Get Copy in Early

While this paper is dated Thursday this is printed Wednesday evening of last week, which necessitates every thing being ready Wednesday at noon. Of necessity quite a portion of the matter for the paper must be in our hands by the end of the week or by Monday noon in order that we may have any chance to handle it in regular hours. Display advertising matter must be in our hands no later than noon on Monday. The public having fallen more and more in the habit of holding up matter until Tuesday, we must request a change. If you have matter for publication in future, kindly get your share to help by getting it to us as early as possible. We aim to please, but all the work of preparing this paper for publication each week cannot be done in one day.

In Memoriam

ENGLISH—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Robert E. English, who entered into rest January 7th, 1929.

It does not seem like home to us. There is an empty chair. And every place is lonely now. For father is not there. We did not dream that death would bear thee from our side. It took from us our dearest friend. A true and faithful guide. But, Oh! how sad and lonely now. We miss thy counsel here. Oh! there is none to take thy place. No one to us so dear. Wife and Family.
