, August 24th, a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie at Portlaw, when James Herbert Walker and Joanna Lillian McKenzie were united in marriage. Rev. A. F. Bamford of Maxwell officiated. The ceremony took place in the parlour of the bride's home, beneath a wedding veil, her brother, Alvin, acting as best man to the groom and Miss Malcolm as bridesmaid. Promptly at the hour set the bride entered the parlour on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march. During the signing of the register Mr. Littlejohn sang "The Bells of St. Mary's" after which the assembled guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding breakfast.

Following a brief honeymoon the happy couple will reside at Portlaw.
