League of Nations

With the visit of Rt. Hen. Ramsay MacDonald to the United States and Canada and the momentuous decisions which will result from that visit public attention has been concentrated on the subject of world peace.

In considering this subject much credit is given to the League of Nations in Geneva and the great work it is doing. This is only right and the more the ideals of the League are brought before the public the more likely is it that still further practical results will follow its effects But in Canada and elsewhere it is only fair that some credit should come to the home societies, which are actively propagating League ideals in their several countries. In Canada there has existed for some nine years an organization well and favorably known as he League of Nations Society of Canada, Handi-capped by lack of funds, by comparative public indifference, and an inadequate staff it has continuously attempted to be an influence for good
