Quite a number of Markdale people were in Flesherston Monday afternoon attending the funeral of the late Mr. W. A. Armstrong, who passed away on Friday, Sept. 20th, after a lengthy illness. He was one of Flesherston's most prominent business men and had spent all his life there. For a great many years he was treasurer of the Township of Armstrong and was well known and highly respected.

Business of the week are commencing a bright in the Grey. Work of the week in town, and for the week the services of Rev. Mr. Blair were conducted in great success. The services were held at 2 p.m. and were well attended. Mr. Blair is a special feature and had a fine testimony of the wonderful power and saving power of God. On Monday night of this week, Mr. Blair told his life story in the large theatre in Collingwood, and this spacious building was filled to capacity and many could not get in.

Young People's Union

The Annual Convention of Gray Presbytery Young People's Union of the United Church was held in Cooke's Church, Markdale on Wednesday, September 18th, afternoon and evening, and was largely attended. Delegates were present from nearly all parts of the Presbytery.

The afternoon session was presided over by the President, Rev. R. D. Morden of Meaford, who conducted the devotional exercises and gave a short address. Darragh - Henry

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place at Annesley United church on September 18th, when Lademaria, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherrard Henry, became the bride of Mr. Harold Perry Darragh, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Darragh of Orangeville. Rev. A. Newton St. John officiated.

The bride looked lovely in a dress of autumn brown crepe satin with shoes to match. She wore a brown fox fur and carried a bouquet of lilies and fern. She was unattended, and only the immediate friends of both families were present. After the ceremony the happy couple left on a motor trip to Quebec city and the Adirondacks. On their return they will reside in Orangeville.

Walters Falls

Mr. J. L. Laycock accompanied his nephews and sister on a week-end motor trip to Lewiston to visit his sister.

The regular meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Wright last Wednesday afternoon with an attendance of about thirty-six. After the usual opening and reading of the minutes, the recently made quilt was exhibited and duly admired. Some accounts were passed. During the month the Institute had Mr. John Speck make and erect seven road signs which they were very well pleased with. Further arrangements were made for the dressmaking short course to be held the third and fourth week of October. Considerable discussion took place in regard to changing the date of next meeting, which is to be held at Mrs. D. Reid's on October 10th. The roll call was answered by a pickle recipe followed by an apple pie demonstration by Mrs. Jno. Reid (the pie was good but the pieces were small).

Mrs. D. Reid read a paper on "Home Furnishings." Mrs. J. L. Laycock read a paper on "The Vote as a Trust." A tart demonstration was then put on. Five plates of tart were judged and Mrs. T. Johnson was the winner of the prize. Music was supplied by the gramophone. After singing God Save the King lunch was served.

Dr. and Mrs. Stan. Stephenson of Brockville are visiting at the former's parental home.

Miss Lenore Laycock of Woodford spent a few days the first of the week at her uncle's, Mr. Jno. Laycock.

Born—On Thursday, September 19th, to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Walter, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Morrison and high daughter of Detroit are visiting Mrs. Morrison's parents Mr. and Mrs. McDougall.

Services in the United church will commence at 7 o'clock after the first of October.
