To the Electors of South Grey

At the Nomination in Durham on Saturday Mr. Perdue's main argument was that the riding would gain by having a Government member as representative, who would be able to influence the policy of his Party and the actions of the Government. He then proceeded to show how utterly false the argument was by relating how the Party influence had changed him, who is but a candidate, from the staunch supporter of Prohibition to a defender of the Government Control Act—and that in the face of the most damning statistics.

I believe people generally are coming to realize that party discipline easily controls the party member but that it exerts no influence over the independent member, who is free to voice the wishes of his constituents and to vote in their interests.

Mr. Perdue claimed the credit of The Mothers' Allowance Act for the Ferguson Government. That is the second time a Conservative candidate has done that. Do they suppose that the people of South Grey do not know that this Act was formulated and set in operation by the Drury Government? Apparently the Ferguson Government feels the need of claiming the legislation of previous Governments in order to put up a good front.

Election day is drawing near. We can defeat the Ferguson candidate and deal a blow at the Government's record particularly the Liquor Control Act, if the electors of South Grey vote. I trust that every one will register their opinion by voting on Oct. 30th.

Yours very truly,
F. R. OLIVER

Those who can vote are:—A British subject, who is 21 years of age on or before the day of polling and who has been one year in Canada and two months in South Grey. Even if his or her name is not on the list he or she can vote if vouched for by some one whose name is on the list.

Sympathy Extended

Dear Mrs. Wright:

I have just heard of Mr. Wright's death, and, as he who knew him for a great many years, and as well knew your father and mother, I am taking the liberty of writing this note to not only to express my sympathy with you, but to pay my tribute of respect to your husband who has gone.

While your husband was quiet and reserved, his genuine qualities were recognized, and no man had more of the respect and goodwill of the community in which he lived than did Mr. Wright.

Death at any time brings sorrow to the home, but coming as it has to Mr. Wright's wife, still a comparatively young man, it is indeed a tragedy, and you and your little girl will have the sympathy of the whole community.

Please accept the sympathy of one who knew your husband for many years and who had him in high esteem, and at such opportunity as this I convey my sympathy to your father and mother.

I am
Yours very truly,
I. B. Lucas.

"The greatest apple crop in the history of Nova Scotia," is the almost unanimous opinion expressed by prominent fruit growers and Government experts of the province. It is estimated the crop will reach 2,500,000 barrels, at least half a million barrels more than any other crop ever raised in Nova Scotia.

In preparation for the opening of the 1929 big game hunting season in New Brunswick, 25,000 hunting licenses have been sent out from the Department of Lands and Mines to 300 vendors in all parts of the province.

E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, accompanied by a group of directors of the company, is now on his annual tour of inspection of company's properties and conditions in the west. Resorts, agricultural centres, experimental farms, mines and smelting plants, as well as the system itself was inspected during the tour which started September 5 from Montreal and closes at Winnipeg October 2.

"I am watching with the greatest interest the progress being achieved in the United States where railways are experimenting in the use of aeroplanes as adjuncts to their railway services," said E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, interviewed at Toronto recently. "There they are using planes by day in certain places and rail travel by night and the experiments are very interesting to me," the president added.

Two first prizes, three seconds, and a third award were won by the Canadian Pacific Railway supply farms championship Holstein herd from Strathmore, Alta., at the 60th annual provincial exhibition at New Westminster recently. This is a follow-up to the Vancouver Show where the herd led all others.

Up to the end of August, says Colonel J. S. Dennis, chief commissioner of the railway's department of colonization and development, the Canadian Pacific brought to Canada 1792 boys for placement in agricultural employment under the distributive schemes of the company. "This is the largest number of British boys brought out to the Dominion by any one organization," says the Colonel.

Back from a month's wanderings along the line of the Dominion Atlantic Railway in Nova Scotia, Miss Juliette Gaultier de la Verendrye, noted folklore artist, stated that she had discovered nine folksongs that were either quite unknown hitherto or else were interesting variants in melody and tune to similar songs in vogue among the French-Canadian habitants. She will sing some of them at forthcoming concerts.

During the first five months of the year 5,383 homesteads representing 862,240 acres of land were taken out in Alberta, settlement being mainly in the Edmonton, Grande Prairie, Peace River and Lac [illegible] districts.

WHEN MISFORTUNE BECKONS

The wheel of misfortune sometimes turns against us and we meet with reverses. At these times everything goes wrong. One affliction follows another and we are down and out. Probably sickness is the cause. At any rate dark clouds obscure the horizon of the future.

However, no matter how dark the days are, ourselves and our families need clothing and food to keep body and soul together. Who comes to your aid in those dismal periods and supplies your wants until success again shines? The merchant in the city outside Markdale knows little about your circumstances and cares less, although it may have been him who received your support a few months ago. He will not come to your assistance now and tide you over the rough waters of misfortune. No, it is the merchant who lives in your own town who will come to your aid.

"Why certainly Fred, you can have whatever you need until this trouble is over. You've had a tough break, Old Man, and don't be afraid to come here and get what you want."

Charity? No! Just the storekeeper's community spirit asserting itself. He knows that you have always lived in the community and that your honesty is established. Mingled with his community spirit is a certain amount of pride in brotherly love. He knows you better than you know him.

Do not wait for misfortune to find out how much confidence your merchant has in you. Do it now. Give him your trade and you will both profit thereby.
