Mrs. Joseph T. Allison

Mrs. Joseph T. Allison of this place passed away at her home on George Street on Friday evening after but a few hours illness. She had been in failing health since last spring, but her condition was not considered serious until the day before her death.

The late Mrs. Allison, whose maiden name was Charlotte Dunnett, was 73 years of age, and was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dunnett of Whitby. Nearly 50 years ago she was married to Mr. Allison and for a great many years they lived near Beeton. Twenty years ago they came to Markdale and since that time have resided here. She was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends and was a consistent member of Cooke's church, Markdale.

The deceased is survived by her husband, three sons and two daughters, namely: Howard of Acton; Russell near this village; Herbert of Gillingwood; Mrs. E. Richardson of Dixie, and Mrs. Wm. Lundy of St. Catharines. Two brothers, Wm. Dunnett of Vancouver and John Dunnett of Beeton, also survive.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon to Markdale cemetery. The funeral service was held in Cooke's church and was conducted by Rev. A. Wm. Coultas, assisted by Rev. A. Mills. The pallbearers were Messrs. Chas. and Ollie Allison, Ernest Richardson, R. G. McMillan, Stephen Dennett and Wm. Stewart.

Beautiful floral offerings were placed on the casket as follows: Willow from the Family; broken circle from the Husband; sprays from Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart of Owen Sound, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sample of Eureka, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lever, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron, Ty of St. Catharines.

Anniversary Services

The anniversary services in connection with Cooke's church were held on Sunday last, the services being in charge of Rev. W. H. Smith of Durham, who preached eloquent and inspiring sermons. His theme in the morning was taken from 2nd Timothy 2:19, "Nevertheless the foundation of the church standeth sure," and in the evening from Luke 24:19. His sermons were much enjoyed by all. The choir assisted materially in the service and in the morning rendered a beautiful anthem. Mr. G. A. Beaton sang a solo in each of the services and Miss Dorothy Stephen also gave a solo at the evening service. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Hurlbut - Heathers

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at Annesley United church parsonage, by Rev. A. N. St. John, on Wednesday, October 9th, when Muriel Elizabeth, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Heathers of Markdale, was united in marriage to Frederick Alfred, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hurlbut of Kemble. The bride wore a gown of beige georgette, with silk embroidered trimmings with hat and shoes to match, and an amber necklace, the gift of the groom.

Hincks - Stephenson

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at Annesley Church parsonage in Markdale on Saturday, September 28th, 1929, when Mary Islay, youngest daughter of Mrs. Mary Stephenson and the late Mr. William Stephenson of Markdale, became the bride of Mr. William John Hincks, second son of Mr. David Hincks and the late Mrs. Hincks. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. Newton St. John of Markdale. The bride wore a smart and becoming gown of pearl-wrinkle flat crepe with hat and other accessories of matching blue and grey. The bride was attended by Miss Gladys Hincks, sister of the groom, and was attired in pale blue georgette and radium lace. The groom was supported by Mr. Robt. Stephenson, brother of the bride. The groom's gift to the bride was a sapphire cut crystal choker and dress brooch, to the bridesmaid an ivory Gothic clock and to the bridesmaid a white and gold Waterman chain. A wedding luncheon was served at the home of the bride's mother after which the happy couple left amid showers of confetti by motor to visit friends in Muskoka and other points.

In Memoriam

LEPARD—In loving memory of my dear sister, Mary Lepard, who passed away Oct. 15th, 1926.
Days of sadness still come o'er me,
Tears of sorrow oft times flow,
Memory keeps you ever near me,
Mary,
Whom God called three years ago,
Sadly missed by sister.

Oliver's Meeting

There was a good sized audience at the meeting held in the Armouries here on Thursday evening of last week in the interest of Mr. F. R. Oliver, L.P.O. candidate in South Grey.

Mr. R. D. Carmichael acted as chairman. Miss Acheon of Chatsworth was the first speaker. She is a young girl and showed remarkable ability as a platform speaker. She dealt particularly with the L.C.A. and the educational policy of the Ferguson government.

Mr. Oliver made a good impression on those present in an address which covered the work in the Legislature during the three sessions in which he has represented the riding. He criticized the Government's policy on the liquor laws, the educational system, the Hydro and the Highways. He also criticized the financial standing of the Province and he promised if re-elected to do his best to further the interests of the people of South Grey.

Miss Agnes C. Marshall, M.P. for South-East Grey, gave an interesting and instructive talk on her recent visit to Europe. She had been greatly impressed with the deliberations of the delegates at the meetings of the League of Nations. She advised all to support Mr. Oliver at the polls on October 30th.

Vandeleur W. I.

The Vandeleur Women's Institute held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. W. Johnston. It was decided to hold a meeting of all interested in improvement of Meaford Road Cemetery at the home of W. Ratcliffe on October 7th.

The Institute teas, for the purpose of raising money, are to continue as soon as possible. Mrs. Gordon Wiley of the New England branch was present and gave most excellent report of the County Convention held at Williamsport. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Wiley. A reading by Mrs. Harold Baker, "The happiest woman," was good.

The roll call was answered by ideas for Saturday work. The October meeting will be at the home of Mrs. P. J. Thompson.

Hospital Notes

Mrs. Manning of Detroit had her tonsils removed at the local hospital on Thursday.

Mr. Victor Brodie of the townline, Artemesia and Aphrasia, had a goitre removed on Tuesday and is making satisfactory progress after the operation.
