Flesherton

Dear Mr. Editor, as Flesherton has not been represented in your newsy paper of late, we thought of sending in a few items and here they are.

Mr. John Runstadler, who has been in the egg business here for 45 years, has retired and with his estimable wife have moved to Toronto where they will in future reside. For a number of years he represented the late Mr. Sully of Owen Sound but for some years he has been in business for himself and had just finished up a splendid business. The best wishes of the village people go with Mr. and Mrs. Runstadler to their new home. Their only daughter, Dr. Margaret Runstadler, is practicing in a hospital at Ogdensburg.

The November meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the church on Sunday, November 10th. The program was very interesting and a successful affair. After the regular business had been transacted the Grandmother's provided a program which was presided over by Mrs. Wilcox. The program was very interesting and a successful affair. Miss Scott of Goderich is visiting with her brother, Rev. Scott, and family. Mr. (Rev.) Rayer of Sarnia is visiting with her sister, Mrs. E. C. Murray.

Little Miss Janet Crossley of Toronto is visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. Boyd. Holiday visitors in town included Miss Marie McEachnie of Toronto at the parental home; Jack Dow of Toronto; Ted McDonald of Pickering; George Mitchell of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. McDonald and little daughter of Weston; Misses Beryl and Lorine McEachnie of Durham; Miss Doll Thurston of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Toronto at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Hickling and Mrs. W. A. Armstrong spent the holiday in Weston. Miss Helen Angus, formerly of Weston, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. E. C. Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Thillauden and Mrs. Giehlert spent the week-end and holiday in Toronto. We are sorry to report Mrs. Geo. Banks on the sick list, but hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. George Johnston, with his mother and son, are moving from Rock Mills to the residence in town vacated by Mr. Runstadler.

Mrs. Jack Jones of Toronto spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Inkster.

St. John's United Church is in the hands of the decorators at the present time. A Thanksgiving service was held Sunday morning in the United church when Rev. Mr. Scott, who was overseas, preached to the returned men. It was a very impressive service. We are pleased to see Mr. Gordon Waring able to be around again after a serious illness.

A Successful Fowl Supper
The fowl supper under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the United Church here was a decided success. A beautiful supper was served from 6 to 8 o'clock to which all did ample justice. The supper program consisted of a play, "Home Acre," which was well received. The proceeds amounted to over $128. Mrs. H. H. H. acted as chairman. Miss Donald Sloan sang a solo in her usual pleasing manner.

There was a good attendance at church on Sunday, November 10th. The Thanksgiving service which was preached by the pastor, Rev. Bamford. He delivered a fine sermon from the 6th chapter of Matthew. He made some fitting remarks on the Armistice Day.

Tinker! Tailor!

The Butcher, The Baker, The Candle-stick Maker

No matter what your occupation--

Whether Tradesman, Clerk, Labourer, Farmer or Lawyer, you are, almost without exception, dependent on your local community for your living. The more you are dependent on your support, the more you should support the community yourself.

If you are selling, either goods or service, you cannot expect to get full value and support if you are buying elsewhere. The things you can buy at Home. You cannot get the assurance and pep into your talk and advertising if you do not practice what you preach.

You would benefit; the whole community would benefit;
