New England church was comfortably filled on Friday evening of last week when Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Carruthers and daughter, Jean, and Mrs. Clara Wiley and Miss Hazel Wiley were invited out from Mark-dale to spend a social evening with their numerous friends and neighbors in the community. Rev. Mr.
Stotabury acted as chairman and Mrs. Rorke of Owen Sound presided at the organ. A good program had been prepared and was rendered as follows: Community singing led by the chairman; trio by Mrs. A. A.
Thompson; Reading by Miss Lavina Wiley; Violin selections by Mr. H.
Cherry with Mr. Russell Pavent as accompanist on the guitar; solo by Mrs. A. A. Thompson; solo by Miss Lavina Wiley; violin selections; Violin and guitar selections; Community singing; trio by Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Rorke and Miss Lawson; address and presentations.

Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers and Jean were called to the platform when the following address was read by Miss Lavina Wiley:

Dear Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Carruthers and Miss Jean,—

We have met together for the purpose of spending a social evening with the friends who are moving from our community. We are loathe to lose you, Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers and Miss Jean, from our district.
We live in a world of change, so that during every day something is happening that affects us in some new situation. On this occasion we are awakened to the fact that a change is coming that will seriously affect our community. In the removal of Mr.
Carruthers we are losing one to whom we have been accustomed to look as one of our leaders. You have taken an interest in everything that the community has concerned itself about; you have been a congenial and helpful neighbor, ready to assist in any way your neighbors when the opportunity presented itself. You have shared in the municipal affairs, both to your own credit and to our satisfaction. You have been very much interested in the public school section at Silgo, serving on the school board. You have interested yourself in public questions. So that as a community our loss will be felt very much. We are especially mindful of the deep interest you have had in the church life of New England, and of our deep respect of you. This is evidenced by your election as a member of the session, thus serving as one of our elders. You have long served upon our official boards. Your life has been especially helpful to us in your teaching of the Adult Bible Class. The class has shown its appreciation of this service that you have rendered to us. You were concerned with anything that affected the church. We want to assure you that we have appreciated your very deep interest in our church and that we have profited very much by your faithful services.

With your departing from us Mrs.
Carruthers we remember that you have been a good companion with your husband in his many opportunities and responsibilities. We remember the hospitality of your home and your readiness to join in any common interest in our church. We will miss you when you are gone from us.

And Miss Jean you are leaving behind you many friends. Many who have grown up with you in this neighborhood and school, and who have found you a very helpful member of our Sunday school and Young People's Society. You will no doubt remember all your life the association of this church in your childhood days of youth. We will miss you but will follow you in our interest, trusting that with the splendid start in life that you have had in the helpful influence of your home and this church and neighborhood, that you will give to the world another useful and beneficent life of service and friendship.

Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers and Miss Jean, we'll miss you very much for you have all made yourselves so helpful to us and we have enjoyed your friendship and neighborliness. We have appreciated your faithfulness in serving us in our church. We trust that you will continue in your new home the part that you have taken with us. We ask that you accept this expression of our very deep respect and love for you, and of our very sincere wishes for your success and happiness. We are grateful for your sojourn with us.

Mr. Carruthers was presented with a splendid club bag, Mrs. Carruthers with a half dozen silver knives and forks and Miss Jean with a lovely ivory bed room clock.

Signed on behalf of the church and community.

Willard Wiley,
John McFie, Mr. Carruthers replied to the presentation on behalf of himself and Mrs. Carruthers and Miss Jean, thanking his friends for the expressions of good will and the beautiful gifts presented.

At this juncture of the proceedings Mrs. Clara Wiley and Miss Hazel Wiley were asked to come to the platform, when the following address was read by Mrs. Bowen:

Dear Mrs. Wiley and Miss Hazel,—
We have met together for the pur-
from our community. We regret very much that we are about to lose you, Mrs. Wiley and Miss Hazel. We are living in a world of change, so that during everyday something is happening that affects us in some new situation. On this occasion we are awakening to the fact that a change is coming that will seriously affect our community.

Mrs. Wiley we remember that this community gave you birth and that you spent your childhood days in its life. This means association of many years with us as a neighbor and a friend. We sympathize with you as you recall many happy and sacred associations with the old homestead.
It has had a large place in your life and with it the association of your relatives and friends. We believe that the memories of the old home and the community have endeared themselves to you, but we want to assure you to-night that we have very pleasant memories of our associations with you as neighbors and friends. Many of us have grown up together with you so we are mindful of many years of your sojourn with us. Then in our New England church, with its many helpful associations, we are sensing our distinct loss, with your departure from us.
You have been in the life of the church for many years, in our Sunday school and sharing with the ladies of the congregation in their work.
We remember your faithful attendance to the church services and in recent years your contribution to the worship as our organist. We will miss you in our services.

To you, Miss Hazel, we bear kind thoughts for sharing with your mother the heavy responsibilities of recent months. We bear pleasant memories of your life in our community and school. You are leaving behind many friends. We wish you success and happiness in life.

We will miss you, Mrs. Wiley, very much. We have appreciated your willingness to render any service to us. We remember your faithfulness.
We want to assure you of our deep interest and love for you and of our sincere wishes for your future happiness. We have deeply sym-pathized with you as the great responsibilities of life and duty were laid on you in recent years. We trust that you will have in your new home, that you will find many new friends and neighbors, that you will find a very helpful spiritual home in your new church relations and that God will continue to richly bless you.

We ask you to accept these tokens of our thought for you and appreciation of your services and memories of our pleasant associations with you. Mrs. John Morrison then presented Mrs. Wiley with an electric heater and iron and Miss Vera Wiley presented Miss Hazel with a beautiful bed room clock in ivory with blue tint. Mrs. Wiley, though deeply moved, thanked her friends in a few well chosen words.

Signed on behalf of the community and church:
Mrs. A. V. Bowen,
Samuel Wiley Jr.

Blacksmith Shop, Burned Fire again visited our locality and destroyed the blacksmith shop belonging to Mr. Harry Foerster, on Friday last. The fire broke out at about 5 o'clock p.m. Mr. Foerster was engaged shoeing horses for Mr.
Sam. Smart, and it is thought that a piece of red hot coal of the shoe or a spark fell through a crack in the floor and ignited some hay which was underneath and ere long the shop was a mass of roaring flames.
Mr. Foerster carried no insurance.
The villagers took up a substantial subscription at once to help build a new shop and buy tools and supplies.
We extend our sympathy to Mr.
Foerster. He had the misfortune to lose his house by fire last year.

her husband's 74th birthday anniversary. A very delightful society was given and a most laborious and enjoyable evening was spent.

Mrs. Williams and hope they may be many more happy years. They have always provided the most agreeable and rare citizens.
