Anglican Church Notes

Advent Church, Beaverdale

Sunday, September 22, 1929
Thanksgiving Service at 7:30 p.m.
Church School at 11 a.m.

Mr. Rorke, a promising student of the Anglican ministry, who has been assisting Rev. E. D. Dickson during the summer months, preached his farewell sermon on Sunday morning, taking as his text Rev. 3:20. Mr. Rorke will shortly return to college to continue his studies.

Mrs. J. D. Lee was the hostess of the Guild meeting on Thursday, September 12, with an attendance of six members and nine visitors including four ladies and five children. The meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. G. Caswell, who announced the opening hymn, 78, which was followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. It was decided to begin work on another quilt and the material was distributed among the members to be made into blocks. It was also decided that the Guild purchase 14 hymn books for use in the church. An order was passed that Rev. Mr. Dickson be paid for piano and organ used on the church windows. Other items of business were brought before the meeting but for lack of time were held over to the next meeting. Rev. E. D. Dickson closed the meeting with prayer. The hostess and her daughters, assisted by Mrs. W. B. Gregory, served refreshments during which social conversation was carried on by the hostess, also entertaining with Victrola music during this period.

Rev. E. L. Vivian of Woodstock, a former rector here, assisted Mr. Rorke with the services on Sunday evening, August 23, and spoke on the text Matt. 14:13-16.

The Annual Sunday School Picnic, which was held on Thursday, August 5th, was a very enjoyable event. It had been decided that the picnic be held in Mr. J. Miller's bush but on account of the day being cold with a drizzling rain at times, it was deemed advisable to resort to the church grounds. The adverse weather however failed to dampen the spirits of the juveniles who entered into the various amusements with much enthusiasm in the spacious driving house. Suitable rewards were distributed among the winners in the various contests which were in charge of Rev. Mr. Dickson. Mrs. A. Wilson, with a number of young ladies, was in charge of the booth, the products of which were all disposed of in a short time. Everyone present enjoyed the bountiful lunch and cup of tea served, after which the Sunday School scholars each received a treat of ice cream. A game of football was played outdoors by the senior boys, which afforded much pleasure.

Miss Irene Saunders returned to Meaford H. S. on Monday.

Mr. A. McDougall of Owen Sound is visiting his son, Adrien.

Mrs. Smith is visiting her daughter, Mrs. N. Yeomie.

One of our oldest residents passed away last Wednesday afternoon in the person of Mrs. Robt. Walter. She had reached the good age of ninety-one years and had lived in our village in the same house over forty years. She was only confined to her bed for a few days and gradually weakened, although tenaciously nursed by Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Storey. The funeral was held on Friday afternoon, service in the Anglican church, in charge of Rev. E. D. Dickson. Interment took place in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery. The casket was covered with many beautiful flowers.

Mr. Walter has the sympathy of the community in his bereavement; also Mrs. Seaman, a daughter, in Owen Sound.

(Intended for last week.)

Visitors to the C.N.E. last week were Messrs. Chas. and Sam Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Laycock and Leslie Laycock and Mr. Russ. Thom.

Miss Marion Lloyd of Owen Sound is spending a few days with Miss Amy Laycock.

Mrs. Chas. Walker of Chatsworth spent a few days with friends recently and was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Jno. Speck.

Mrs. T. Storey of Meaford is engaged professionally at Mr. Robt. Walter's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose Robertson of Barrie visited at the latter's parental home, Mr. and Mrs. A. McDougall's, last week. Miss Walfred McDougall, who had been visiting her sister, returned home with them.

Mrs. Smith visited last week with her son, Amos, near Meaford.

Master Frank Dixon is attending high school at Chatsworth.

Mrs. Jno. R. Wickham of Owen Sound visited with Mr. and Mrs. Rich. Quinton last week.

Another one of our elderly residents was called by death on Thursday evening when Mr. Alexander Abercrombie was called away. He suffered a stroke about three and a half years ago and never fully recovered, although only confined to his bed about six weeks. Deceased was in his seventy-ninth year and had lived nearly all his life in Euphrasia township, coming to the village about thirteen years ago. For quite a number of years he carried the mail to Chatsworth and then Meaford, so was quite well known. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon at Ebenezer cemetery with services in the church conducted by Revs. Fitch and Dickson, and was quite largely attended by relatives and friends. Some very beautiful floral tributes showed the sympathy of friends. Mrs. Abercrombie, Miss Freida and Mrs. Remond (the immediate family), have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their bereavement.
