Presentation

A pleasant and enjoyable evening was spent on September 13th at the home of Mrs. Peter Thibaudan, when a large gathering of friends and neighbors assembled to say farewell to the eve of her departure and also to present Mrs. Thibaudan with a mantle clock and electric toaster, and Mabel and Edna with an electric lamp each as tokens of remembrance of the happy times spent together. The neighbors are sorry to lose such a kind and obliging friend and neighbor as Mrs. Thibaudan has always proven herself to be. However it is realized that the loss to this community will be a gain for others and all wish her all happiness and prosperity in her new home in Toronto where she has since gone to reside.

Get Copy in Early

While this paper is dated Thursday it is printed Wednesday evening of each week, which necessitates everything being ready Wednesday at noon. Of necessity quite a portion of the matter for the paper must be in our hands by the end of the week or by Monday noon in order that we may have any chance to handle it in regular hours. Display advertising should never be later than noon on Monday. The public having fallen more and more in the habit of holding off matter until Tuesday, we must request a change. If you have matter for publication in future, kindly do your share to help by getting it to us as early as possible. We aim to please, but all the work of preparing this paper for publication each week can not be done in one day.

No matter what your vocation—Whether Tradesman, Clerk, Labourer, Banker or Lawyer, you are, almost without exception, dependent on your local community for your living. The more you are dependent on local support, the more you should support the community yourself.

If you are selling, either goods or service, you cannot expect to get full confidence and support if you are buying elsewhere, the things you can buy at Home. You cannot put the assurance and pep into your talk and advertising if you do not practice what you preach.

You would benefit; the whole community would benefit;

J. E. ENGLAND
THE BAKER, would benefit.

We are not asking for your patronage merely for sentiment. The Quality and Purity of everything is guaranteed.

MUSHER MAD

Quebec", says Sara Hamilton Birchall, in "Country Life". Every year, and this one more than ever. Go to Quebec between February 21st and 23rd. All you will hear is dog, dogs, huskies, mushers, St. Goddard, Nolan, Chevrier, Soppala—a score of other names. You will look at the big board in the Chateau lobby whereon the odds are shown, and you will wonder what it is all about. And then, perhaps, an enthusiastic soul will get you in a corner and tell you how on the third day of the last derby, the man who was considered in the running only for second place was held up by a freight train so long that his dogs shivered and began to stiffen, but won the 120 mile three day grind by a short margin or so; and how he was cheered and cheered, and how they come, these mushers, from all parts of the North Country with their dogs and hounds and huskies. You will pick your dog, Siberians, Alabamans, or just plain dogs, and before the last outrage has started on the first lap on the first day, the fever will have caught you. You will see the first team drive panting home the next and the next; the heroes of Norge, the trail dogs from the Pecos, fuzzy animals who know the Quebec woods, trails and teams of huskies, 2500 miles of this one great derby, dog you wouldn't want, worth hundred dogs you could love; but who on know a trainer's hand, and will give allegiance but to him; dogs in fours and fives and sixes, straining eager panting dogs with forty miles behind them and eighty before. Then you too are musher mad, and the rough, shaggy dog, moccasined feet has not yet finished the first team drive panting home here and a knight. You see
